Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English

provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study The Beet Queen Louise Erdrich,1989 From the award winning author of Love Medicine The Beet Queen is a vibrant tale of abandonment and sexual obsession jealousy and unstinting love a forty year saga brimming with original and powerful characters The Contemporary American Short-Story Cycle James Nagel,2004-04-01 James Nagel offers the first systematic history and definition of the short story cycle as exemplified in contemporary American fiction bringing attention to the format s wide appeal among various ethnic groups He examines in detail eight recent manifestations of the genre all praised by critics while uniformly misidentified as novels Nagel proposes that the short story cycle with its concentric as opposed to linear plot development possibilities lends itself particularly well to exploring themes of ethnic assimilation which mirror some of the major issues facing American society today The Native American Renaissance Alan R. Velie,A. Robert Lee,2013-11-11 The outpouring of Native American literature that followed the publication of N Scott Momaday s Pulitzer Prize winning House Made of Dawn in 1968 continues unabated Fiction and poetry autobiography and discursive writing from such writers as James Welch Gerald Vizenor and Leslie Marmon Silko constitute what critic Kenneth Lincoln in 1983 termed the Native American Renaissance This collection of essays takes the measure of that efflorescence The contributors scrutinize writers from Momaday to Sherman Alexie analyzing works by Native women First Nations Canadian writers postmodernists and such theorists as Robert Warrior Jace Weaver and Craig Womack Weaver s own examination of the development of Native literary criticism since 1968 focuses on Native American literary nationalism Alan R Velie turns to the achievement of Momaday to examine the ways Native novelists have influenced one another Post renaissance and postmodern writers are discussed in company with newer writers such as Gordon Henry Jr and D L Birchfield Critical essays discuss the poetry of Simon Ortiz Kimberly Blaeser Diane Glancy Luci Tapahonso and Ray A Young Bear as well as the life writings of Janet Campbell Hale Carter Revard and Jim Barnes An essay on Native drama examines the work of Hanay Geiogamah the Native American Theater Ensemble and Spider Woman Theatre In the volume s concluding essay Kenneth Lincoln reflects on the history of the Native American Renaissance up to and beyond his seminal work and discusses Native literature s legacy and future The essays collected here underscore the vitality of Native American literature and the need for debate on theory and ideology The Non-literate Other Helga Ramsey-Kurz,2007 Public debates on the benefits and dangers of mass literacy prompted nineteenth century British authors to write about illiteracy Since the early twentieth century writers outside Europe have paid increasing attention to the subject as a measure both of cultural dependence and independence So far literary studies has taken little notice of this The Non Literate Other Readings of Illiteracy in Twentieth Century Novels in English offers explanations for this lack of interest in illiteracy amongst scholars of literature and attempts to remedy this neglect by posing the question of how writers use their literacy to write about a condition radically unlike their own. Answers to this question are given in the analysis of nineteen works featuring illiterates yet never before studied for doing so. The book explores the scriptlessness of Neanderthals in William Golding of barbarians in Angela Carter, David Malouf and J. M. Coetzee of African natives in Joseph Conrad and Chinua Achebe of Maoris in Patricia Grace and Chippewas in Louise Erdrich of fugitive or former slaves and their descendants in Richard Wright, Toni Morrison and Ernest Gaines of Untouchables in Mulk Raj Anand and Salman Rushdie and of migrants in Maxine Hong Kingston, Joy Kogawa and Amy Tan. In so doing it conveys a clear sense of the complexity and variability of the phenomenon of non literacy as well as its fictional resourcefulness.

Tales of Burning Love Louise Erdrich, 1996 When four women decide to ride back together after the North Dakota funeral of their ex husband and the car becomes stuck in a snow storm they share their secrets. They all agree he was a good for nothing so why did they marry him.

Native Americans Today Bruce E. Johansen, 2010-06-22 This engaging collection of Native American profiles examines these individuals' unique life experiences within the larger context of U.S. history. Native Americans Today: A Biographical Dictionary focuses on the lives of contemporary Native Americans. Such treatments are rare as most Native American biographies are historical, pre 1900 and cover familiar figures. Profiles collected here are written to be enjoyable as well as instructive, presented as examples of personal storytelling that should be savored not only for their factual content but also for the humanity they evoke. The book spotlights Native American lives in the United States and Canada mainly after 1900 though a few older figures are included because their lives evoke strikingly modern themes. The author, an expert on all things Native American, knows or knew several of the people in the entries, adding a special vibrancy to the writing. Among those profiled are former U.S. Senator Ben Nighthorse Campbell, activist Eloise Cobell and controversial political prisoner Leonard Peltier as well as writers, artists and musicians. The compilation also includes non Native Americans whose lives and careers impacted Indian life.

Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind, this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature. This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American, Asian American, Latino and Native American literary traditions among others. The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present. The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement, bilingualism, assimilation and border narratives. Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison, Maxine Hong Kingston, Maya Angelou, Sherman Alexie, A Raisin in the Sun, American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street. The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel, African American young adult literature, Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry.
