Return to the Scene of the Crime Kamil Naicker, 2023-12-01 A crime novel at once disturbing and perversely comforting factually has been known to curtail social anxieties through the open and shut case of its narrative form But what happens to that form in a world where guilt and innocence are not easily assigned Return to the Scene of the Crime takes place on the trope of an investigator returning to the post colony on a quest for knowledge In tandem with solving the case they must also grapple with the complexities of their origins Kamil Naicker shows how five authors defy generic expectations to illustrate the complexities of personal identity transitional justice and civil violence in the post colonial world Congregating novels set in South Africa China Guatemala Sri Lanka and Somalia this book intervenes in literary studies by bringing the trend of the returnee figure and exploring the possibilities of world making through the explosion of a familiar form Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa

Absorption Narratives Stephanie M. Pridgeon, 2024-12-16 In Absorption Narratives Stephanie M. Pridgeon explores cultural depictions of Jewishness Blackness and Indigeneity within a comparative inter American framework The dynamics of Jewishness interacting with other racial categories differ significantly in Latin America and the Caribbean compared with those in the United States and Canada largely due to long standing and often disputed concepts of mestizaje broadly defined as racial mixture As a result a comprehensive understanding of Jewishness and the construction of racial identities requires an exploration of how Jewishness intersects with both Blackness and Indigeneity in the Americas Absorption Narratives charts the ways in which literary works capture differences and similarities among Black Jewish and Indigenous experiences Through an extensive and diverse examination of fiction Pridgeon navigates the complex connections of these identity categories offering a comparative perspective on race and ethnicity across the Americas that destabilizes US centric critical practices Revealing the limitations of US focused models in understanding racial alterity in relation to Jewishness Absorption Narratives emphasizes the importance of viewing the narrative of race relations in the Americas from a hemispheric standpoint

Understanding Francisco Goldman Ariana E. Vigil, 2018-11-27 The first book length study of a writer whose work has been shaped by his unique heritage Award winning writer and journalist Francisco Goldman is the author of novels and works of nonfiction and is a regular contributor to the New Yorker magazine His awards include the Sue Kaufman Prize for First Fiction and the T R Fyvel Book Award as well as a Guggenheim Fellowship Born to a Guatemalan mother and Jewish American father Goldman s heritage has shaped his unique perspective and has had a significant influence on his literary themes In Understanding Francisco Goldman the first book length study of Goldman s life and work Ariana E. Vigil begins with a biographical chapter drawn largely from Goldman s essays and interviews Her analytical chapters one for each of Goldman s four novels and two works of nonfiction offer biographical historical political and literary context for each work while exploring major themes Vigil examines the influence literary and political history have had in the development of Goldman s characters and themes as well as his use of multiple literary genres and the role of humor in his work She underscores how major themes in Goldman s work migration political violence love and loss are explored across nations and time periods and how they remain significant today In Understanding Francisco Goldman Vigil draws connections between the writer s life and work and demonstrates the appreciation he deserves for his influence diversity and breadth Through his thoughtful intellectual transnational writing Goldman expands the definition of what it means to be American

The Novel of Human Rights James Dawes, 2018-09-12 James Dawes defines a new dynamic American literary genre which takes as its theme a range of atrocities at home and abroad This vibrant and modern genre incorporates key
