Sabotage And Torture:

Sabotage and Torture Barbara Cole,1988 An Arrested Heart Ray Haakonsen,2010-05-21 An Arrested Heart is an ordinary man's story of life in Rhodesia wartime flying marriage and journey in following an extraordinary God The book details some history of how the country was formed his life as a school boy and outstanding sporting achievements It highlights his exploits as a bush fighter pilot during the intense and bloody war that transformed the country to one man one vote black ruled Zimbabwe The book also describes his marriage move to South Africa and subsequent meltdown as a person resulting in divorce and extreme loneliness and depression However a radical encounter with God led to remarriage to his wife repatriation with his children and a life time calling to missions The story outlines the tremendous personal struggles within dealing with the impact of the war and his privileged upbringing and subsequently following God's purpose for his life His personal journey of faith resulted in him and his family serving God in missions with Youth With a Mission YWAM in Southern Africa and many opportunities to visit various countries sharing God's love The story encompasses the transformation of his personal belief system and is a testimony of a family completely renewed for His service It culminates in an amazing story of commitment to care for abandoned HIV AIDS affected and other vulnerable children in Lesotho Ray's vision to establish a centre of excellent service to these children and widows in the community has resulted in the establishment of a R8 million care centre designed to serve in various ways This service to give children a second chance in life has resulted in opportunities to motivate many people from all over the world to get involved in the tiny country of Lesotho Hundreds of people worldwide have since partnered by giving going or representing this centre An Arrested Heart is filled with anecdotes of extreme personal emotions varying from pain and abject suffering to exuberant celebration and joy It will be an inspiration to anyone who may doubt their self worth and ability to ever achieve anything significant with their life It is also a deliberate and unashamed testimony of God's love and commitment to every person and His desire to see us all live abundant and fulfilled lives The book is raw honest and intimate in its content and should cause those who read it to search within themselves and find faith and belief to move from where they are to greater things no matter what their past or present situation The author's following favourite quote by President Theodore Roosevelt captures the essence of how he tries to live his life It is not the critic who counts not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles or where the doer of deeds could have done them better The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood who strives valiantly who errs who comes short again and again because there is no effort without error and shortcoming but who does actually strive to do the deeds who knows great enthusiasms the great devotions who spends himself in a worthy cause who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement and who at the worst if he fails at least fails while daring greatly so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat The Law of U.S. Foreign Relations Sean D. Murphy,Edward T. Swaine,2023 The Law of U S Foreign Relations is a comprehensive and incisive discussion of the rules that govern the conduct of U S relations with foreign countries and international organizations and the rules governing how international law applies within the U S legal system Among other topics this volume examines the constitutional and historical foundations of congressional executive and judicial authority in foreign affairs This includes the constitutional tensions prevalent in legislative efforts to control executive diplomacy as well as the ebb and flow of judicial engagement in transnational disputes with the judiciary often serving as umpire but at times invoking doctrines of abstention The process of U S adherence to treaties and other international agreements is closely scrutinized as the authors examine how such law as well as customary international law and the law making acts of international organizations can become a source of U S law Individual chapters focus on the special challenges posed by the exercise of war powers by the federal government including during recent incidents of international armed conflict the complex role of the several states in foreign affairs and the imperative to protect individual rights in the transnational sphere Among the contemporary issues discussed are the immunity of foreign heads of State treatment of detainees at Guant namo movement of the U S Embassy in Israel to Jerusalem state level foreign compacts to address climate change bans affecting refugees and asylum seekers and recent interpretations of key statutes such as the Alien Tort Statute the Torture Victim Protection Act and the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act

The Conspiracy of Deception and Trickery Michael Renner,2014 The news is perplexing Both the president and vice president of the United States have fallen ill with mysterious flu like symptoms It is not long before both me receive the same devastating diagnosis pancreatic cancer But that is not the worst of it Soon many in Congress and the Supreme Court start to exhibit the same symptoms In less than four months the president is dead the vice president is barely hanging onto life and one third of Congress is deceased Unfortunately the United States is not the only country ravaged by the scourge By the time research leads medical experts to determine that only Muslims seem to be immune to the plague most governments around the world are left with few survivors As a Muslim takes over the presidency of the United States he declares that the cancer spares no one except true believers in Allah After he urges nonbelievers to convert to Islam in an effort to stop the population from dying off forever a ban on pork and alcoholic beverages is put into place But it is not long before experts discover what is truly causing the epidemic a sinister virus In this political thriller the world is thrown into turmoil as a powerful group of evil saboteurs hold the future of humanity hostage

International Human Rights Philip Alston,Ryan Goodman,2013 The successor to International human rights in context law politics and morals How Constitutional Rights Matter Adam S. Chilton,Mila Versteeg,2020 Do countries that add rights to their constitutions actually do better at protecting those rights This study draws on global statistical analyses and survey experiments to answer this question It explores whether constitutionalizing rights improves respect for those rights in practice

Bioterrorism: The History of a Crisis in American Society David McBride,2020-12-17 Originally published in 2003 and now reissued with a new introduction this collection provides an invaluable academic resource on the challenges bioterrorism posed for American society and institutions Critically selected essays from a wide range of disciplines document and analyze the problems and implications for political economic and legal institutions as well as the challenges a weapon of disease and fear can impose on public health and public policy By placing bioterrorism into its historical context this collection also traces the academic research and historical decisions that have contributed to the formation of American policies attempting to cope with a potentially catastrophic attack on the population in general and urban population in particular

The Fundamental Rules of the International Legal Order Christian Tomuschat, Jean Marc Thouvenin, 2006 This work the outgrowth of a joint reflection by French and German international lawyers attempts to reconceptualize the doctrine of hierarchy in international law by emphasizing that a clear distinction should be drawn between primary rules which encapsulate precepts for the protection of the basic values of the international community and secondary rules which determine the regime of legal consequences flowing from a breach of such rules of conduct

Septemics: Hierarchies of Human Phenomena Jim Marshall, 2021-01-26 Portions of this book are posted on Septemics.com Isaac Asimov in his famous Foundation trilogy imagined a future in which a science of the mind could accurately predict human events This work is a down payment on that promise It comprises a revolutionary and elaborate system for accurately analyzing assessing predicting and managing the behaviors and characteristics of groups and individuals It is a textbook about a new philosophical science called Septemics which consists of thirty five scales each of which delineates the exact sequence and patterns in which human beings actually behave and manifest in various contexts Each of these scales describes an axis upon which individuals and or groups advance or decline This book would generally fit into the literary category of Psychological Philosophy although there has never been a book quite like this in human history One must actually read the book in order to access the power of its contents because it is not like anything else

America Robert W. Fearn,2007 , Into the Shadow Christina Dodd,2008-07-01 Blessed or cursed with the ability to change into a sleek panther and driven by a dark soul he s accepted as his fate Adrik Wilder abandons his family and his honor to pursue a life of wickedness He excels at every vice including kidnapping Karen Sonnet to use for his selfish purposes But Karen s spirit and passion make him question the force of his family s curse And when a new evil emerges Adrik must choose whether to enact revenge on his enemies and redeem his soul or save Karen from a fate worse than death

Prophets Without Honor William Strabala,Michael Palecek,2002 Radical priests laid it on the line challenging government corporations and the Church Some were jailed some were killed Personal accounts tell why they had to do it and why governments and the Church fought so hard to stop them The book tells the story of a group of American men who happen to be priests and who happen to have served decades in American prisons and the stalwart women who helped them form an international movement called Plowshares In so doing the book tells the morally patriotic story of America a story told before only from behind an open hand across the face like a football coach talking to his spotters in full view of a national television audience afraid someone might see Darrell Rupiper Larry Rosebaugh and Carl Kabat are Oblate missionary priests Frank Cordaro is a diocesan priest from Des Moines Roy Bourgeois is a Maryknoll priest Charlie Liteky is an ex Trinitarian priest Rupiper was in the national spotlight during the Iran hostage crisis He traveled to Iran as part of team of clerics hoping to gain the release of the hostages Rosebaugh now lives with the poor in El Salvador He was a member of the Milwaukee 14 a group that burned draft records in accord with the example set by the Berrigan brothers at Catonsville Maryland in 1968 Kabat has served over 16 years in United States federal and state prisons since 1980 as a result of his anti military actions Cordaro has served half a dozen federal prison terms for his anti nuclear activities He has also given sanctuary to a manure spreader in support of Iowa farmers During the Carter presidency Cordaro found himself on the front page of the Washington Post after he stood in front of Carter during a press conference to tell the world the truth about the S A L T treaty Bourgeois from the deep South and a former military officer who served in Vietnam recently made his own front page news N Y Times Washington Post and others as leader of the massive protests at Fort Benning Georgia calling for the closing of the School of the Americas Bourgeois and Rosebaugh also served prison terms in the 1980s when they sneaked into Fort Benning climbed a tree and played a tape outside the Salvadoran soldiers barracks of the last sermon given by slain archbishop Oscar Romero. Liteky is a former chaplain who served in Vietnam. He received the Congressional Medal of Honor and later surrendered it challenging General Abrams and President Nixon in the process. With the exception of Cordaro, all of these men began their clerical careers as missionaries in Brazil, the Philippines, Bolivia, and Vietnam and discovered America in the process. They discovered that the trail of the poor leads through such countries directly back to America. It leads directly to Rupiper's home in Carroll, Iowa, to Rosebaugh and Kabat's roots in rural Illinois, to Cordaro's Des Moines Italian household, and to the nation's capital where Liteky was born. They also discovered that the America they grew up in never existed. They read history and learned about America's militarism, its attempts at global hegemony, and they felt they must resist. They wanted with all their hearts for their childhood America to be made real, a just and loving America, even if that meant they must spend years behind prison walls.

Tavistock Institute Daniel Estulin, 2015-09-14 The real story behind the Tavistock Institute and its network from an intriguing best-selling author. The Tavistock Institute in Sussex, England, describes itself as a nonprofit charity that applies social science to contemporary issues and problems. But this book posits that it is the world's center for mass brainwashing and social engineering activities. It grew from a somewhat crude beginning at Wellington House into a sophisticated organization that was to shape the destiny of the entire planet and in the process change the paradigm of modern society. In this eye-opening work, both the Tavistock network and the methods of brainwashing and psychological warfare are uncovered. With connections to U.S. research institutes, think tanks, and the drug industry, the Tavistock has a large reach, and the Tavistock Institute attempts to show that the conspiracy is real, who is behind it, what its final long-term objectives are, and how we the people can stop them.

World Terrorism: An Encyclopedia of Political Violence from Ancient Times to the Post-9/11 Era James Ciment, 2015-03-10 First Published in 2015. This collection holds three volumes. Terrorism is a term that defies easy definition, and its meaning has also changed over the course of history. Because this encyclopedia aims at comprehensiveness across time, geography, and the conceptual landscape, it applies the broadest definition of terrorism: the use of violence or the threat of violence to effect political change through fear in which the victims of the violence are the innocent. The encyclopedia is divided into six parts.

Religion and Culture Bernard J. F. Lonergan, International Lonergan Symposium on Religion and Culture (1984 : University of Santa Clara), 1987-01-01 While the framework of this book is Lonergan's, the essays stand as original and constructive works in a number of fields and topics. The theme of the relation of religion to culture is addressed from four orientations: philosophy, theology, human science, and economics. The contributors include Stephen Toulmin, Frederick Crowe, S.J., Sebastian Moore, Walter Conn, and William Johnston, S.J. Topics covered include process, thought, historical mindedness, mysticism, religious truth, and language, nuclear war, and economic transformation. Lonergan's monumental Insight (1957) and Method in Theology (1972) are substantial and powerful. The key to these and other works is method. Lonergan's thought rests on the subject's intelligent and responsible self-appropriation grounded in creative and cooperative work from diverse disciplines. This volume demonstrates the richness and importance of the methodical collaboration called for by one of our century's greatest minds International Criminal Law M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2008 Volume 3 addresses the direct enforcement system namely international criminal tribunals how they came about and how they functioned tracing that history from the end of WWI to the ICC including the post WWII experiences They address the IMT IMTFE ICTY ICTR the mixed model tribunals and the ICC It also contains a chapter which addresses some of the problems of the direct enforcement system namely the general procedural evidentiary and sanctions parts of ICL which is largely made of what is contained in the statutes of the tribunals mentioned above as well as the jurisprudence of the established tribunals In addition this volume addresses national experiences with the enforcement of certain international crimes It is divided into 4 chapters which are titled as Chapter 1 History of International Investigations and Prosecutions International Criminal Accountability International Criminal Justice in Historical Perspective Chapter 2 International Criminal Tribunals and Mixed Model Tribunals The International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia The International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda The Making of the International Criminal Court Mixed Models of International Criminal Justice Special Court for Sierra Leone Special Tribunal for Cambodia East Timor Chapter 3 National Prosecutions for International Crimes National Prosecutions for International Crimes National Prosecutions of International Crimes A Historical Overview The French Experience The Belgian Experience The Dutch Experience Indonesia The U S War Crimes Act of 1996 Enforcing ICL Violations with Civil Remedies The Case of the U S Alien Tort Claims Act Chapter 4 Contemporary Issues in International Criminal Law Doctrine and Practice Command Responsibility Joint Criminal Enterprise The Responsibility of Peacekeepers The General Part Judicial Developments Ne bis in idem Plea Bargains Issues Pertaining to the Evidentiary Part of International Criminal Law Penalties and Sentencing Penalties From Leipzig to Arusha Victims' Rights in International Law

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination. The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical. This ground-breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas. The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism. At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid.
