Reading with a Difference Arthur F. Marotti,1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak

Cultural Critique and Abstraction Elisabeth W. Joyce, 1998 This study of Marianne Moore and the visual arts focuses on how art productions serve to break down and re create cultural practice proving that culture is a mutable organism reluctant to change but not impervious to it In doing so author Elisabeth W Joyce shows that even though Moore may have restricted herself to the quiet provincial life of Brooklyn her poetry attests to her resistance to the constrictions imposed by the predominating bourgeoisie This study presents the bifurcation between modernism and the avant garde where while the modernists retreated from engagement in society the avant gardistes remained focused on political and social issues in order to critique stifling cultural phenomena so that art could effect cultural changes In taking this stance instead of viewing Moore's poetry as typically and provincially American Joyce places her in the international and radical art movements of the early twentieth century
