Russian Women and their Organizations R. Kay, 2000-02-02 Grassroots Russian women s organizations faced multiple challenges in the early 1990s Like their members they were confronted with both potentially hostile attitudes and numerous practical difficulties Post Soviet ideologies of gender difference produced a gender climate which was particularly unsympathetic to female activism in support of other women This book presents a detailed study of grassroots Russian women s organizations in 1991 96 against the background of a careful analysis of gender relations and attitudes to women s place in post Soviet Russian society Russian Women and their Organizations R. Kay, 2000-05-05 Grassroots Russian women s organizations faced multiple challenges in the early 1990s Like their members they were confronted with both potentially hostile attitudes and numerous practical difficulties Post Soviet ideologies of gender difference produced a gender climate which was particularly unsympathetic to female activism in support of other women This book presents a detailed study of grassroots Russian women s organizations in 1991 96 against the background of a careful analysis of gender relations and attitudes to women s place in post Soviet Russian society Building Democracy in Contemporary Russia

Sarah L. Henderson, 2018-07-05 Can foreign donors help build new democracies In the 1990s public and private organizations such as USAID and the Soros Foundation poured huge amounts of money and expertise into Russia to help build the dream of a vibrant democratic society Sarah L Henderson argues that despite the altruistic intentions of foreign assistance agencies and domestic activists foreign aid designed to spur civic growth has had unintended consequences Drawing on extensive field work survey research and work experience for several funding agencies in Moscow in the late 1990s Henderson focuses on donor efforts to support the emerging community of nongovernmental organizations and in particular on efforts to build a functioning women s movement in Russia Her intimate knowledge of Russia s growing NGO community informs a worrisome finding foreign aid has made a tremendous difference but not in altogether expected or positive ways New Russian civic groups serve either the needs of an indigenous clientele or the demands of the foreign aid bureaucracy but rarely both Henderson s research and experience show that while aid has kept a fledgling civic community alive it is a civic community that is disconnected from its own domestic audience The book suggests that large flows of foreign aid have in some ways damaged the long term prospects for democratization in Russia Russia After Communism

Phillips, 2008-06-25 Considers democratization, privatization and women's lives in postcolonial Ukraine. The Routledge Handbook of Gender in Central-Eastern Europe and Eurasia Katalin Fábián, Janet Elise Johnson, Mara Lazda, 2021-07-25 This Handbook is the key reference for contemporary historical and political approaches to gender in Central Eastern Europe and Eurasia. Leading scholars examine the region's highly diverse politics, histories, cultures, ethnicities and religions and how these structures intersect with gender alongside class, sexuality, coloniality and racism. Comprising 51 chapters, the Handbook is divided into six thematic parts: Part I Conceptual debates and methodological differences; Part II Feminist and women's movements, cooperating and colliding; Part III Constructions of gender in different ideologies; Part IV Lived experiences of individuals in different regimes; Part V The ambiguous postcommunist transitions; Part VI Postcommunist policy issues. With a focus on defining debates, the collection considers how the shared experiences, especially communism, affect political forces, organization of gender through a broad variety of topics including feminism's ideology, violence, independence, regime transition and public policy. It is a foundational collection that will become invaluable to scholars and students across a range of disciplines including Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies and Central Eastern European and Eurasian Studies.

Women's Health in Post-Soviet Russia Michele Rivkin-Fish, 2005-08-04 Russia's maternal health crisis and postsocialist transition examined through ethnographic observation in clinics and hospitals. Citizenship in an Enlarging Europe B. Einhorn, 2006-06-06 Citizenship in an Enlarging Europe considers the impact of economic, political and social transformation in Central and Eastern Europe in the context of EU enlargement. The author uses the lens of gender to examine the processes of democratization, marketization and nationalism. Civil Society and Gender Justice Karen Hagemann, Sonya Michel, Gunilla Budde, 2008-10-01 Civil society and civic engagement have increasingly become topics of discussion at the national and international level. The editors of this volume ask: does the concept of civil society include gender equality and gender justice? Or to frame the question differently: is civil society a feminist concept? Conversely, does feminism need the concept of civil society? This important volume offers both a revised gendered history of civil society and a program for making it more egalitarian in the future. An interdisciplinary group of internationally known authors investigates the relationship between public and private in the discourses and practices of civil societies the significance of the family for the project of civil society the relation between civil society the state and different forms of citizenship and the complex connection between civil society gendered forms of protest and nongovernmental movements While often critical of historical instantiations of civil society all the authors nonetheless take seriously the potential inherent in civil society particularly as it comes to influence global politics They demand however an expansion of both the concept and project of civil society in order to make its political opportunities available to all
