Quench Not The Spirit Theology And Prophecy For The Church In The Modern:

Quench Not the Spirit Angela Hanley, David Smith (Medical ethicist), 2005 These essays look at the Catholic Church in the modern world and the success of the Second Vatican Council Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other s gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts When the Magisterium Intervenes Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2012-05-01 Catholicism has always recognized the need for a normative doctrinal teaching authority Yet the character scope and exercise of that authority what has come to be called the magisterium has changed significantly over two millennia This book gathers contributions from leading Catholic scholars in considering new factors that must be taken into account as we consider the church s official teaching authority in today s postmodern context Noted experts in their fields cover many intriguing topics here including the investigation of theologians that has occurred in recent years canonical perspectives on such investigations the role that women religious have played in these issues the place of the media when problems arise and possible future ways forward The book concludes with The Elizabeth Johnson Dossier a selection of documents essential to understanding the case of Elizabeth Johnson CSJ whose work was recently the subject of severe criticism by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Contributors include Bradford Hinze James Coriden Colleen Mallon Ormond Rush Gerard Mannion Anthony Godzieba Vincent Miller Richard Gaillardetz and Elizabeth Johnson Faith at Work Donald Dorr, 2007-03 In a world that questions more and more the quality of leadership in churches and politics Donald Dorr proposes a spirituality that supports authentic leadership Addressing primarily those who lead volunteer or non governmental agencies and religious organizations the author holds that they should provide a model of effective humane leadership for the business world public service and politics Dorr focuses on scriptural sources for a spirituality of leadership and draws insights from various spiritual traditions in the history of the church He emphasizes the surprisingly strong and consistent democratic tradition within Christianity He also draws on key elements in the thinking of political philosophers and management theorists In the heart of the book the author describes four different kinds of leaders and outlines five styles or manners in which good leadership is exercised Dorr concludes with a discussion of techniques for individual and communal discernment and the use of intuition in decision making Donald Dorr is a missionary who has worked for many years in leadership training and conducting spirituality workshops He is the author of eight previous books including the prize winning Spirituality and Justice

Ecumenics from the Rim John D'Arcy May, 2007 John D Arcy May's achievements motivate these essays on ecumenics Amid today's scepticism about the ecumenical movement's relevance the authors demonstrate the necessity of working together for the betterment of all This book deepens our understanding of how theology peace and reconciliation studies and interfaith dialogue critically cooperate for the flourishing of earth's life The perspective of church unity amid ecclesial division is broadened to embrace interfaith and intercultural issues ecumenics becomes visible as the intellectual paradigm of our times
