Anne Graham Lotz, 2005-05-04 Called the best preacher in the family by her father Billy Graham Anne

Graham Lotz speaks around the globe with the wisdom and the authority of years spent studying God's Word. In her latest book Anne shares her heart and God's teachings on the universal problem of suffering. Drawing her characteristically keen insights from the familiar story of Lazarus in the ninth and eleventh chapters of the Gospel of John, Anne offers Jesus' reassuring answers to our heartfelt cries for understanding: Why doesn't God care? Why does He let these things happen? Why me? Why doesn't God answer my prayers? Why didn't He protect me? Why doesn't He perform a miracle? Why helps us understand and deal with suffering while guiding us to the ultimate answer: the Savior who shares our grief and our tears.

In His Everlasting Arms Gail MacDonald, 2003-10-24 Over and over the chosen people of God saw in his hand and arm a promise of provision and protection. God told them, "I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and mighty acts of judgment. I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God." Exodus 6:6-7. These words of belonging are sweet solace for the Christian who learns to take God at his word and trust him even in the most troubled times. As a woman who herself has weathered countless storms both in her private and public life, Gail MacDonald draws from her own experience as well as the classic wisdom of other great Christians to speak to the hearts of those who sometimes feel overwhelmed by life. As Christians, we need to know that we are God's very own children, and his loving care for us will be eternal. Triumphant

Love J. Hans Komers, 2020-11-17 The book is a treasure trove for scholars in the field of science of religion who focus on comparative religion, spirituality, and the reception of Christianity in India and Ireland. The strength of the book is its comprehensive scope, critical and narratological methodology, and the depth of the data analysis. The exposition of the contextual, creative, and strategic missionary work of Amy Beatrice Carmichael in south India is innovative and highly informative. The book contains a high level of original research in that it goes beyond the existing research on the Carmichael biographies. The knowledge of the field is comprehensive, and the number and quality of sources are impressive. The biographic genre and methodology complement the extensive research in the book. This combination constitutes a genuine historical foundation for the scholarship. The main purpose of the book is to open the field of science to and pique the interest of professional theologians with an interest in missiology and in the valuable contribution of Amy Carmichael of Dohnavur. The book includes a comprehensive overview of the existing scholarly work on the topic and then makes a further innovative contribution to and, in the end, provides the most comprehensive picture of the work of Amy Carmichael to date. It will become the definitive reference book on the history of Christian missionary work in south India. It is original research, and no part of the book was plagiarised from any other publication or has been published elsewhere before. Sitting by My Laughing Fire
