Sacrifice And Community Jewish Offering And Christian Eucharist:

Sacrifice and Community Matthew Levering, 2006-01-10 This book explores the character of the Eucharist as communion in and through sacrifice It will stimulate discussion because of its controversial critique of the dominant paradigm for Eucharistic theology its reclamation of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist and its response to Pope John Paul II s Ecclesia de Eucharistia Argues that the Eucharist cannot be separated from sacrifice and rediscovers the biblical connections between sacrifice and communion Timed to coincide with the Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Pope John Paul II Reclaims the riches of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist which had recently been reduced to a metaphysical defence of transubstantiation

Sacrifice and Community Matthew Levering, 2008-04-15 This book explores the character of the Eucharist as communion in and through sacrifice It will stimulate discussion because of its controversial critique of the dominant paradigm for Eucharistic theology its reclamation of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist and its response to Pope John Paul II s Ecclesia de Eucharistia Argues that the Eucharist cannot be separated from sacrifice and rediscovers the biblical connections between sacrifice and communion Timed to coincide with the Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Pope John Paul II Reclaims the riches of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist which had recently been reduced to a metaphysical defence of transubstantiation

The Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice, and Communion Lawrence Feingold, 2018-04-01 The Eucharist Mystery of Presence Sacrifice and Communion explores the three ends of the Sacrament of Sacraments God s true presence His redemptive sacrifice and spiritual nourishment through communion with Him In this follow up to his groundbreaking work Faith Comes From What Is Heard Lawrence Feingold constructs a biblical vision of the Eucharist from its prefigurement in the Old Testament to its fulfillment in the New and presents the Eucharistic theology of the Church Fathers St Thomas Aquinas and magisterial teaching from centuries past through today The Eucharist is a masterful text both challenging and spiritually rich that comprehensively examines the unspeakable mystery that is the Eucharist

Christ and the Catholic Priesthood Matthew Levering, 2010 First Things , 2007 Searching Her Own Mystery Mark S. Kinzer, 2015-03-30 Vatican II s Declaration on the Relation of the Church to Non Christian Religions Nostra Aetate transformed the Catholic view of the Jewish people and the Jewish religious tradition Asserting that the Church discovers her link to the stock of Abraham when searching her own mystery Nostra Aetate intimated that the mystery of Israel is inseparable from the mystery of the Church As interlocking mysteries each community requires the other in order to understand itself In Searching Her Own Mystery noted Messianic Jewish theologian Mark S Kinzer argues that the Church has yet to explore adequately the implications of Nostra Aetate for Christian self understanding The new Catholic teaching concerning Israel should produce fresh perspectives on the entire range of Christian theology including Christology ecclesiology and the theology of the sacraments To this end Kinzer proposes an Israel ecclesiology rooted in Israel Christology in which a restored ecclesia ex circumcissione the church from the circumcision assumes a crucial role as a sacramental sign of the Church's bond with the Jewish people and genealogical Israel's irrevocable election The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi-faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty-four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church's practice In Scripture and the early Church Orthodox Protestants and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox Protestants and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice Thus for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions this Handbook provides an introduction As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is despite divisions in interpretation and practice one of tremendous hope Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People after Vatican II Gavin D'Costa, 2019-10-10 In this timely study Gavin D Costa explores Roman Catholic doctrines after the Second Vatican Council regarding the Jewish people 1965-2015 It establishes the emergence of the teaching that God's covenant with the Jewish people is irrevocable What does this mean for Catholics regarding Jewish religious rituals the land and mission Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People after Vatican II establishes that the Catholic Church has a new teaching about the Jewish people the covenant made with God is irrevocable D Costa faces head-on three important issues arising from the new teaching First previous Catholic teachings seem to claim Jewish rituals are invalid He argues this is not the case Earlier teachings allow us positive insights into the modern question Second a nuanced case for Catholic minimalist Zionism is advanced without detriment to the Palestinian cause This is in keeping with Catholic readings of scripture and the development of the Holy See's attitude to the State of Israel Third the painful question of mission is explored D Costa shows the new approach safeguards Jewish identity and allows for the possibility of successful witness by Hebrew Catholics who retain their Jewish identity and religious life The New Isaac Leroy Andrew Huizenga, 2009 Gospel scholarship has long recognized that Matthean Christology is a rich multifaceted tapestry weaving multifold Old Testament figures together in the person of Jesus It is somewhat strange therefore that scholarship has found little role for the figure of Isaac in the Gospel of Matthew Employing Umberto Eco's theory of the Model Reader as a theoretical basis to ground the phenomenon of Matthean intertextuality this work contends that when read rightly as a coherent narrative in its first-century setting with proper attention to both biblical texts and extrabiblical traditions about Isaac the Gospel of Matthew evinces a significant Isaac typology in service of presenting Jesus

Preventive Diplomacy, Peacebuilding And Security In The Asia-Pacific:

Evolving Norms, Agenda And Practices Yanjun Guo, Ji Miao, 2022-01-18 Preventive diplomacy constitutes an important part of international conflict resolution mechanisms. This book presents the latest research trends in ideas, institutions and practices in preventive diplomacy and other peacebuilding measures of Asia Pacific countries to ensure traditional and non-traditional security within and beyond the region. It studies peacebuilding issues ranging from North Korea nuclear issue in Northeast Asia, disputes in the South China Sea, Afghanistan peace process and China-India-Pakistan interaction in South Asia, UN peacebuilding in Central Asia etc. It explores general security issues at the state, international, regional and global levels by experts from the Asia Pacific. This book is a useful guide for those interested to know the security and preventive diplomacy status in the region's distinctive context. Engaging the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Matthew Levering, 2016-07-19

A Distinguished Theologian on the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Distinguished theologian Matthew Levering offers a historical examination of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, defending an Augustinian model against various contemporary theological views. A companion piece to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation, this work critically engages contemporary and classical doctrines of the Holy Spirit in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors. Levering makes a strong dogmatic case for conceiving of the Holy Spirit as love between Father and Son, given to the people of God as a gift. Missa Est! Eugene R. Schlesinger, 2016-12-15 The twenty-first century church cannot afford to neglect mission. When church and culture no longer share a common outlook, the only way forward is mission. Pope Francis recognizes this in his call for a missionary conversion of the church. Responding to this invitation is a constructive work in ecclesiology addressing the relationship between liturgy and mission in the church's life. It advances a notion of the church grounded in both liturgy and mission, where neither is subordinated to nor collapsed into the other. The church's liturgical rites disclose and enact the church's identity as a missionary community. Close examination of the sources at the heart of traditional communion ecclesiology—Trinitarian theology, the sacraments of initiation and eucharistic theology—yields an ecclesiology in which the church is constituted by both liturgy and mission. These are two distinct ways of participating in the triune life of God, which is revealed in the paschal mystery. The church's pilgrimage to God's kingdom takes it through the world in mission. The church as the body of Christ is given away to God and to the world for the world's salvation. The result is a contemporary restatement of traditional ecclesiology transposed into a missional key.

A Scriptural Theology of Eucharistic Blessings Susan I. Bubbers, 2013-09-12 This study examines the scriptural justification for believers to expect the Eucharist to be a place where God will come and bless them with freedom and formation. Bubbers' focus is not on liturgy but rather on the biblical message of the benefits of participation in the Eucharist. Why keep this Feast? Why is Eucharist important? Bubbers' interpretive approach is a synthesis of historical, literary aspects of Biblical Theology and canonical, creedal aspects of the Theological Reading of Scripture, taking into account the biblical, historical place of Eucharist as well.

as its ongoing presence within the Church Bubbers begins by displaying the Last Supper as a Passover meal which bridges between Old Testament motifs and the New Testament Feast She then shows that the Exodus context reveals a paradigm which links blessing with remembrance and suggests that the remembrance motif describes these blessings Finally Bubbers gathers a catalogue of specific blessings summarized by freedom and formation Her conclusion is that the Feast is a divinely designed paradigm for worship which is accompanied by a promise of transformational encounters Leviticus (Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible) Ephraim Radner, 2008-06-01 This volume like each in the Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible is designed to serve the church through aid in preaching teaching study groups and so forth and demonstrate the continuing intellectual and practical viability of theological interpretation of the Bible The Oxford Handbook of the Reception of Aquinas Matthew Levering, Marcus Plested, 2021 This Handbook provides a comprehensive survey of Catholic Orthodox and Protestant philosophical and theological reception of Thomas Aquinas over the past 750 years Engaging the Doctrine of Israel Matthew Levering, 2021-09-16 This book is the dogmatic sequel to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage in which he argued that God's purpose in creating the cosmos is the eschatological marriage of God and his people God sets this marriage into motion through his covenantal election of a particular people the people of Israel Central to this people's relationship with the Creator God are their Scriptures exodus Torah Temple land and Davidic kingship As a Christian Israelology this book devotes a chapter to each of these topics investigating their theological significance both in light of ongoing Judaism and in light of Christian Scripture Old and New Testaments and Christian theology The book makes a significant contribution to charting a path forward for Jewish Christian dialogue from the perspective of post Vatican II Catholicism Reconfiguring Thomistic Christology Matthew Levering, 2023-03-30 Unites eschatologically charged biblical Christology with metaphysical and dogmatic Thomistic Christology by highlighting shared typological Christologies So Great a Salvation Jon C. Laansma, George H. Guthrie, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2019-06-27 This volume presents a dialogue between historians exegetes and theologians on the background and key themes of the atonement in Hebrews Presenting a range of differing perspectives and contributing to the renewed conversation between biblical and theological scholarship the argument is structured in two parts contexts and themes within Hebrews Focusing on atonement not only in the Old Testament but also in the Greco Roman world and touching on themes such as sacrifice plight and solution and faith these contributions shed light on the concept of the atonement in a directly scriptural way The whole is a definitive collection of studies on the atonement in Hebrews that will be of service well beyond the confines of Hebrews specialists a collection as important for what it says about the atonement and the 21st century church as for what it says about Hebrews The Broken Body Sarah Coakley, 2024-04-09 A fascinating collection of essays exploring a fresh contemporary approach to the person and doctrine of Jesus Christ How should Christians think about the person of Jesus Christ today In this volume Sarah Coakley argues that this question has to be broken open in new and unexpected ways by an awareness of the deep spiritual demands of the christological task and its strikingly apophatic dimensions by a probing of the paradoxical ways in which Judaism and Christianity are drawn together in Christ even by those issues which seem to break them most decisively apart and by an exploration of the mode of Christ's presence in the eucharist with its intensification breaking and re-gathering of human desires In this sequel to her celebrated earlier volume of essays Powers and Submissions Coakley returns to its unifying theme of divine power and contemplative submission and weaves a new web of christological outcomes which remain replete with controversial implications for gender spirituality and ethics The Broken Body will be of interest to those working in the fields of systematic theology philosophy of religion early Christian studies Jewish Christian relations and feminist and gender theory Fusing biblical and patristic theology analytic philosophy and spiritual tradition Sarah Coakley has produced a fascinating inspiring and compelling account of Christ's identity and its importance for questions of life Professor Mark Wynn University of Oxford Coakley argues that good Christology arises only from intellectual and spiritual postures learnt by encountering Christ openly This volume subtly and powerfully facilitates such encounter with God and in him with our neighbours especially the Jewish people Professor Judith Wolfe University of St Andrews Everything we have come to expect from Sarah Coakley is here in this extraordinary collection wonderful clarity startling and fruitful comparisons within and beyond the theological canon a brisk defiance of feminist conventions that in turn sharpens and deepens feminist analysis a resistance to cheap theological certainties and an abiding faithfulness anchored in Christ borne aloft by the Spirit Christology is here shown to embrace abjection and jouissance to advocate sacrifice that is itself the end of patriarchal violence and to demand a eucharistic sharing that is incomplete without solidarity to the outcast and the poor themselves the face of the living Christ In these essays Coakley exemplifies the semiotic richness of priest and scholar a breaking open of theological reserves that will transgress startle renew instruct This is sacrifice re-made Professor Katherine Sonderegger Virginia Theological Seminary

Key Concepts in Practice Paul R. Katz, Stefania Travagnin, 2019-05-20 In recent years the study of modern Chinese religions has developed into a highly innovative yet challenging field One of the main reasons for this involves an ongoing and largely unresolved debate regarding what methods and theories are appropriate for analyzing the wide range of beliefs and practices we encounter This series of three volumes is based on the conviction that in this critical period of research on modern Chinese religions it is time for scholars to review the development of our field reconsider its present state of theories and analytical models and open a new chapter in the understanding of methodologies we employ Our research is grounded on the need to re-evaluate concepts and practices that inform both the religious sphere and contemporary scholarship including endogenous Chinese concepts and exogenous ideas from the West and Japan that have been foundational in shaping our knowledge of the Chinese religious landscape In this third volume of our series we examine a variety of key concepts through their praxis in modern Chinese lived religions
