The Politics of War Memory and Commemoration T.G. Ashplant, Graham Dawson, Michael Roper, 2013-01-11 International in scope presents a range of case studies from a diverse range of national contexts War memory and commemoration has had an increasingly high profile in public and academic debates in recent years

Commemorating War Timothy G. Ashplant, Graham Dawson, Michael Roper, War memory and commemoration have had increasingly high profiles in public and academic debates in recent years This volume examines some of the social changes that have led to this development among them the passing of the two world wars from survivor into cultural memory Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration the book illuminates the struggle to install particular memories at the center of a cultural world and offers an extensive argument about how the politics of commemoration practices should be understood Commemorating War analyzes a range of forms of remembrance from public commemorations orchestrated by nation states to personal testimonies of war survivors and from cultural memories of war represented in films plays and novels to investigations of wartime atrocities in courts of human rights It presents a wide range of international case studies encompassing lesser known national histories and wars beyond the well trodden terrain of Vietnam and the two world wars in Europe Emerging from this book is an important critique of both state centered approaches to war memory and those that regard commemoration primarily as a human response to loss and grief Offering a wealth of empirical research material this book will be important for cultural and oral historians sociologists researchers in international relations and human rights and anybody with an interest in the cultural construction of memory in contemporary society Timothy G Ashplant is a member of the Research Center for Literature and Cultural History at Liverpool John Moores University He has published on psychoanalysis and history and the life writings of working class men and women in Britain Graham Dawson teaches cultural and historical studies at the University of Brighton His publications include Soldier Heroes British Adventure Empire and the Imagining of Masculinities and Trauma and Life Stories with Kim Lacy Rogers and Selma Leydesdorff Michael Roper works as a social and cultural historian in the Department of Sociology at the University of Essex His previous publications include Manful Assertions Masculinities in Britain since 1800 with John Tosh and Masculinity and the British Organization Man since 1945

Talking to Ourselves Andrés Neuman, 2014-04-08 A searing family drama from one of Latin America's most original voices One trip Two love stories Three voices Lito is ten years old and is almost sure he can change the weather when he concentrates very hard His father Mario anxious to create a memory that will last for his son's lifetime takes him on a road trip in a truck called Pedro But Lito doesn't know that this might be their last trip Mario is gravely ill Together father and son embark on a journey takes them through strange geographies that seem to meld the different parts of the Spanish speaking world In the meantime Lito's mother Elena restlessly seeks support in books and soon undertakes an adventure of her own that will challenge her moral limits Each narrative of father son and mother embodies one of the different ways that we talk to ourselves through speech through thought and through writing While neither of them dares to tell the complete truth to the other two their individual voices nonetheless form a poignant conversation Sooner or later we all face loss Andr's Neuman movingly narrates the ways the lives of those who survive loss are transformed how that experience changes our ideas about time memory and our own bodies and how the acts of reading and of sex can serve as powerful modes of resistance Talking to Ourselves presents a tender yet unsentimental portrait of the workings of love and family a reflection both on grief and on the consolation of words Neuman the author of the award winning Traveler of the Century displays his characteristic warmth bittersweet humor and wide ranging intellect giving us the rich textured and strikingly different voices and experiences of three singular characters while presenting above all a profound tribute to those who have ever had to care for a loved one

Women of Hope Terry Polakovic, 2021-04-20 Throughout the history of the Catholic Church in her most troubled and turbulent times God has raised up great saints as beacons of hope in the midst of darkness Among these great saints the four women Doctors of the Church stand out as models of courage wisdom and trust Their example and teachings remain with us are relevant to the challenges of our own day and urge us on to renewal with unwavering hope Trust shows the way wrote Saint Hildegard of Bingen These words set the courageous standard by which she Teresa of Avila Catherine of Siena and Thérèse of Lisieux lived The phrase can be considered the watchword for the Church in every age and especially in our own In Women of Hope Terry Polakovic introduces these amazing women and describes the troubled times in which they lived and persevered These women remind us that God can work through anyone to bring about his purpose They prove to us that as Christians we can live in confident hope no matter the circumstances in which we find ourselves ABOUT THE AUTHOR Terry Polakovic is cofounder of Endow Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women and served as president of the organization from 2003 to 2015 Before retiring she worked in nonprofit leadership for more than thirty years In 2010 she received the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice For the Church and the Pontiff award from Pope Benedict XVI In 2011 Terry was recognized as an Outstanding Catholic Leader by the Catholic Leadership Institute She is the author of Life and Love Opening Your Heart to God's Design Our Sunday Visitor 2018 She lives in Colorado with her husband Mike

Art, Creativity, and Politics in Africa and the Diaspora Abimbola Adelakun, Toyin Falola, 2018-07-26 This book explores the politics of artistic creativity examining how black artists in Africa and the diaspora create art as a procedure of self making Essays cross continents to uncover the efflorescence of black culture in national and global contexts and in literature film performance music and visual art Contributors place the concerns of black artists and their works within national and transnational conversations on anti black racism xenophobia ethnocentrism migration resettlement resistance and transnational feminisms Does art by the subaltern fulfill the liberatory potential that critics have ascribed to it What other possibilities does political art offer Together these essays sort through the aesthetics of daily life to build a thesis that reflects the desire of black artists and cultures to remake themselves and their world

The Practices of the Self Charles Larmore, 2010-12-15 What is the nature of the fundamental relation we have to ourselves that makes each of us a self To answer this question Charles Larmore develops a systematic theory of the self challenging the widespread view that the self's defining relation to itself is to have an immediate knowledge of its own thoughts On the contrary Larmore maintains our essential relation to ourselves is practical as is clear when we consider the nature of belief and desire For to believe or desire something consists in committing ourselves to thinking and acting in accord with the presumed truth of our belief or the presumed value of what we desire Larmore develops this conception with frequent reference to such classic authors as Montaigne Stendhal and Proust and by comparing it to other views of the self in contemporary philosophy He also discusses the important ethical consequences of his theory of the self arguing that it allows us to better grasp what it means to be ourselves and why self understanding often involves self creation Winner of the Académie Française's Grand Prix de Philosophie The Practices of the Self is that rare kind of lucid yet rigorous work that transcends disciplinary boundaries

Adam Smith Jesse Norman, 2018-09-11 A dazzlingly original remarkable account of the life and thought of legendary economist Adam Smith Financial Times Adam Smith 1723-1790 is now widely regarded as the greatest economist of all time But what he really thought and the implications of his ideas remain fiercely contested Was he an eloquent advocate of capitalism and individual freedom A prime mover of market fundamentalism An apologist for human selfishness Or something else entirely In the tradition of The Worldly Philosophers Adam Smith dispels the myths and caricatures and provides a far more complex portrait of the man Offering a highly engaging account of Smith's life and times political philosopher Jesse Norman explores his work as a whole and traces his influence over two centuries to the present day Finally he shows how a proper understanding of Smith can help us address the problems of modern capitalism The Smith who emerges from this book is not only the greatest of all economists but a pioneering theorist of moral philosophy culture and society

Origin Christian Eibelsauser, 2014-06-17 Is there a purpose to life Is there a higher power Is there an eternity How can our lives be more fulfilling How do all the pieces fit together What is the nature of the universe Where does all this star stuff come from What is the origin of the universe Curiosity of the author Christian Eibelsauser compelled him to search for the answers to some of life's most enduring questions Now his astonishing findings are revealed in ORIGIN A Journey Of Discovery The power behind the universe what he calls the infinite totality is present in every part of the universe In fact it is the universe As such the infinite totality is present in each individual and is known as the cosmic being traditionally called a soul or intuition He believes that the reason so many have failed at finding true happiness in their lives is because they have fallen out of touch with their personal cosmic being But there is hope To become reacquainted with your cosmic being you must begin consciously examining your Everyday actions and beliefs in an effort to get rid of outdated patterns of living and thinking He also explores the creation of the universe from a scientific standpoint Using physics the author shows that on its most basic level all matter is made up from nothing more than energy with an in depth explanation of the term energy Therefore the universe is the infinite totality or energy itself Finally the author presents a new and totally revolutionary model of the universe hitherto neither contemplated nor depicted
