McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission Rather it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission The book begins with a working definition of the missional church underscoring the connection between God's mission missio Dei and the Church's mission The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function pragmatics and fiscal astuteness The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such as form must follow function and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs only that it occurs The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church      Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis, 2005-07-15 Steven Lewis's Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one's spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life's landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery      The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists Arlene Hirschfelder, Paulette F. Molin, 2012-03-22 Communicates information about the histories contemporary presence and various other facts of the Native peoples of the United States From publisher description      Coconino National Forest (N.F.), Arizona Snowbowl Facilities Improvements, 2005      Religion and American Cultures Gary Laderman, Luis León, 2014-12-17 This four volume work provides a detailed multicultural survey of established as well as new American religions and investigates the fascinating interactions between religion and ethnicity gender politics regionalism ethics and popular culture This revised and expanded edition of Religion and American Cultures Tradition Diversity and Popular Expression presents more than 140 essays that address contemporary spiritual practice and culture with a historical perspective The entries cover virtually every religion in modern day America as well as the role of religion in various aspects of U S culture Readers will discover that Americans aren't largely Protestant Catholic or Jewish anymore and that the number of popular religious identities is far greater than many would imagine And although most Americans believe in a higher power the fastest growing identity in the United States is the nones those Americans who elect none when asked about their religious identity thereby demonstrating how many individuals see their spirituality as something not easily defined or categorized The first volume explores America's multicultural communities and their religious practices covering the range of different religions among Anglo Americans and Euro Americans as well as spirituality among Latino African American Native American and Asian American communities The second volume focuses on cultural aspects of religions addressing topics such as film Generation X public sacred spaces sexuality and new religious expressions The new third volume expands the range of topics covered with in depth essays on additional topics such as interfaith families religion in prisons belief in the paranormal and religion after September 11 2001 The fourth volume is devoted to complementary primary source documents

Modernity and the Construction of Sacred Space Aaron French, Katharina Waldner, 2024-07-01 This volume focuses on the connection between modern design and architectural practices and the construction of sacred spaces Not only language and ritual but space place and architecture play a significant role in constructing special or religious spaces However this concept of a constructed sacred space remains undertheorized in religious studies and the history of art and architecture in general This volume therefore revisits the question of a modern sacred space from an interdisciplinary perspective focusing on religion space and architecture during the emergence of the modern period and up until contemporary times Revisiting the ways in which modern architects and artists have endeavored to create sacred spaces and buildings for the modern world will address the underlying questions of how religious ideas especially those related to esotericism and to alternative religiosities have transformed the way sacred spaces are conceptualized today      Native American Sacred Places United States.
