Chilean writer Gabriela Mistral (1889-1957), the first Latin American to win the Nobel Prize for Literature, was a poetic idol for generations of Latin Americans who viewed her as Womanhood incarnate, the national schoolteacher-mother. How this distinctly masculine woman who never gave birth came to occupy this role, and what Mistral's image, poetry, and life have to say about the relations-and realities-of race, gender, and sexual politics in her time, are the questions Licia Fiol-Matta pursues in this book, recreating the story of a woman whose misrepresentation is at least as intriguing, and as instructive, as her fame. A Queer Mother for the Nation weaves a nuanced understanding of how Mistral cooperated with authority and fashioned herself

Contained Empowerment and the Liminal Nature of Feminisms and Activisms Victoria A. Newsom, 2022-12-19 Contained Empowerment and the Liminal Nature of Feminisms and Activisms examines the processes by which activist successes are limited and outlines a theoretical framing of the liminal and temporal limits to social justice efforts as contained empowerment With a focused lens on the third wave and contemporary forms of feminism the author investigates feminist activity from the early 1990s through responses and reactions to the overturning of Roe v Wade in 2022 and contrasts these efforts with anti feminist white supremacist and other structural normalizing efforts designed to limit and repress women's gendered and reproductive rights This book includes analyses of celebrity activism girl power transnational feminist NGOs digital feminisms and the feminist mimicry applied by practitioners of neo liberal and anti feminism Victoria A Newsom concludes that the contained nature of feminist empowerment illustrates how activists must engage directly with intersectional challenges and address the multiplicities of structural oppressions in order to breach containment

Queen for a Day Marcia Ochoa, 2014-05-19 Queen for a Day connects the logic of Venezuelan modernity with the production of a national femininity In this ethnography Marcia Ochoa considers how femininities are produced performed and consumed in the mass media spectacles of international beauty pageants on the runways of the Miss Venezuela contest on the well traveled Caracas avenue where transgender women transformistas project themselves into the urban imaginary and on the bodies of both transformistas and beauty pageant contestants misses Placing transformistas and misses in the same analytic frame enables Ochoa to delve deeply into complex questions of media and spectacle gender and sexuality race and class and self fashioning and identity in Venezuela Beauty pageants play an outsized role in Venezuela The country has won more international beauty contests than any other The femininity performed by Venezuelan women in high profile widely viewed pageants defines a kind of national femininity Ochoa argues that as transformistas and misses work to achieve the bodies clothing and makeup styles and postures and gestures of this national femininity they come to embody Venezuelan modernity

Queering the Chilean Way Carl Fischer, 2016-11-11 This book examines and critiques the fact that Chile's claims to economic exceptionalism have been embodied often quite aggressively in a heterosexual and primarily male ideal Despite the many shifts Chilean economics and politics have undergone over the past fifty years the country's view of itself as a model in contrast to other Latin American countries has remained constant By deploying an artistic literary and cinematic archive of queer figures from this period this book draws parallels among the exceptionalisms of Chile's economic discourse the subjects deemed most and least apt to embody it and the maneuvers of its cultural production between local and global ideas of gender and politics to delineate its place in the world Queering the Chilean Way thus sheds light on the sexual economic and aesthetic dimensions of exceptionalism at its heart a discourse of exclusion that often comprises a major element of nationalism in Chile and throughout the Americas
