Popular Geopolitics and Nation Branding in the Post-Soviet Realm Robert A. Saunders, 2016-07-07 This seminal book explores the complex relationship between popular geopolitics and nation branding among the Newly Independent States of Eurasia and their combined role in shaping contemporary national image and statecraft within and beyond the region It provides critical perspectives on international relations nationalism and national identity through the use of innovative approaches focusing on popular culture new media public diplomacy and alternative narrators of the nation By positing popular geopolitics and nation branding as contentious forces and complementary flows the study explores the tensions and elisions between national self image and external perceptions of the nation and how this complex interplay has become integral to contemporary global affairs Dialogue and the New Cosmopolitanism Fred Dallmayr, 2022-11-28 Dialogue and the New Cosmopolitanism Conversations with Edward Demenchonok stands in opposition to the doctrine that might makes right and that the purpose of politics is to establish domination over others rather than justice and the good life for all In the pursuit of the latter goal the book stresses the importance of dialogue with participants who take seriously the views and interests of others and who seek to reach a fair solution In this sense the book supports the idea of cosmopolitanism which by contrast to empire involves multi lateral cooperation and thus the quest for a just cosmopolis The international contributors to this volume with their varied perspectives are all committed to this same quest Edited by Fred Dallmayr the chapters take the form of conversations with Edward Demenchonok a well known practitioner of international and cross cultural philosophy The conversations are structured in parts that stress the philosophical anthropological cultural and ethical dimensions of global dialogue In our conflicted world it is inspiring to find so many authors from different places agreeing on a shared vision

Kochtcheeva, 2020-02-17 This book analyzes the nature of Russia's involvement with globalization To date Russia has mainly followed a course of selective openness governed by an increasingly strong state pursuing self determination and its own vision of strategic objectives and forms of cooperation rather than the projected reproduction of global convergence It is also a country that is believed to be finding a new place and position for itself in the evolving global order where European and American reflections shape the treatment of contemporary questions concerning Russia's status in the world The book highlights the problems and conflicts associated with political developments democratization economic reforms and innovation as well as societal perceptions and national identity formation The world is shifting with Russia developing its own vision of global politics and cultivating a pragmatic strategy based on national interest one that supports globalization where necessary and opposes it where conflicts of interest and values are inevitable
