church is part of the Episcopal Church of Rwanda In Anglican Communion in Crisis Miranda Hassett tells the fascinating story of how a new alliance between conservative American Episcopalians and African Anglicans is transforming conflicts between American Episcopalians especially over homosexuality into global conflicts within the Anglican church In the mid 1990s conservative American Episcopalians and Anglican leaders from Africa and other parts of the Southern Hemisphere began to forge ties in opposition to the American Episcopal Church's perceived liberalism and growing toleration of homosexuality This resulted in dozens of American Episcopal churches submitting to the authority of African bishops Based on wide research interviews with key participants and observers and months Hassett spent in a southern U S parish of the Episcopal Church of Rwanda and in Anglican communities in Uganda Anglican Communion in Crisis is the first anthropological examination of the coalition between American Episcopalians and African Anglicans The book challenges common views that the relationship between the Americans and Africans is merely one of convenience or even that the Americans bought the support of the Africans Instead Hassett argues that their partnership is a deliberate and committed movement that has tapped the power and language of globalization in an effort to move both the American Episcopal Church and the worldwide Anglican Communion to the right The Oxford Guide to The Book of Common Prayer Cynthia L. Shattuck, 2006-07 This is a survey of the history of the Book of Common Prayer and its descendants throughout the world The guide shows how a classic text for worship and devotion has become the progenitor of an entire family of religious resources that have had an influence far beyond their use in Anglican churches Episcopal Ministry Church of England.
