Marantz, Sylvia S. Marantz, 1997-11-01 How are children's picturebook proposals chosen for publication What characteristics of picturebooks promise success How much input do the artist authors have once their proposals have been accepted by a publisher The dynamic process of producing picturebooks is charmingly revealed through interviews with those directly involved from start to finish including two galleries devoted to displaying the art In the United States picturebooks have accounted for 2 billion in sales in a recent year Compiled from interviews with editors art directors and production managers from both British e.g. Anderson Press Victor Gollancz and Walker Books and American publishers e.g. Farrar Straus and Giroux Houghton Mifflin Candlewick Press and Random House this book reveals how the creative process works within the business of publishing The interviews with reviewers and booksellers help provide a well rounded perspective The Look of the Book Peter Mendelsund, David J.
