Love At High Risk The Many Faces Of Aids:

Love at High Risk Clément Olivier, Daniel McBain, 1996 Older Americans: The Changing Face of HIV/AIDS,
S.HRG. 113-863, Serial No. 113-9, September 18, 2013, 113-1, 2017 Love Is the Cure Elton John, 2012-07-17 A deeply personal account of Elton John's life during the era of AIDS and an inspiring call to action. In the 1980s Elton John saw friend after friend loved one after loved one perish needlessly from AIDS. He befriended Ryan White, a young Indiana boy ostracized because of his HIV infection. Ryan's inspiring life and devastating death led Elton to two realizations. His own life was a mess. And he had to do something to help stop the AIDS crisis. Since then Elton has dedicated himself to overcoming the plague and the stigma of AIDS. The Elton John AIDS Foundation has raised and donated 275 million to date to fighting the disease worldwide. Love Is the Cure includes stories of Elton's close friendships with Ryan White, Freddie Mercury, Princess Diana, Elizabeth Taylor and others, and the story of the Elton John AIDS Foundation. Sales of Love Is the Cure benefit the Elton John AIDS Foundation.

Black Women's Risk for HIV Quinn Gentry, 2008-03-05 An inside look at the devastating impact of the HIV/AIDS epidemic on poor African American women. Black Women's Risk for HIV Rough Living is a valuable look into the structural and behavioral factors in high risk environments, specifically inner city neighborhoods like the Rough in Atlanta.

With Pleasure Paul R. Abramson, Steven D. Pinkerton, 2002-10-17 Challenging everything from the mandates of the Catholic Church to the hotly debated ethics of pornography and from the controversy surrounding gay rights to issues of gender and feminism. With Pleasure explores a new theory of human sexuality that ignites every hot topic in the public domain. What role do authors Paul Abramson and Steven Pinkerton ask does sexual pleasure play in our lives? Is the pursuit of sexual enjoyment in our blood? Our brains? Our very nature? Regardless of the source, it can be agreed that the joys of sex are widely appreciated. Why then is pleasure so often overlooked in discussions of sexual behaviour and why do cultural, historical and religious treatises so often fail to emphasise or outright ignore this obvious aspect of human sexuality? Responding to these and many other questions about our most private affairs, With Pleasure provides a profoundly original challenge to the cherished truisms of human sexuality. Abramson and Pinkerton proclaim the paramount importance of pleasure while at the same time overthrowing traditional ideas about gender, pornography, contraception, homosexuality, abortion and much more. Supported by rigorous research and co-written by one of the foremost authorities on sex, With Pleasure argues that human sexuality cannot be understood if its significance is limited to reproduction alone. The authors posit that in humans reproduction itself occurs as a byproduct of pleasure, not the other way around, and that it is the strong drive for pleasure that makes people overcome many obstacles and even life-threatening dangers such as AIDS to have sex. Ranging from discussions about the church to current debates about pornography and from evolutionary theory to questions about the future of sex and pleasure, Abramson and Pinkerton argue persuasively that the pleasurable of sex cannot be restricted to purely reproductive behaviour. With Pleasure advances a startling and original new theory about human sexuality, one which the authors believe will replace all existing notions about sex The book standing in direct and deliberate opposition to traditions that try to confine sexuality to procreation is sure to ignite a firestorm of controversy

Love, Money, and HIV Sanyu A. Mojola, 2014-05-10 How do modern women in developing countries experience sexuality and love Drawing on a rich array of interview ethnographic and survey data from her native country of Kenya Sanyu A Mojola examines how young African women who suffer disproportionate rates of HIV infection compared to young African men navigate their relationships schooling employment and finances in the context of economic inequality and a devastating HIV epidemic Writing from a unique outsider insider perspective Mojola argues that the entanglement of love money and the transformation of girls into consuming women lies at the heart of women's coming of age and health crises At once engaging and compassionate this text is an incisive analysis of gender sexuality and health in Africa

Doing the Work of Love John Michael Clark, 1999 Clark's critique of the objectification that occurs in the sexual delivery system in the gay male subculture and his description of his and his partner's emergence from that subculture into a committed ongoing day to day relationship contribute significantly to the literature that is stretching toward new ways of creating more just and satisfying intimate relationships outside of sexist and heterosexual consciousness Stephen B Boyd Wake Forest University Bailey & Love's Short Practice of Surgery 26E

Thompson,2003-06 This handbook summarizes the research on communicative processes as they relate to health and health care and provides directions for future research For scholars professionals in health communication public health psychology related areas Enriching Business Ethics Clarence C. Walton,2013-06-29

Over thirty years ago Alfred North Whitehead wrote If America is to be civilized it has to be done at least for the present by the business class who are in possession of the power and the economic resources If the American universities were up to their job they would be taking business in hand and teaching it ethics and professional standards To the intellectual elites of his time there was something of a minor in Whitehead s view Few of them saw business as a civilizing force heresy and even fewer feeling that business was not to be tamed relished the role of the lion tamers Not many today doubt Whitehead s wisdom Organiza tions of wealth and power have accepted their corporate social responsibili ties and universities have launched major efforts to provide ethical instruc tion for business personnel So far as the scholars are concerned they quickly came to realize the difficulty of an undertaking that seeks to redefine and apply moral criteria to a very complex corporate world. Philosophers in particular have learned or perhaps have relearned how their speculations on ethics must take into account the living ethic expressed in the American culture and here anthropologists, sociologists and theologians were needed to provide an expertise that the moral manuals did not.

HIV Plus, 1998-09 HIV Plus offers the latest stories on research, economics and treatment. The magazine raises awareness of HIV related cultural and policy developments in the United States and throughout the world.

Sex is Not a Four-letter Word! Patricia Martens Miller, 1994 Miller offers parents clear current information on how to talk comfortably with their children about sexuality.

The Prostitution of Women and Girls Ronald B. Flowers, 1998 According to reports of the World Health Organization the prostitution of women and children is increasing dramatically throughout the world. The problem is particularly acute in the lower socioeconomic sectors of the population including teen runaways, drug addicts and victims of abuse. This survey focuses first on defining prostitution and then on the motivations of those who became prostitutes. In Part II the overall scope of the problem is examined along with the various subcultures e.g. street walkers and call girls and the prevalence of drugs, crime and victimization. Part III covers teenage prostitution and the issues of child sexual abuse. Part IV details other dimensions of the sex trade industry such as pornography, male prostitutes, customers, laws and the effects of decriminalization and legalization. Female prostitution outside the United States is discussed in Part V.

Evaluating Women's Health Messages Roxanne Louiselle Parrott, Celeste Michelle Condit, 1996-02-01 The increasing attention placed on women's reproductive health issues in recent years has produced a corresponding interest in the role that communication plays from promoting better health care to fostering greater well being. Evaluating Women's Health Messages is the first systematic examination of women's health communication. Compiling the works of over 30 contributors, editors Roxanne Louiselle Parrott and Celeste Condit explore the various forms health messages take: medical, social, scientific and public and the ways in which they compare with and contradict each other. The book is at once groundbreaking and comprehensive, examining the range of health issues from political, historical, technological, social support and feminist perspectives all within the broad framework of communication. With two chapters on each topic, the book provides a variety of perspectives on such issues as abortion, infertility, drug and alcohol use in pregnancy, childbirth, prenatal care, AIDS, breast cancer, reproductive technologies, menstruation, menopause and hysterectomy. Evaluating Women's Health Messages is a vital tool for every professional interested in women's health concerns as well as students taking courses in health communication, women's health, public health, sociology of health, health education and gender studies.

Love from the Pink Palace Jill Nalder, 2022-07-07 SHORTLISTED FOR THE RSL CHRISTOPHER BLAND PRIZE 2023 SHORTLISTED FOR THE POLARI FIRST BOOK PRIZE 2023 I read the book in one go I laughed and cried like a baby and was transported back to a time of innocence clouded by the enormity of the harsh reality. Just amazing.
