Gerald Lawson Sittser, 2008-09-19 Jesus commanded his disciples to love one another. It's a simple command to understand but very difficult to obey. And in the local church it sometimes seems impossible. Many of us belong to highly diverse Christian communities where we encounter people radically different from ourselves. At the same time controversies and difficulties often threaten to tear us apart. So how can we achieve unity within the body of Christ? Gerald Sittser examines the one another statements from the New Testament distilling much needed biblical wisdom to help us love one another. Drawing on his own pastoral experience of the best and worst of church life he shows us what the love Jesus commanded actually requires of us and how to live it out in struggle and servanthood, compromise and sacrifice. This enjoyable book by a best selling author will guide us in putting one of the most important biblical principles into practice for the good of our local churches.

A summary of the French verbs Auguste Mariot de Beauvoisin, 1862 Children, Love One Another Kathleen B. Polo MD, 2021-05-05 Let us draw near to God. Hebrews 10:19 There is no separation from God apart from our own sin which causes us to move away. Baptism in the Spirit has washed and purified us to stand in his presence. Draw near each day by daily inviting the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and minds. Norman Lawson was a United Methodist pastor who served from 1956 to 2012. While cleaning her parents storage unit ten years ago his daughter Dr. Kathleen Polo unearthed a box filled with more than fifty years of his sermons rich with spiritual insight that paralleled the current events of several decades in American history. After pulling thirty meditations from the sermons and presenting them to her father on his eightieth birthday, Kathleen eventually decided to create a compilation of these inspirational writings for every day of the year. Within a daily devotional inspired by the work of the Holy Spirit, Kathleen shares insight into faith, current world struggles and biblical truths intended to enrich the faith journey and stimulate the mind. Throughout the writings, Kathleen offers encouragement to believers to be bearers of Christ's
