Someone to Watch Over Me Frank Buchmann-Moller, 2010-02-05 For a half century Ben Webster one of the big three of swing tenors along with Coleman Hawkins and Lester Young was one of the best known and most popular saxophonists Early in his career Webster worked with many of the greatest orchestras of the time including those led by Willie Bryant Cab

Calloway Benny Carter Fletcher Henderson Andy Kirk Bennie Moten and Teddy Wilson In 1940 Webster became Duke Ellington's first major tenor soloist and during the next three years he played on many famous recordings including Cotton Tail Someone to Watch Over Me tells for the first time the complete story of Ben Webster's brilliant and troubled career For this comprehensive study of Webster author Frank B. Chmarnik Miller interviewed more than fifty people in the United States and Europe and he includes numerous translated excerpts from European periodicals and newspapers none previously available in English In addition the author studies every known Webster recording and film including many private recordings from Webster's home collection not available to the public Exhaustively researched this is a much needed and long overdue study of the life and music of one of jazz's most important artists Stan Getz Nicholas Churchill, 2004-12-29

Some may only know the jazz legend Stan Getz tenor saxophonist for his bossa nova hits Desafinado and The Girl from Ipanema However Getz born in 1927 began to play professionally at age 15 and his rich musical career lasted until shortly before his death on June 6 1991 He played in a wide variety of musical settings such as big band orchestral quartet and duo The incredible beauty of his sound sparked the late jazz great John Coltrane to say We would all play like Stan Getz if we could When Getz died jazz trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie said He was sheer genius And there's one thing about this man he was the most melodic player on the jazz scene This bibliography the first of its kind contains a total of 2 576 bibliographic citations with 2 292 of them annotated It includes references to periodical literature articles from news wire services books dissertations films videos television programs radio broadcasts and Web sites The citations are primarily from English language sources Materials in English and French as well as a handful of items from other languages are annotated This work includes a preface that contains the scope of the work a user's guide and a list of more than 340 periodicals cited The main body of the work is divided into the following sections album reviews performance reviews discographies and discographical information transcriptions biographical and critical works filmography and appendix Album reviews are provided for 240 albums along with the discographical details for each of these albums The appendix contains unannotated citations to materials in Danish Dutch German Italian Norwegian Spanish and Swedish JazzTimes, 1995-09 JazzTimes has been published continuously since 1970 and is the recipient of numerous awards for journalism and graphic design A large cross-section of music aficionados and fans alike view JazzTimes as America's premier jazz magazine In addition to insightful profiles of emerging and iconic stars each issue contains over 100 reviews of the latest CDs Books and DVDs Published ten times annually JazzTimes provides uncompromising coverage of the American jazz scene AfroAsian Encounters Heike Raphael-Hernandez, Shannon Steen, 2006-11-01 With a Foreword by Vijay Prashad and an Afterword by Gary Okimoto How might we understand yellowface performances by African Americans in 1930s swing adaptations of Gilbert and Sullivan's The Mikado Paul Robeson's support of Asian and Asian American struggles or the absorption of hip hop by Asian American youth culture AfroAsian Encounters is the first anthology to look at the mutual influence of and relationships between members of the African and Asian diasporas While these two groups have often been thought of as occupying incommensurate if not opposing cultural and political positions scholars from history literature media and the visual arts here trace their interconnections and interactions as well as the tensions between the two groups that sometimes arise AfroAsian Encounters probes beyond popular culture to trace the historical lineage of these coalitions from the late nineteenth century to the present A foreword by Vijay Prashad sets the volume in the context of the Bandung conference half a century ago and an afterword by Gary Okihiro charts the contours of a Black Pacific From the history of Japanese jazz composers to the current popularity of black Asian buddy films like Rush Hour AfroAsian Encounters is a groundbreaking intervention into studies of race and ethnicity and a crucial look at the shifting meaning of race in the twenty first century JazzTimes ,1997-06
