General Philosophy of Science: Focal Issues, 2007-07-18 Scientists use concepts and principles that are partly specific for their subject matter but they also share part of them with colleagues working in different fields Compare the biological notion of a natural kind with the general notion of confirmation of a hypothesis by certain evidence Or compare the physical principle of the conservation of energy and the general principle of the unity of science Scientists agree that all such notions and principles aren't as crystal clear as one might wish An important task of the philosophy of the special sciences such as philosophy of physics of biology and of economics to mention only a few of the many flourishing examples is the clarification of such subject specific concepts and principles Similarly an important task of general philosophy of science is the clarification of concepts like confirmation and principles like the unity of science It is evident that clarification of concepts and principles only makes sense if one tries to do justice as much as possible to the actual use of these notions by scientists without however following this use slavishly That is occasionally a philosopher may have good reasons for suggesting to scientists that they should deviate from a standard use Frequently this amounts to a plea for differentiation in order to stop debates at cross purposes due to the conflation of different meanings While the special volumes of the series of Handbooks of the Philosophy of Science address topics relative to a specific discipline this general volume deals with focal issues of a general nature After an editorial introduction about the dominant method of clarifying concepts and principles in philosophy of science called explication the first five chapters deal with the following subjects Laws theories and research programs as units of empirical knowledge Theo Kuipers various past and contemporary perspectives on explanation Stathis Psillos the evaluation of theories in terms of their virtues Ilkka Niiniluoto and the role of experiments in the natural sciences notably physics and biology Allan Franklin and their role in the social sciences notably economics Wenceslao Gonzalez In the subsequent three chapters there is even more attention to various positions and methods that philosophers of science and scientists may favor ontological epistemological and methodological positions James Ladyman reduction integration and the unity of science as aims in the sciences and the humanities William Bechtel and Andrew Hamilton and logical historical and computational approaches to the philosophy of science Atocha Aliseda and Donald Gillies The volume concludes with the much debated question of demarcating science from nonscience Martin Mahner and the rich European American history of the philosophy of science in the 20th century Friedrich Stadler Comprehensive coverage of the philosophy of science written by leading philosophers in this field Clear style of writing for an interdisciplinary audience No specific pre knowledge required Answers to Ever-recurring Questions from the People Andrew Jackson Davis, 1868 Family Flip Quiz : Natural World, History, Science and Maths, Geography, General Knowledge, English ,1999 The World's Religions Peter Clarke, Friedhelm Hardy, Leslie Houlden, Stewart Sutherland, 2004-01-14 Gives an account of the history the theological basis the practice and the current state of the study of religion and religions throughout the world Combines a clear and non technical style of presentation with a structure and range of contributions which reflect the richness and complexity of religion itself of the religions of the world and the study of religions Comprehensive index bibliographies and suggestions for further reading Intriguing philosophical questions are raised about the nature of religion and the qualities needed for studying it Times Higher Education Supplement Excellent book remarkably successful impressive as much for the sheer scale of the undertaking as for its consistent standard of analysis It is a fine achievement which will serve both as a very suitable textbook for students and a reliable guide to the state of scholarship in the History and Study of Religions Heythrop Journal Subjective Agency and Poststructuralism Cillian Ó Fathaigh, Gavin Rae, 2024-12-02 Poststructuralism has long been acknowledged to offer a radical critique of the foundational subject as a precursor to affirming a constituted subject Its detractors have however held that the resultant position cannot offer a coherent account of agency strong version or alternatively that while it may be able to account for non subjective agency it is unable to develop a coherent explanation for subjective agency weak version Somewhat strangely this issue has been largely ignored by commentators predisposed to poststructuralist thought In contrast this volume focuses on the works of Judith Butler Cornelius Castoriadis Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Luce Irigaray Jacques Lacan and Catherine Malabou to show that the question of the subject is a key one for many poststructuralist thinkers that they are aware of the problematic status of agency that arises from their decentering of the foundational subject and that they offer heterogeneous responses to it Subjective Agency and Poststructuralism will therefore be an invaluable resource for researchers and advanced students interested in philosophy political theory psychoanalysis critical theory history of ideas feminist theory and cultural studies Political Research Sandr Halperin,2025 The Natural Truth Sigrid Suyo,2022-09-20 The Natural Truth A Spiritual Journey By Sigrid Suyo Our lives are a journey sometimes we get stuck in one place afraid to move on This book relates the passage through various stages of religious belief from faith and reverence to doubt and disillusionment to departure and loss to open mindedness and re examination and finally to a natural spirituality of awareness and peace In telling her story the author looked backward so she could look forward She recognized how her staunch religious conditioning as a child prevented her from seeing the world as it is Her path revealed much about the often unacknowledged spiritual characteristics of the certainty of life on Earth versus the uncertainty of life beyond the grave There is no commandment for the adoration of our natural world but there is much to praise The book s examination of traditional religious practices and beliefs that guided the author for three decades of her life is written with honesty and the occasional rhyming word She does not attempt to persuade the reader but presents her insights with logic and forthrightness Her viewpoint presents many questions to ponder about our religious beliefs and their value in our lives Like beauty personal spiritualism religiously inspired or otherwise lives in the heart of the beholder One need only take the time to look for its many sources We all have misgivings about life and death This book provides much to think about and much to value Those who may be on the cusp of doubt about their religious beliefs may find it inspirational and informative Those happy with their spiritualism may find it enlightening Research in Education ,1970-05 Natural Religion Davis Baird,2025-06-19 Davis Baird s grandfather Earl Clement Davis 1876 1953 was a Unitarian minister from 1905 to 1953 Baird was born a year after his grandfather died and never knew him But he inherited a trunk of his manuscripts He grew up without any religion today he would be called a none one with no religious affiliation or church membership This book shares his discovery of his grandfather s approach to religion His grandfather denied any supernatural sources for or elements of religion he was an enthusiastic advocate for science He vigorously argued against all authoritarian forms of governance religious and civil He believed in human divinity the power of humans to develop and pursue ideals of truth beauty and goodness to make the world better The living God for his grandfather was a God that lives in humans has lived in humans for millennia striving to create a reality of truth beauty and goodness of justice for all of a heaven on earth This is what Baird calls natural religion

Philosophy of Education Louis Mazzullo,2012-09-05 Our current educational initiatives NCLB and Race to the Top are competitive models that reward victory and punish defeat In order to win the Race to the Top we have to hope or plan that our fellow students and teachers as well as our neighboring states and schools will fail Race to the Top therefore insures that we will be a nation of losers and that we will be pitted against our fellow citizens We must engender a more cooperative spirit one that does not endorse an us vs them mentality in which it is believed that the them are taking away from the us We need to reframe our educational philosophy into a model that values each student for his or her individuality and uniqueness that prepares the student with confidence and pride for the worlds of social and civic work and for the personal and professional relationships they will enter upon graduation We need to value the whole child and address key issues that influence our ability to find happiness in accordance with the essence of what it means to be human satisfying interpersonal relationships satisfaction in work commensurate with our interests and skills and satisfying participation in our civic and political spheres in other words to achieve the highest standards of intellectual social emotional physical and spiritual health
