are based to a large degree on their own cultural and political experiences Gathering together new and classic essays across a wide range of disciplines and perspectives this much needed collection allows some of Latin America's leading cultural critics to write back to their Euro American counterparts and join the international debate Modernity and Postmodernity Gerard Delanty, 2000-04-19 This accessible and comprehensive overview of the main issues on the modernity postmodernity controversy is the first clear sighted book on the subject It surveys modern social theory from Kant to Weber with economy and masterly precision And evaluates the work of the Frankfurt School Arendt Strauss Luhmann Habermas Heller Castoriadis and Touraine before moving on to consider the approaches of the leading writers on postmodernity Lyotard Vattimo Derrida Foucault and Jameson The result is a new way of conceptualizing the modernity postmodernity debate and an exciting new approach to the roots of contemporary social theory Religious Transformation in Modern Asia, 2015-02-24 This volume explores the religious transformation of each nation in modern Asia When the Asian people who were not only diverse in culture and history but also active in performing local traditions and religions experienced a socio political change under the wave of Western colonialism the religious climate was also altered from a transnational perspective Part One explores the nationals of China Taiwan Hong Kong Korea and Japan focusing on the manifestations of Japanese religion Chinese foreign policy the British educational system in Hong Kong in relation to Tibetan Buddhism the Korean women of Catholicism and the Scottish impact in late nineteenth century Korea Part Two approaches South Asia through the topics of astrology the works of a Gujarati saint and Himalayan Buddhism The third part is focused on the conflicts between indigenous religions and colonialism Buddhism and Christianity Islam and imperialism and Hinduism and Christianity in Southeast Asia Routledge Handbook of Modern Korean History Michael Seth, 2016-01-29 Beginning in the mid nineteenth century when Korea became entangled in the world of modern imperialism and the old social economic and political order began to change this handbook brings together cutting edge scholarship on major themes in Korean History Contributions by experts in the field cover the Late Choson and Colonial periods Korea's partition and the diverging paths of North and South Korea Topics covered include The division of Korea Religion Competing imperialisms Economic change War and rebellions Nationalism Gender North Korea Under Kim Jong Il Global Korea The Handbook provides a stimulating introduction to the most important themes within the subject area and is an invaluable reference work for any student and researcher of Korean History Ideology of Adventure Michael Nerlich, 1987 A Cultural History of the Chinese Character "Ta" (她, She) Huang Xingtao, 2023-06-26 This book offers a thorough examination of the history of a Chinese female pronoun the Chinese character Ta She and demonstrates how the invention and identification of this new word is inextricably intertwined with matters of sociocultural politics The Chinese character Ta for the third person feminine singular pronoun was introduced in the late 1910s when the voices of women's liberation rang out in China The invention and dissemination of this word not only reflected an ideological gendering of the Chinese script but also provoked heated academic and popular debate well into the 1930s Thus the history of Ta provides a prism through which to explore modern Chinese history The author provides an ambitious and informed examination of how Ta was invented and promoted in relation to the gender equality movement the politics of neologism and other domestic elements and international catalysts This book is the first major work to survey Ta s creation It draws on diverse sources including interviews with eight historians who experienced the popularisation of Ta as youths in the 1930s and 40s This book will be an essential read for students and scholars of East Asian Studies Chinese Cultural History and those who are interested in the history of China

H. Dettmar,1992 Leading scholars speculate on the postmodern aspects of modernist literature The Totalitarian Experiment in Twentieth Century Europe David Roberts,2006-04-27 By developing a long term supranational perspective this ambitious multi faceted work provides a new understanding of totalitarianism the troubling common element linking Soviet communism Italian fascism and German Nazism The book s original analysis of antecedent ideas on the subject sheds light on the common origins and practices of the regimes Through this fresh appreciation of their initial frame of mind Roberts demonstrates how the three political experiments yielded unprecedented collective mobilization but also a characteristic combination of radicalization myth making and failure Providing deep historical analysis the book proves that totalitarianism best characterizes the common features in the originating aspirations the mode of action and even the outcomes of Soviet communism Italian fascism and German Nazism By enhancing our knowledge of what totalitarianism was and where it came from Roberts affords important lessons about the ongoing challenges possibilities and dangers of the modern political experiment Modern Religion, Modern Race Theodore M. Vial,2016 Religion is a racialized category even when race is not explicitly mentioned In Modern Religion Modern Race Theodore Vial argues that because the categories of religion and race are rooted in the post Enlightenment project of reimagining what it means to be human we cannot simply will ourselves to stop using them Only by acknowledging that religion is already racialized can we begin to understand how the two concepts are intertwined and how they operate in our modern world It has become common to argue that the category religion is not universal or even very old but is a product of Europe s Enlightenment modernization Equally common is the argument that religion is not an innocent category of analysis but is implicated in colonial regimes of control and as such plays a role in Europe s process of identity construction of itself and of non European others Current debates about race follow an eerily similar trajectory race is not an ancient but a modern construction It is part of the project of colonialism and race discourse forms one of the cornerstones of modern European identity making Why can't we stop using them or re-construct them in less toxic ways By examining the theories of Kant Herder and Schleiermacher among others Vial uncovers co-constitutive nature of race and religion describes how they became building blocks of the modern world and shows how the two concepts continue to be used today to form identity and to make sense of the world He shows that while we disdain the racist language of some of the founders of religious studies the continued influence of the modern worldview they helped create leads us often unwittingly to reiterate many of the same distinctions and hierarchies Although it may not be time to abandon the very category of religion with all its attendant baggage Modern Religion Modern Race calls for us to examine that baggage critically and to be fully conscious of the ways in which religion always carries with it dangerous ideas of race Dialogic

Moments Tamar Katriel, 2004 An original ethnographic study about communication and culture in Palestine and Israel during the Twentieth Century examining three modes of communication soul talks straight talk and talk radio The vision of communication as authentic dialogue as the mutual communion of souls has animated a great many twentieth century discussions of language and communication both in scholarly writings and in various forms and contexts of popular culture In its various manifestations this communicative utopia has identified dialogue or conversation as a locus of authenticity of both individuals and groups This study traces the ways in which this utopian vision of communication has played itself out in the particular context of Israeli society through the twentieth century encapsulating central trends in the evolving Israeli cultural conversation over the years In this sense it is a historically situated study of the cultural fluctuations of a given society in all its particularity In another sense however it seeks to offer a more general statement about the culturally constructed nature of the quest for authenticity as a project of modernity by focusing on conceptions of communication and language as its quintessential loci From the Introduction by Tamar Katriel Crisis and Critique: Philosophical Analysis and Current

Events Anne Siegetsleitner, Andreas Oberprantacher, Marie-Luisa Frick, Ulrich Metschl, 2021-06-08 Contemporary deep reaching changes whether in financial or real economy in Europe's political conditions in the context of scientific theories in the field of global environmental security or gender relations are also a challenge to philosophy The volume comprises cutting edge scholarly articles from renowned philosophers with various geographical backgrounds and from different philosophical strands Next to investigating general questions as to the relation of philosophy and critique What is philosophical critique and which philosophical concepts of critique are of importance today Where do we need it most Where are its limits the articles focus on issues like theories of democracy and modes of election the roles of emotions in the political realm challenges from a widespread discontent in society to politics and science changes to social identities and different theoretical approaches to social identity formation The book is indispensable for all who are interested in what contemporary philosophy has to say on crucial issues of our time Marxism in the Chinese Revolution Arif Dirlik, 2005

Representing a lifetime of research and writing by noted historian Arif Dirlik the essays collected here explore developments in Chinese socialism and the issues that have occupied historians of the Chinese revolution for the past three decades Dirlik engages Chinese socialism critically but with sympathy for the aspirations of revolutionaries who found the hope of social political and cultural liberation in Communist alternatives to capitalism and the intellectual inspiration to realize their hopes in Marxist theory The book's historical approach to Marxist theory emphasizes its global relevance while avoiding dogmatic and Eurocentric limitations These incisive essays range from the origins of socialism in the early twentieth century through the victory of the Communists in mid century to the virtual abandonment by century's end of any pretense to a socialist revolutionary project by the leadership of the Chinese Communist Party All that remains of the revolution in historical hindsight are memories of its failures and misdeeds but Dirlik retains a critical perspective not just toward the past but also toward the ideological hegemonies of the present Taken together his writings reaffirm the centrality of the revolution to modern Chinese history They also illuminate the fundamental importance of Marxism to grasping the flaws of capitalist modernity despite the fact that in the end the socialist response was unable to transcend the social and ideological horizons of capitalism

The Power of the Word Patsy J. Daniels, 2015-06-18 This book brings together twelve authors who look at the concept of the word from several different perspectives inspiring in the reader a sense of wonder to think of the lowly word which we toss away in yesterday's newspaper which we ignore on street signs which we utter without giving a thought to the consequences of the power carried by the word Moving from a psycholinguist explanation of the acquisition of language the volume presents the function of the word in bad jokes in Architecture, Ethics, and the Personhood of Place Gregory Caicco, 2007 Architecture and environmental design are among the last professional fields to develop a sustained and nuanced discussion concerning ethics Hemmed in by politics and powerful clients on one side and the often unscrupulous practices of the construction industry on the other environmental designers have been traditionally reluctant to address ethical issues head on And yet the rapid urbanization of the world's population continues to swell into new megacities each less healthy welcoming secure or environmentally sustainable than the next Green carbon reduced and sustainable building practices are important ways architects have recently responded to the symptoms of the crisis but are these efforts really addressing the core issues Taking the Dine Navajo Hogan Song a song used to protect and nourish the personhood of newly constructed dwellings as their inspiration the architects philosophers poets and other contemporary scholars contributing to this volume demonstrate that a deeper more radical change in our relationship to the built world needs to occur While offering a careful critique of modernist corporate or techno enthralled design practices these essays investigate an alternative relational ecology whose wisdom draws from ancient and often marginalized voices if not the whisperings of the earth itself Contributors include Richard Kearney Alberto Perez Gomez Juhani Pallasmaa Karsten Harries Edward Casey Susan Stewart David Abram Stacy Alaimo Jace and Laura Weaver Philip Sheldrake and Sebnem Yucel Young

Italian Modernism Mario Moroni, Luca Somigli, 2004-01-01 Italian Modernism was written in response to the need for an historiographic and theoretical reconsideration of the concepts of Decadentismo and the avant garde within the Italian critical tradition Focussing on the confrontation between these concepts and the broader notion of international modernism the essays in this important collection seek to understand this complex phase of literary and artistic practices as a response to the epistemes of philosophical and scientific modernity at the end of the nineteenth century and in the first three decades of the twentieth Intellectually provocative this collection is the first attempt in the field of Italian Studies at a comprehensive account of Italian literary modernism Each contributor documents how previous critical categories employed to account for the literary artistic and cultural experiences of the period have provided only partial and inadequate descriptions preventing a fuller understanding of the complexities and the interrelations among the cultural phenomena of the time
