Burke, Burke was one of the greatest political thinkers whom England has produced and all his writings like his speeches are characterised by the welding together of knowledge thought and feeling Unlike most orators he is more successful as a writer than as a speaker He rose too far above the heads of his audience which the continued splendour of his declamation his inordinate copiousness and his excessive vehemence often passing into fury at length wearied and even disgusted but in his writings are found some of the grandest examples of a fervid and richly elaborated eloquence Though he was never admitted to the Cabinet he guided and influenced largely the policy of his party while by his efforts in the direction of economy and order in administration at home and on behalf of kindly and just government in India as well as by his contributions to political philosophy he laid his country and indeed the world under lasting obligations This is volume ten out of twelve of his works this volume containing speeches in the impeachment of Warren Hastings
