Love Sex And Power Women In Southeast Asia:

Love, Sex and Power Susan Blackburn, 2001 This book presents new trends in writing about women in Southeast Asia applying concepts of power in unusual areas What really are the impediments to women sharing power How do Vietnamese ideals of romantic love that effectively subordinate women to men Frank interviews explode the myth that marital rape does not happen in Indonesia There are historical and contemporary examples of the liberating influence of new work for women and the story of how the Indonesian state spread the message of family planning And delving into the discipline of cross cultural women s studies itself is a considered perspective on power relations between the Western scholar and the Asian women she is studying Islam, Women's Sexuality and Patriarchy in Indonesia Irma Riyani, 2020-11-26 This book explores the intimate marital relationships of Indonesian Muslim married women As well as describing and analysing their sexual relationships the book also investigates how Islam influences discourses of sexuality in Indonesia and in particular how Islamic teachings affect Muslim married women s perceptions and behaviour in their sexual relationships with their husbands Based on extensive original research the book reveals that Muslim women perceive marriage as a social cultural and religious obligation that they need to fulfil that they realise that finding an ideal marriage partner is complicated with some having the opportunity for a long courtship and others barely knowing their partner prior to marriage and that there is a strong tendency with some exceptions for women to consider a sexual relationship in marriage as their duty and their husband s right Religious and cultural discourses justify and support this view and consider refusal a sin dosa or taboo pamali Both discourses emphasise obedience towards husbands in marriage Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures in English Prem Poddar, 2019-08-07 This is the first reference guide to the political cultural and economic histories that form the subject matter of postcolonial literatures written in English The focus of the Companion is principally on the histories of postcolonial literatures in the Anglophone world Africa the Middle East South Asia South east Asia Australia and New Zealand the Pacific the Caribbean and Canada There are also long entries discussing the literatures and histories of those further areas that have also claimed the title postcolonial notably Britain East Asia Ireland Latin America and the United States The Companion contains 220 entries written by 150 acknowledged scholars of postcolonial history and literature covers major events ideas movements and figures in postcolonial histories long regional survey essays on historiography and women s histories Each entry provides a summary of the historical event or topic and bibliographies of postcolonial literary works and histories Extensive cross references and indexes enable readers to locate particular literary texts in their relevant historical contexts as well as to discover related literary texts and histories in other regions with ease Gender, Islam and Democracy in Indonesia Kathryn Robinson, 2008-10-27 This book explores the relationship between gender religion and political action in Indonesia examining the patterns of gender orders that have prevailed in recent history and demonstrating the different forms of social power this has afforded to women It sets out the part played by women in the nationalist movement and the role of the women's movement in the structuring of the independent Indonesian state the politics of the immediate post independence period and the transition to the authoritarian New Order It analyses in detail the gender relations of the New Order regime focused around the unitary family form supposed by the family system expounded in the New Order ideology and the contradictory implications of the opening up of the economy to foreign capital and ideas for gender relations It examines the forms of political activism that were possible for the women's movement under the New Order and the role it played in the fall of Suharto and the transition to democracy The relationship between Islam and women in Indonesia is also addressed with particular focus on the way in which Islam became a critical focus for political dissent in the late New Order period Overall this book provides a thorough investigation of the relationship between gender religion and democracy in Indonesia and is a vital resource for students of gender studies and Indonesian affairs The Continuum Complete International Encyclopedia of Sexuality Robert T. Francoeur, Raymond J. Noonan, 2004-01-01 A completely updated one volume edition of the 4 volume International Encyclopedia of Sexuality Includes nearly 60 countries and places 12 not previously covered by more than 200 authorities It is the only reference work of its kind in any language

Migrant Men Mike Donaldson, Raymond Hibbins, Richard Howson, Bob Pease, 2009-09-11 This edited volume contributes an important collection of chapters to the growing theoretical and empirical work being undertaken at the international level on men and migration The chapters presented here focus on what we might call migratory masculinities the experiences men have of masculinity upon immigration into another national ethnic and cultural context How do these men re construct their conceptions of masculinity Where are the points of tension ambivalence or assimilation in this process Featuring interviews and data drawn from migrants working and living in Australia this book explores how the gender identity of men from non English speaking backgrounds is influenced by the experiences of migration and settlement in an English speaking culture across various cultural spheres such as work leisure family life and religion South East Asia Research, 2005

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History: 4 Volume Set Bonnie G. Smith, 2008-01-23 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Southeast Asian Anthropologies Eric C. Thompson,Vineeta Sinha,2019 Anthropology is a flourishing discipline in Southeast Asia This book makes visible the development of national traditions and transnational practices of anthropology across the region The authors are practising anthropologists with decades of experience in the intellectual traditions and institutions that have taken root in the region Three overlapping issues are addressed in these pages First the historical development of traditions of research scholarship and social engagement across diverse anthropological communities of the region which have adopted and adapted global anthropological trends to their local circumstances Second the opportunities and challenges faced by Southeast Asian anthropologists as they practise their craft in different political contexts Third the emergence of locally grounded intra regional transnational linkages and practices The book contributes to a 21st century world anthropologies paradigm from a Southeast Asian perspective Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde ,2004 Review of Indonesian and Malaysian Affairs ,2006 The Buddha Side Alexander Soucy,2012-07-31 Explores how gender and age affect understandings of what it means to be a Buddhist in Vietnam from Book Jacket Chinese Indonesians Timothy Lindsey,Helen Pausacker,2005 Honours and reflects on the life and work of the Australian Indonesianist Charles A Coppel His interests reflected in this volume are broad ranging from history politics legal issues and violence against the Chinese through culture and religion Both authors are at the University of Melbourne Eastwards/Westwards Clara Sarmento,2007 Eastwards Westwards Which Direction for Gender Studies in the XXIst Century is a collection of essays which focus on themes and methods that characterize the current research on gender in Asian countries in general under a comparative approach that tries to cut across the boundaries of time and space In this collection ideas derived from Gender Studies as they are practised all over the world have been subjected to scrutiny for their utility in helping to describe and understand regional phenomena But the concepts of local TM and global TM with their discursive productions have not functioned here as a binary opposition localism and globalism are mutually constitutive and the authors have interrogated those spaces of interaction between the self TM and the other TM bearing in mind their own embeddedness in social and cultural structures and their own historical memory Eastwards Westwards Which Direction for Gender Studies in the XXIst Century provides a critical transnational perspective on some of the complex effects of the dynamics of cultural globalization by exploring the relation between gender and education politics economics anthropology linguistics historiography sociology literature and popular culture as agents of the re invention of old and new male and female identities their conversion into concepts and their circulation through time and space Feminist Periodicals, 2004 The Devil, the Lovers, & Me Kimberlee Auerbach, 2007 The author describes her survival of an abusive relationship her mother's mid life sexual proclivities and the interference of friends and her father during a promising new romance challenges that prompted her visit to an atypical tarot card reader Linking Destinies P. Boomgaard, Dick Kooiman, Henk Schulte Nordholt, 2008 Trade flows cities and kinship relations can all be seen as elements of complex networks In this collection of essays all of which deal with Asia we argue that there are good reasons to envisage them as various dimensions of the same networks Nevertheless it is fairly rare to find trade cities and kinship relations as intimately linked as we have portrayed them in this volume because they are usually classified within different sub disciplines of history whose practitioners are all too often not inclined to talk to people outside their own field The Australian born historian Heather Sutherland who recently retired from the VU university in Amsterdam is an exception in this respect because most of her work gravitates towards an approach which aims to integrate this trinity of topics This collection of essays written by a number of her students and close colleagues has taken its cue from her approach It is not the case that all the contributions deal with all three topics but they as a collective demonstrate how flows of trade cities both as urban centres and nodes in wider networks and kinship relations hang together and how the study of one topic opens new vistas on the other two revealing causal links that otherwise would have remained hidden Thus the essays in this collective volume support the idea that trade towns and kin although often dealt with quite separately can be viewed as various aspects of the same networks connecting people places and commodities
