Ejike, 2008-09 A lady once said that finding a good man is like looking for a needle in a haystack This is not and should not be the case True love is all around you if earnestly you desire it The book suggests functional approaches to true love as an alternative to the hit and miss approach that almost always ends in divorce or heartbreak The book is for the married or single woman It is for the married woman who perhaps already has a good man and necessarily must keep him It is for the single woman who now is in search of a good man for a lifetime of joyful romance and companionship The book examines the good man's qualifying attributes the meaning of romantic love the concrete manifestations of love and importantly how you recognize and sustain true love when it comes your way Find a Good Man and Keep Him is a practical guide that leads you through and away from the hurtful tumbles and stumbles of a failed relationship onto the path of manifest love with a good man

The Gift of the Other Andrew Shepherd, 2014-11-27 We live in an age of global capitalism and terror In a climate of consumption and fear the unknown Other is regarded as a threat to our safety a client to assist or a competitor to be overcome in the struggle for scarce resources And yet the Christian Scriptures explicitly summon us to welcome strangers to care for the widow and the orphan and to build relationships with those distant from us But how in this world of hostility and commodification do we practice hospitality In The Gift of the Other Andrew Shepherd engages deeply with the influential thought of French thinkers Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida and argues that a true vision of hospitality is ultimately found not in postmodern philosophies but in the Christian narrative The book offers a compelling Trinitarian account of the God of hospitality a God of communion who makes room for otherness who overcomes the hostility of the world through Jesus' life, death and resurrection and who through the work of the Spirit is forming a new community the Church a people of welcome
