His Love and Adventure Neil Munro,2018-10-17 Excerpt Rain was beating on the open leaf of plane and beech and rapping at the black doors of the ash bud and the scent of the gean tree flourish hung round the road by the river vague sweet haunting like a recollection of the magic and forgotten gardens of youth Over the high and numerous hills mountains of deer and antique forest went the mist a slattern trailing a ragged gown The river sucked below the banks and clamoured on the cascades drawn unwillingly to the sea the old gluttonous sea that must ever be robbing the glens of their gathered waters And the birds were at their loving or the building of their homes flying among the bushes trolling upon the bough One with an eye as the saying goes could scarcely pass among this travail of the new year without some pleasure in the spectacle though the rain might drench him to the skin He could not but joy in the thrusting crook of the fern and bracken what sort of heart was his if it did not lift and swell to see the new fresh green blown upon the grey parks to see the hedges burst the young firs of the Blaranbui prick up among the slower elder pines and oaks
