War, Revolution, and Nation-making in Lithuania, 1914-1923 Tomas Balkelis,2018 In this book Tomas Balkelis explores how the Lithuanian state was created and shaped by the Great War from its onset in 1914 to the last waves of violence in 1923 As the very notion of independent Lithuania was constructed during the war violence is seen as an essential part of the formation of Lithuanian state nation and identity War was much more than simply the historical context in which the tectonic shift from empire to nation state took place It transformed people policies institutions and modes of thought in ways that would continue to shape the nation for decades after the conflict subsided In telling the story of the post WWI conflict in Lithuania War Revolution and Nation Making in Lithuania 1914 1923 focuses on the soldiers and civilians involved in the conflict rather than the strategies and acts of politicians generals or diplomats The volume s two main themes are the impact of military social and cultural mobilizations on the local population and different types of violence that were so characteristic of the region throughout the period The actors in this story are people displaced by war and mobilized for war refugees veterans volunteers peasant conscripts POWs paramilitary fighters and others who took to guns not diplomacy to assert their power This is the story of how their lives were changed by war and how they shaped the society that emerged after war
