Saito, 2006-07-24 Click this link to read a review of My Life In Camps During The War And More These stories were written primarily for my nephews and nieces and other members of the family because they have no clue about what our history and what had happen during the second world war There are 120 000 different stories from 120 000 of Japanese Americans who were put in the concentration camp and my story is just one of many Many have suppressed the past and forgot about them I feel the story must be told This is just my story and how I remembered the past Others have experienced a different life some good some bad My parents really had a positive outlook on life and that is why I have no bitterness on what has happened plus I was a pre adolescent child who wanted to enjoy playing outdoors

Racism and Anti-Racism in Europe Alana Lentin, 2004-06-20 Remarkable a major contribution to our understanding and handling of one of the crucial contemporary issues that acquires more gravity by the day Zygmunt Bauman This is an in depth sociological study of the phenomenon of anti racism as both political discourse and social movement practice in western Europe Lentin develops a comparative study of anti racism in Britain France Italy and Ireland While race and racism have been submitted to many profound analyses anti racism has often been dealt with as either the mere opposite of racism or as a theme for prescriptives or polemics by those concerned with the persistence of racist discrimination By contrast this book views anti racism as a variety of discourses that are central to the understanding of the politics of modern states Examining anti racism gives us insights not only into current debates on citizenship immigration and Europeanisation but it also crucially assists us in understanding the nature of race racism and racialisation themselves At a time of mounting state racism against asylum seekers migrants and refugees throughout Europe and beyond this book provides a much needed exploration of the discourse of anti racism that shapes policy and public opinion today Notes From The Dockside Mike Yurk,2023-07-31 Notes From The Dockside Volume IV will take you from lessons in life to the joys of peanut butter and jelly sandwiches Join Mike Yurk as he explores the adventures of fishing Meet his beloved Bass Queen his buddy The Commissioner his faithful mechanic The Boat Doctor along with other friends and family who join him on the water The seventy four stories found in this volume will take you to Panama and the Bahamas to a rainy day in France as well as the many lakes in Northwestern Wisconsin where Mike lives and fishes Find the wonder of the outdoors in Northern Minnesota where the last of the original old pine trees remain from before the days of logging and a Viking relic which could be the first fishing story carved in stone Equipment baits lures all playing an integral part to fishing are part of the stories too Through these stories Mike explores the many sides of fishing from good luck to bad luck small and big fish and sometimes few fish There is much more to fishing than just catching fish as Mike explores new and old lakes good weather and bad memories of old friends now gone and young fisher people who are just beginning to find the love of angling Spend a day on the water with Mike and his fishing buddies young and old and experience the passion and excitement which comes with fishing and what makes it so special Mike Yurk is a seasoned angler and author who has filled his stringer with stories on water near and far Pull up a seat and let him share his tales in Notes From The Dockside one pleasing nugget at a time Paul Smith Outdoor Editor Milwaukee Journal Sentinel The Encounter Series Fred Welch,2011-08-08 Two of the stories you are about to read have a grain of truth in them The Encounter my first story is based on some of my family members My brother was in study to become a Roman Catholic priest actually two times once as a young man then many years later as an older man Both times he approached ordination and left the church The next two stories are to give the reader a lighter side of the church and its traditions Especially the story 1955 or Confession is Good for the Soul I am the young boy with the clicker We actually did attend morning mass like I wrote about Also the nuns in their black habits were to me a small boy a fearsome sight and not to be on the wrong side of I really did join the Marine Corps but I was not the military type I did this more so to honor the family tradition on my mothers side of the family I hope you enjoy reading these stories as I have enjoyed writing them Gone but Not Forgotten William E. Austin,2009-12-08 In these tough economical times it has been a popular assessment to try to compare this recession to the Great Depression The stock market crash of 1929 led the way and by the time dust storms had turned the Farm Belt into the Dust Bowl hundreds of thousands of Americans were hungry homeless and barely alive At the end of it all was a war that no one wanted but everyone was willing to fight Hitler and his Germans to the east and The Japanese Imperial Army to the west gave Americans a common theme that brought them together to bring this nation from the depths of poverty to the greatest nation on earth Gone But Not Forgotten is a true story about a man who lived through it all The starvation and destitute of living with an alcoholic father in The Depression the terror and inhumane conditions of World War II the battles with alcohol and malaria that sent his world spiraling out of control and finally finding peace and salvation through his creator To live through all of this and still be able to relive these stories at eighty nine is not only a blessing but is also a miracle When I first began writing this story I asked my dad if this is going to be a religious book Before he could answer I realized that any book about my father would have to be a religious book
