Quest For Quality In The Church A New Paradigm:

Quest for Quality in the Church Ezra Earl Jones,1993 A Covenantal Imagination William Johnson Everett, 2021-12-15 This harvest of articles drawn from William Johnson Everett's career of teaching and research on four continents and in a variety of institutions shows the breadth depth and diversity of his interests Like spotlights in the wider field of Christian social ethics they illuminate the key threads that have held together an emerging tapestry of thought woven around the powerful concept of covenant Whether lifting up concepts of covenant federalism and corporation the oikos of work family and faith the public nature and mission of the church or the ethical meaning of journey metaphors his rich and artful style leads us into thinking more deeply about the way our lives are joined in a covenantal imagination about a more just and sustainable world Women, Church, and Leadership: New Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim, Deborah Beth Creamer, 2012-04-06 This book is about leadership a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women s perspectives The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership theologically profound practically relevant and historically timely This volume a product of a collaborative process between academia and church promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society The Dynamics of Changing Higher Education in the Global South Busani Mpofu, Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2020-06-29 Today there are generally universities in Africa rather than African universities The legitimacy of the university in Africa is under serious questions now because of its complicity in racism patriarchy sexism colonialism capitalism genocide epistemicide linguicide culturecide and alienation In other words the university in Africa as we know it today is elitist and exclusionary Therefore rethinking the idea of the university is fundamental to overcoming its current deficiencies in the Global South This volume bringing together a number of national case studies and macro analyses on the dynamics of changing higher education in the Global South gestures towards the desired imagined decolonial African university which should be a site of multilingualism where African indigenous languages cosmologies and ontologies become a central part of its identity and soul intolerant of epistemicides linguicides and cultural imperialism but a site of cognitive and social justice that fully embraces the idea that all human beings are born into valid useful relevant and legitimate knowledge systems Jov After Failure Second Edition Linda A Bankoski, 2025-01-14 Quality matters Joy matters And quality and joy are the result of good decisions We don t have control over how people treat us or how events impact us We do have control over the access they have to our spirits Write and follow a constitution for yourself and make decisions based on your constitution not your intuition Write your constitution to help you remember you how to care for yourself Intuition is a gut reaction Intuition is often a result of habits that we have developed over time If you have a failure use the Choice Cycle to improve your Next Time It has taken me a lifetime of failures to learn that I have resources and can control who has access to me We can learn to trust our sources of love I know and I want you to know how to make decisions to be experience a life of joy Selling Out the Church Philip D. Kenneson, Jim Street, 2003-07-24 Marketing the church is hot For many church leaders marketing might even be the first article of their creed which goes something like this We believe that our church determines its identity and mission through the tactics of marketing strategies Theologians Kenneson and Street offer a thoughtful and provocative protest with a foreword from Stanley Hauerwas The authors expose the theological presuppositions that inform the marketing project and help us to see that the marketer's presumption that form can be separated from content of the gospel betrays an understanding of the gospel that cannot help betraying the gift that is Christ The authors propose an alternative constructive account of the church's mission and purpose that is not based on exchange of value but on reminding us that the gospel is always a gift a gift that makes impossible any presumptions that there can be an exchange between human beings and God that is rooted in the satisfaction of our untrained needs The cross and resurrection challenge the world's understanding of what our needs should be Quality Planning, Control, and Improvement in Research and Development George W. Roberts, 1994-12-08 This work provides the tools required to help researchers reduce risks and minimize costs emphasizing the techniques that achieve and improve quality as well as illustrating the need for change in current laboratory management practices The book features an in depth study of the strengths and weaknesses of peer review with checklist examples from the US office of naval research The book is intended for quality reliability industrial design process manufacturing chemical mechanical metallurgic and electrical and electronics engineers cost analysts physicists chemists chief executive officers laboratory managers and administrators and upper level undergraduate and graduate students in these disciplines

Rekindling the Mainline Stephen C. Compton,2003-06-01 Not only do new church starts in significant numbers bring systemic change and renewal to mainline denominations but new church development brings similar change to individual aging congregations in their vicinity Author Stephen Compton argues that a decline in new church starts in the last half of the 20th century was the major contributor to the decline of mainline church groups not liberalism or lack of faith as is often cited He shows in this book how introducing considerable numbers of new congregations into these old denominations can cause these venerable institutions to revisit the meaning of church and congregation develop a clearer vision of their collective mission and grow in their ability to bring about positive change in the world In effect he contends new churches in an aging organization do not merely make it grow They make it change in ways that make it more effective in its mission and ministries This book will appeal to leaders across denominational lines including those not ordinarily called mainline and especially to pastors and leaders of older congregations

Polity, Practice, and the Mission of The United Methodist Church Thomas Edward Frank, 2006 Commissioned by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry for use in United Methodist doctrine polity history courses This in depth analysis of the connection between United Methodist polity and theology addresses ways in which historical developments have shaped and continue to shape the organization of the church This revised edition incorporates the actions of The United Methodist General Conference 2004 The book discusses continuing reforms of the church's plan for baptism and church membership as well as the emergence of deacon's orders and other changes to ordained ministry procedures The text is now cross referenced to the Book of Discipline 2004 including the revised order of disciplinary chapters and paragraph numbering Denominational statistics are updated along with references to recent works on The United Methodist Church and American religious life The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving Larry VandeCreek, Arthur M. Lucas, 2014-01-02 Structure your ministry to start with patients needs hopes and resources and to be clear what difference your ministry can make Hospital chaplains value who they are and what they do as contributions to patients and families healing and well being And they are continually stretching to enhance their ministries Hospital administrators and other professionals on the care teams however often need help to grasp those same values in outcome oriented observable documentable changes for the better terms The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving Foundations for Outcome Oriented Chaplaincy offers a powerful new paradigm for enhancing supportive effective spiritual care for patients and families as well as communicating substantive outcomes to leaders and clinicians alike This is all the more important in these times when every possible resource must be well used for the good of our patients and their families By evaluating the pastoral care you offer you can become more aware of the discrete skills you exercise in the assessment planning intervention and reflection process Such evaluation efforts highlight the discrete differences excellent spiritual care makes This can help you track contributions you are making in terms of the patient's healing and well being Having a sound replicable way to make the process more conscious also helps you communicate your assessment strategies and contributions more clearly to other care team members Furthermore consistently using The Discipline over time will enable you to discover patterns of spiritual dynamics in how people live with different health care challenges in their lives These patterns translate into valuable insights as your care for others The process discussed in The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving calls on the chaplain to identify the patient's spiritual needs hopes and resources construct a patient profile through identifying the individual s sense of the holy sense of meaning sense of hope and sense of community design the desired outcome s you hope your care will contribute for example a person who has suffered a spinal cord injury integrates the effects of their injury in their sense of identity and meaning a person living with cystic fibrosis healthfully grieves the loss of others in the CF community a patient disabled by the absence of her support community regains use of her personal resources for coping and self care develop and share a plan for the patient's spiritual care choose interventions which may range from facilitating a life review to compassionate confrontation to reading Scripture to active listening to arranging a family care conference measure outcomes identifying and communicating the difference your care has made in terms of the patient's healing and well beingThe Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving offers case studies personal experiences helpful figures and charts and suggestions for dealing with patients experiencing unique complex health care challenges including adults living with cystic fibrosis and violent victims of violence The wise advice and practical suggestions in this book will help you recognize and document the solid value of your hospital ministry Think about It Ezra Earl Jones, 1996-02 Quality in the church mission and vision leadership systems thinking evangelism members and customers Christian community and the primary task of the church are topics addressed in this provocative work The Abingdon Guide to Funding Ministry Donald W.
