Love In A Blue Time Short Stories:

Love in a Blue Time Hanif Kureishi, 1999-03-12 This provocative collection of short stories charts the growth of a generation from the liberating irreverence of the late 1970s to the dilemmas of responsibility and fidelity of the 1990s The stories resonate with Hanif Kureishi's dead-on observations of human passion and folly his brilliant depiction of seedy locales and magical characters and his original wicked sense of humor Love in a Blue Time Hanif Kureishi, 1997 Hanif Kureishi author of The Buddha of Suburbia is one of a generation of British writers whose experience of the United Kingdom is refracted socially and culturally through his Pakistani heritage The stories in this collection incorporate the humour bawdiness and aggression of his novels The British and Irish Short Story Handbook David Malcolm, 2012-01-12 The British and Irish Short Story Handbook guides readers through the development of the short story and the unique critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction It includes a wide ranging analysis of non canonical and non realist writers as well as the major authors and their works providing a comprehensive and much needed appraisal of this area Guides readers through the development of the short story and critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction Offers a detailed discussion of the range of genres in the British and Irish short story Includes extensive analysis of non canonical writers such as Hubert Crackanthorpe Ella D Arcy T F Powys A E Coppard Julian Maclaren Ross Mollie Panter Downes Denton Welch and Sylvia Townsend Warner Provide a wide ranging discussion of non realist and experimental short stories Includes a large section on the British short story in the Second World War A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story David Malcolm, Cheryl Alexander Malcolm, 2009-01-30 A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story provides a comprehensive treatment of short fiction writing and chronicles its development in Britain and Ireland from 1880 to the present Provides a comprehensive treatment of the short story in Britain and Ireland as it developed over the period 1880 to the present Includes essays on topics and genres as well as on individual texts and authors Comprises chapters on women's writing Irish fiction gay and lesbian writing and short fiction by immigrants to Britain Hanif Kureishi Bart Moore-Gilbert, 2024-07-30 The first book length study of one of Britain's most successful young writers His work in a range of genres from drama to film fiction and short stories has elicited widespread critical acclaim and at times provoked sharp condemnation Provides a detailed account of his work to date from Kureishi's early involvement in fringe theatre an area generally ignored hitherto to the short story collections Locates Kureishi's work securely in its historical social cultural and critical contexts as well as providing detailed readings of all the major works Kureishi is an important writer due to his intervention into such modish topics as British identity questions of race aspects of gender and choice of genre The Cambridge Companion to the English Short Story Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2016-06-06 This Companion provides an accessible overview of short fiction by writers from England Scotland Ireland Wales and other international sites A collection of international experts examine the development of the short story in a variety of contexts from the early nineteenth century to the present They consider how dramatic changes in the publishing landscape during this period such as the rise of the fiction magazine and the emergence of new opportunities in online and electronic publishing influenced the form covering subgenres from detective fiction to flash fiction Drawing on a wealth of critical scholarship to place the short story in the English literary tradition this volume will be an invaluable guide for students of the short story in English Hanif Kureishi Ruvani Ranasinha,2023-08-29

Original bold and always funny Hanif Kureishi is one of Britain's most popular provocative and versatile writers Born in Bromley in 1954 to an Indian father and white British mother Kureishi's life is intimately bound up with the history of immigration and social change in Britain This is the story of how a mixed-raced child of empire who attended the local comprehensive school found success with a remarkable series of novels and screenplays including My Beautiful Laundrette and The Buddha of Suburbia Intimacy Venus and Le Week End The book also illuminates a larger story not only of the artist as a young man but of the recasting of Britain in the aftermath of decolonisation Drawing on journals letters and manuscripts from Kureishi's unexplored archive recently acquired by the British Library and informed by interviews with his family friends and collaborators as well with the writer himself Ruvani Ranasinha sheds new light on how his life animates his work This first biography offers a vivid portrait of a major talent who has inspired a new generation of writers The Cambridge

History of the English Short Story Dominic Head,2016-11-14 The Cambridge History of the English Short Story is the first comprehensive volume to capture the literary history of the English short story Charting the origins and generic evolution of the English short story to the present day and written by international experts in the field this book covers numerous transnational and historical connections between writers modes and forms of transmission Suitable for English literature students and scholars of the English short story generally it will become a standard work of reference in its field The
