The Pedagogy of Adaptation Dennis Cutchins,Laurence Raw,James M. Welsh,2010-02-23 From All Quiet on the Western Front and Gone with the Wind to No Country for Old Men and Slumdog Millionaire many of the most memorable films have been adapted from other sources And while courses on film studies are taught throughout the world The Pedagogy of Adaptation makes a strong case for treating adaptation studies as a separate discipline What makes this book unique is its claim that adaptation is above all a creative process and not simply a slavish imitation or reproduction of an original This collection of essays focuses on numerous contexts to emphasize why adaptations matter to students of literature It is the first such volume devoted exclusively to teaching adaptations from a practical teacher centered angle Many of the essays show how adaptation as a discipline can be used to prompt reflection on cultural historical and political differences Written by specialists in a variety of fields ranging from film radio theater and even language studies the book adopts a pluralistic view of adaptation showing how its processes vary across different contexts and in different disciplines Defining new horizons for the teaching of adaptation studies these essays draw on such disparate sources as Frankenstein Moby Dick and South Park This volume not only provides a resource book of lesson plans but offers valuable pointers as to why teaching literature and film can help develop students skills and improve their literacy Researching Social Life Nigel Gilbert,2008-03-17 This new edition of this excellent guide maintains the standard of the original whilst taking full account of developments in both methodological discussion and the techniques of social research The organization of the text around the research process is a great strength of the text David Byrne University of Durham Preview the Third Edition s opening chapter and guide to its teaching and learning features designed to stimulate student engagement with the content here The Third Edition of Nigel Gilbert s hugely successful Researching Social Life covers the whole range of methods from quantitative to qualitative in a down to earth and unthreatening manner Gilbert s text offers the best coverage of the full scope of research methods of any of the leading textbooks in the field making this an essential text for any student starting a research methods course or doing a research project This thoroughly revised text is driven by the expertise of a writing team comprised of internationally renowned experts in the field New to the Third Edition are chapters on Searching and Reviewing the Literature Refining the Question Grounded Theory and Inductive Research Mixed Methods Participatory Action Research Virtual Methods Narrative Analysis A number of useful features such as worked examples case studies discussion questions project ideas and checklists are included throughout the book to help those new to research to engage with the material Researching Social Life follows the life cycle of a typical research project from initial conception through to eventual publication Its breadth and depth of coverage make this an indispensable must have textbook for students on social research methods courses in any discipline Art and Freedom Edgar Evalt Sleinis,2003 Art and Freedom introduces a novel classificatory system for representation expression and formalist theories of art Sleinis argues that a characteristic defect of contemporary theories of art is their neglect of the issue of value Probing the issue of progress in art he also emphasizes the need for art to contribute to positive values BOOK JACKET The Academy and Literature ,1887 The Sacred Books and Early Literature of the East Charles Francis Horne,1917 Looking Into Primary Headship Geoff Southworth,2002-11-01 This is both a study of leadership and a research methods text It offers an analytical description of a primary headteacher at work over the course of one school year Using a mix of participant observation and interviews the book provides a portrait of this head s approach to his work his background beliefs the school as a context what he did how he dealt with change and development power and the personal dimension of headship The portrait is matched to the contemporary literature and an hypothesis is formulated about primary headship and is then used to critique existing ideas about school leadership The book also suggests ways of developing heads and school teachers The Reflective
