The Dark Interval Padraic Killeen, 2022-05-05 Invoking key concepts from the philosophical writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben The Dark Interval examines a subtle but distinct iconography of passivity stillness and profound self affection that recurs across noir films of every era In doing so it identifies the emergence of a specific cinematic figure the intervallic noir protagonist exposed to the redemptive force of his or her own passion Significantly the book contextualises the iconography of film noir in relation to prior art historical visual traditions in particular earlier representations of melancholia and the saturnine locating noir against a much broader canvas than has been the norm Examining central noir films of the classic and modern era The Killers The Man Who Wasn't There as well as films at the peripheries of noir from Jacques Tourneur's Cat People to Wong Kar Wai's 2046 the book locates a series of iconographic gestures performance traditions and affective tonalities at once specific to noir and yet resonant with a deeper cultural and philosophical heritage It is a meditation that uniquely grapples with the look and the feel of noir and which dares to detect a unique quality of beatitude that runs through a certain strain of noir films In doing so it illuminates why film noir remains one of the most provocative and affecting visual milieus of our time

A Phenomenology of the Devout Life George Pattison,2018-11-10 A Phenomenology of the Devout Life is the first part of a three part work A Philosophy of Christian Life Rather than approaching Christianity through its doctrinal statements as philosophers of religion have often done the book starts by offering a phenomenological description of the devout life as that is set out in the teaching of Francois de Sales and related authors This is because for most Christians practice and life commitments are more fundamental than formal doctrinal beliefs Although George Pattison will address the metaphysical truth claims of Christianity in Part three the guiding argument is that it is the Christian way of life that best reveals what these beliefs really are As the work is a philosophical study it does not presuppose the truth of Christianity but assumes only that there is a humanly accessible meaning to the intention to live a devout life pleasing to God This can be said to find expression in a certain view of selfhood that emphasizes the dimensions of feeling and will rather than intellect and that culminates in the experience of the annihilation of self This is a model of selfhood deeply opposed to contemporary models that privilege autonomous agency and the devout life is therefore presented as offering a corrective to extreme versions of the contemporary view Poems Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1898 Once a Week S.
