Saddlers Wells:

Sadler's Wells - Dance House Sarah Crompton, 2013-05-08 Sadler's Wells is the world's leading Dance House. Sadler's Wells has developed new audiences for dance, this powerful and emotive art for performances shown within its theatre spaces and outside in fact around the world. What makes Sadler's Wells different is its determination to nurture world-class artists like Akram Khan, Sylvie Guillem, Wayne McGregor, Matthew Bourne, Jasmin Vardimon, the Ballet Boyz and Hofesh Shechter, using its unique vision, style and creativity to put together choreographers, dancers, lighting and stage designers, composers and other artists to make dance that is wildly exciting, new and different. Sadler's Wells Dance House looks at the making of some of the most iconic dance works of this century and into the mix of dancers, choreographers and creators. Sadler's Wells has helped inspire. Including insightful analysis of this phenomenon by Sarah Crompton, arts editor in chief and dance critic for the Sunday Telegraph, and colour photographs of many of those works. Sadler's Wells Dance House gives a clear view both of the creative process of the Sadler's Wells artists and of the role this legendary theatre has played in remaking and reshaping dance for the 21st century. Selected as an Illustrated Book of the Week by the Daily Mail, May 2013. A

Biographical Dictionary of Actors, Actresses, Musicians, Dancers, Managers & Other Stage Personnel in London, 1660-1800

Philip H. Highfill, Kalman A. Burnim, Edward A. Langhans, 1973. Like the works already published, these latest volumes of the Biographical Dictionary deal with theatre people of every ilk, ranging from dressers and one-performance actors to trumpeter John Shore, inventor of the tuning fork, and the incomparable Sarah Siddons. Also prominent is Susanna Rowson, a novelist, actress and early female playwright. Although born into a British military family, Rowson often wrote plays that dealt with patriotic American themes and spent much of her career on the American stage. The theatrical jewel of these volumes is the divine Sarah Siddons. She raised the tragedy to the skies, wrote William Hazlitt, and embodied to our imagination the fables of mythology of the heroic and dignified mortals of elder time. She endured much tragedy herself, including a crippling debilitating illness and the deaths of five of her seven children. Siddons played major roles in both comedy and tragedy, not the least of which was a performance as Hamlet. Sadler's Wells Theatre from Its Beginnings

Rice, 2010-04-16 British Music and the French Revolution investigates the nature of British musical responses to the cataclysmic political events unfolding in France during the period of 1789 1795 a time when republican and royalist agendas were in conflict in both nations While the parallel demands for social and political change resulted from different stimuli and were resolved very differently the 1790s proved to be a defining period for each country In Britain the combination of a protracted period of Tory conservatism and the strong spirit of patriotism which swept the nation had a profound influence on the arts There was an outpouring of concert and theatrical music dealing with the French Revolution and the subsequent war with France While patriotic songs might be expected when a country is at war the number of recreations on the London stages of events taking place on the Continent may surprise Initially such topical subjects were restricted to the summer or minor theatres however government restrictions were relaxed after 1793 giving

Londoners the opportunity to see topical theatre in the royal or patent theatres as well The resulting repertoire of plays and recreations often propagandist in nature made considerable use of music and those performed in the minor theatres were all sung Consequently there exists a large repertoire of music which has been little studied British Music and the French Revolution investigates this repertoire within a social and political context Initial chapters examine the historical relationship between France and Britain from a musical perspective the powerful symbols of national identity in both countries and the complex laws that governed commercial theatres in London Thereafter the materials are presented in a chronological fashion starting with the fall of the Bastille in 1789 and the F te de la F d ration in 1790 The period of the Captivity was one of growing tension and fear in both France and Britain as war became an ever increasing threat between the two nations Two subsequent chapters examine the war years of 1793 until first half of 1795 The choice of a five year period allows the reader to follow British musical reactions to the fall of the Bastille and subsequent events up to the rise of Napol on British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1888 Blackwood's Magazine, 1817-25 Nicholas Mason,2024-07-31 Contextualizes and annotates the influential scandalous and entertaining texts which appeared in the Blackwood s Magazine between 1817 and 1825 This title features a detailed general introduction volume introductions and endnotes providing the reader with an understanding of the origins and early history of Blackwood s Magazine The history of Clerkenwell.
