Making Homes Sarah Pink, Kerstin Leder Mackley, Roxana Morosanu, Val Mitchell, Tracy Bhamra, 2017-05-18 Making Homes Anthropology and Design is a strong addition to the emerging field of design anthropology Based on the latest scholarship and practice in the social sciences as well as design this interdisciplinary text introduces a new design ethnography which offers unique and original approaches to research and intervention in the home Presenting a coherent theoretical and methodological framework for both ethnographers and designers the authors examine hot topics ranging from movements and mobilities to im material environments to digital culture and confront the challenges of a research and design environment which seeks to bring about the changes required for a sustainable resilient safe and comfortable future Written by leading experts in the field the book draws on real life examples from a wide range of international projects developed by the authors other researchers and designers Illustrations throughout help to convey the methods and research visually Readers will also have access to a related website which follows the authors ongoing research and includes video and written narrative examples of ethnographic research in the home Transforming current understandings of the home this is an essential read for students and researchers in fields such as design anthropology human geography sociology and media and communication studies

Making Home(s) in Displacement Luce Beeckmans, Alessandra Gola, Ashika Singh, Hilde Heynen, 2022-01-17 Making Home s in Displacement critically rethinks the relationship between home and displacement from a spatial material and architectural perspective Recent scholarship in the social sciences has investigated how migrants and refugees create and reproduce home under new conditions thereby unpacking the seemingly contradictory positions of making a home and overcoming its loss Yet making home s in displacement is also a spatial practice one which intrinsically relates to the fabrication of the built environment worldwide Conceptually the book is divided along four spatial sites referred to as camp shelter city and house which are approached with a multitude of perspectives ranging from urban planning and architecture to anthropology geography philosophy gender studies and urban history all with a common focus on space and spatiality By articulating everyday homemaking experiences of migrants and refugees as spatial practices in a variety of geopolitical and historical contexts this edited volume adds a novel perspective to the existing interdisciplinary scholarship at the intersection of home and displacement It equally intends to broaden the canon of architectural histories and theories by including migrants and refugees spatial agencies and place making practices to its annals By highlighting the political in the spatial and vice versa this volume sets out to decentralise and decolonise current definitions of home and displacement striving for a more pluralistic outlook on the idea of home

Making Home in the Suburb Maram Shaweesh, 2024-11-12 This book investigates everyday life within Lebanese Australian homes documenting how these homes integrate Lebanese Australian culture into suburban Australian life It explores how the homemaking practices of Lebanese Australian families both influence and are influenced by the context of suburban housing in Australia Drawing from in depth interviews household tours photographic documentation mental mapping and historical imagery data collection the book illuminates homemaking practices that have evolved from creating a home away from home to practices influenced by a unique Lebanese Australian lifestyle rooted in the perception of Australia as their home
