history examines imperial Russian tourism's entanglement in the vexed issue of cosmopolitanism understood as receptiveness to the foreign and pitted against provinciality and nationalist anxiety about the allure and the influence of Western Europe. The study maps the shift from Enlightenment cosmopolitanism to Byronic cosmopolitanism with special attention to the art pilgrimage abroad. For typically middle class Russians daunted by the cultural riches of the West vacationing in the North Caucasus, Georgia and the Crimea afforded the compensatory opportunity to play colonizer kings and queens in Asia. Drawing on Anna Karenina and other literary classics, travel writing, journalism and guidebooks, the investigation engages with current debates in cosmopolitan studies including the fuzzy paradigm of colonial cosmopolitanism.

Encounters across Difference Natalia Bloch, 2021-05-07 In Encounters across Difference Natalia Bloch examines tourism encounters in the informal sector in India and their potential to empower subaltern communities. Drawing from ethnographic evidence in Hampi and Dharamshala, Bloch explores the potential of tourism to promote political engagement, volunteering, sponsorship, local entrepreneurship and women's empowerment. Contrary to the frequent criticism of tourism to the Global South as a colonial practice, Bloch argues that workers and small entrepreneurs in displaced communities see tourists as allies in their political struggles and on a more individual level as an opportunity to build better lives.
