Question Of Innocence:

A Question of Innocence Donald Winks, 1962      Question of Innocence B Collins, Brandilyn Collins, 1995-11-01 Recounts the story of the Moore family whose eldest daughter Serena confessed in her diary to killing her four year old sister Mallory and describes the ensuing trial that revealed the family's history of abuse and neglect Original      Just a Thought with a Question or Two Joe Morris, 2019-08-07 The bones of what was standing in the sprouts of what could be all in the shadow of what is Here I sit with my back to a tree Looking back over the way I've come Thinking of what might be all in the shade of the day The bones they crumble and fall Sprouts they fight for every bit of sunlight the shadows shorten and lengthen as the day moves on Could I sit here tomorrow had I sat here yesterday My thoughts move on like the trail an easy walk back forward unknown they both go on Only the tree stands steady not noticing my back      Question of Innocence Ian Hornby, 1997-12-01      Radical French Thought and the Return of the "Jewish Question" Eric Marty, 2015-05-22 Five seminal essays on contemporary antisemitism and its connections to radical thought For English speaking readers this book serves as an introduction to an important French intellectual whose work especially on the issues of antisemitism and anti Zionism runs counter to the hostility shown toward Jews by some representatives of contemporary critical theory It presents for the first time in English five essays by Eric Marty previously published in France with a new preface by the author addressed to his American readers The focus of these essays is the debate in France and elsewhere in Europe concerning the Jew The first essay on Jean Genet one of postwar France's most important literary figures investigates the nature of Genet's virulent antisemitism and hatred of Israel and its significance for an understanding of contemporary phenomena The curious reappearance of St Paul in theological and political discourse is discussed in another essay which describes and analyses the interest that secular writers of the far left have shown in Paul's universalism placed over and against Jewish or Israeli particularism The remaining essays are more polemical in nature and confront the anti Israeli attacks by Alain Badiou and Gilles Deleuze Both important and timely it will be a notable contribution to the ongoing public and intellectual discussion of contemporary antisemitism and the animus of intellectuals toward the state of Israel Elhanan Yakira author of Post Zionism Post Holocaust Represents a significant contribution to our understanding of both the phenomenon of the new antisemitism and a certain strain of French critical theory over the last several decades Maurice Samuels Yale University

Heterosexuality in Question Stevi Jackson, 1999-07-26 With heterosexuality currently being examined more rigorously than ever before this accessible and engaging book charts the development of feminist and sociological theorizing on sexuality and the emergence of a radical critique of heterosexuality Stevi Jackson reviews a range of important theoretical and substantive issues and she demonstrates an important shift in feminist thinking from an emphasis on male dominance within heterosexual relations to a critical perspective on heterosexuality itself Her book will be relevant to scholars and students in the fields of women's studies lesbian and gay studies and the sociology of sexuality      Criminology Question
