The Personal and the Political Ulrike Boehmer, 2000-05-04 Drawing on the experiences of thirty seven diverse women who are active in the AIDS and breast cancer movements The Personal and the Political provides an in depth look at the social and political dimensions of AIDS and breast cancer within the context of social movement and feminist theories While it is generally assumed that activists reasons for getting involved in either the AIDS or breast cancer movements differ Boehmer uncovers similarity in women s motivations finding that activism depends on both a personal and a political link to the disease The work pays particular attention to diversity issues such as race class and sexual orientation and explores the women s motivations how they view their activism and how their activism relates to their identities The author lets the women speak for themselves interspersing their voices throughout the text The book highlights similarities and differences between the activists in both movements and between the movements themselves offering some intriguing conclusions

"You Can Tell Just By Looking" Michael Bronski, Ann Pellegrini, Michael Amico, 2013-10-01 2014 Lambda Literary Award Finalist LGBT Nonfiction Breaks down the most commonly held misconceptions about lesbian gay bisexual and transgender people and their lives In You Can Tell Just by Looking three scholars and activists come together to unpack enduring popular and deeply held myths about lesbian gay bisexual and transgender people culture and life in America Myths such as All Religions Condemn Homosexuality and Transgender People Are Mentally Ill have been used to justify discrimination and oppression of LGBT people Others such as Homosexuals Are Born That Way have been embraced by LGBT communities and their allies In discussing and dispelling these myths including gay positive ones the authors challenge readers to question their own beliefs and to grapple with the complexities of what it means to be queer in the broadest social political and cultural sense

Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman, George Haggerty, 2021-06-13 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a widerange of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future

gives a clear assessment of the issues faced in working through their relationship within the context of their sexuality and society's oppression of lesbians. The purpose of the Counseling and Pastoral Theology series is to address clinical issues that arise among particular populations currently neglected in the literature on pastoral care and counseling. This series is committed to enhancing both the theoretical base and the clinical expertise of pastoral caregivers by providing a pastoral theological paradigm that will inform both assessment and intervention with persons in these specific populations.
