Leatherbarrow, 2020-11-26 While most books on architecture concentrate on spatial themes this book explores architecture's temporal dimensions Through a series of close readings of buildings both contemporary and classic it demonstrates the centrality of time in modern architecture and shows why an understanding of time is critical to understanding good architecture All buildings exist in time Even if designed for permanence they change slowly but inevitably They change use they accrue history and meaning they decay all of these processes are inscribed in time So too is the path traced by the sun through a building and the movements of the human body from room to room Time this book argues is the framework for our spatial experience of architecture and a key dimension of a building's structure and significance Building Time presents twelve close readings of buildings and artworks which explore this idea Examining works by distinctive modern architects from Eileen Gray to Ivar Siza and Wang Shu it takes the reader in some cases literally step by step through a built work and provides insightful reflections on the importance of making space for time in architectural design This is a book for both theorists and for architectural designers Through it theorists will find a way to rethink the fundamental premises and aims of design work while designers will rediscover the order and ideas that shape the world around them its buildings interiors and landscapes Louisiana at 40 Louisiana (Museum : Humlebaek, Denmark), 1998 Official Catalogue of the Department of Fine Arts, Panama-Pacific International Exposition (with Awards), San Francisco, California San Francisco (Calif.).

The Astonishing Works of John Altoon Tim Nye,2014-05-20 A beautifully produced monograph devoted to the paintings and drawings of John Altoon a central figure in the Los Angeles art scene of the 1950s and 1960s Haunting and erotic Altoon s colorful paintings and intimate drawings capture a magical moment in postwar California between the Beat Generation and the sexual and psychedelic revolution of the late sixties His larger than life personality and enthusiasm energized the circle of artists associated with the Ferus Gallery a nexus of L A avant gardism that included such still influential figures as Ed Keinholz

Robert Irwin Ed Moses Larry Bell and Ed Ruscha A boisterous hard living man in love with the ladies Altoon was plagued by bouts of depression alternating with episodes of mania that sometimes turned destructive He died young at the age of 43 from a massive heart attack and his funeral is said to have included the largest number of Los Angeles artists ever to gather in one spot This unique oversized presentation includes reproduced sketchbooks moving personal essays by major figures including poet Robert Creeley and pioneering West Coast curator Walter Hopps photographs of Altoon in his Venice studio a booklet of letters to Altoon and over 50 works of art

Collision Pete Gershon, 2018-09-13 Winner 2019 Ron Tyler Award for Best Illustrated Book sponsored by the Texas State Historical Association TSHA In this expansive and vigorous survey of the Houston art scene of the 1970s and 1980s author Pete Gershon describes the city's emergence as a locus for the arts fueled by a boom in oil prices and by the arrival of several catalyzing figures including museum director James Harithas and sculptor James Surls Harithas was a fierce champion for Texan artists during his tenure as the director of the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston CAM He put Texas artists on the map but his renegade style proved too confrontational for the museum's benefactors and after four years he wore out his welcome After Harithas's departure from the CAM the chainsaw wielding Surls established the Lawndale Annex as a largely unsupervised outpost of the University of Houston art department Inside this dirty cavernous warehouse a new generation of Houston artists discovered their identities and began to flourish Both the CAM and the Lawndale Annex set the scene for the emergence of small downtown artist run spaces including Studio One the Center for Art and Performance Midtown Arts Center and DiverseWorks Finally in 1985 the Museum of Fine Arts presented Fresh Paint The Houston School a nationally publicized survey of work by Houston painters The exhibition capped an era of intensive artistic development and suggested that the city was about to be recognized along with New York and Los Angeles as a major center for art making activity Drawing upon primary archival materials contemporary newspaper and magazine accounts and over sixty interviews with significant figures Gershon presents a narrative that preserves and interweaves the stories and insights of those who transformed the Houston art scene into the vibrant community that it is today

The Dynamics of Delight Peter F. Smith, 2003-08-29 Rounding off decades of exploration into the various ways in which buildings and urban sequences make an impact on the mind The Dynamics of Delight emphasizes the qualitative aspects of form and space providing designers with an analytical framework in which to evaluate projects on an aesthetic level In laying the foundations for an appreciation of the aesthetic component in architecture Smith considers the mechanisms which are involved in the aesthetic response and goes on to consider how human perception may be influenced by natural phenomena and draws on chaos theory and biomathematics to illustrate this original argument

Thinking the Sculpture Garden Penny Florence, 2020-02-20 This innovative book poses two deceptively simple questions what is a sculpture garden and what happens when you give equal weight to the main elements of landscape planting and artwork Its wide ranging frame of reference including the USA Europe and Japan is brought into focus through Tremenheere Sculpture Garden Cornwall with which the book begins and ends Effectively less than 15 years old and largely the work of one man Tremenheere affords an opportunity to examine as work in progress the creation of a new kind of sculpture garden Including a historical overview the book traverses multiple ways of seeing and experiencing sculpture gardens culminating in an exploration of their relevance as cultural ecology in the context of globalisation urbanisation and climate change The thinking here is non dualist and broadly aligned with New Materialisms and Material Feminisms to explore our place as humans in the non human world on which we depend Eminent contributors including John Dixon Hunt George Descombes Bernard Lassus and David Leatherbarrow approach these issues through practices and theories of landscape architecture garden and art making history and writing and philosophy Richly illustrated with over 100 images including a colour plate section the book will primarily appeal to those engaged in professional or academic research along with sculpture garden visitors who will find new and surprising ways of experiencing plants and art in natural and urban settings
