Neighbors Living The Revolution An Oral History Of Contemporary Cuba Living The Revolution:

Neighbors; Living the Revolution: An Oral History of Contemporary Cuba OSCAR. LEWIS, 1977 Living the Revolution, 1978 The Revolution is for the Children Anita Casavantes Bradford, 2014 Since 1959 the Cuban revolutionary government has proudly proclaimed that the revolution is for the children Many Cuban Americans reject this claim asserting that they chose exile in the United States to protect their children from the evils of Castro communism Anita Casavantes Bradford s analysis of the pivotal years between the Revolution s triumph and the 1962 Missile Crisis uncovers how and when children were first pressed into political service by ideologically opposed Cuban communities on both sides of the Florida Straits Casavantes Bradford argues that in Havana the Castro government deployed a morally charged politics of childhood to steer a nationalist and reformist revolution toward socialism At the same time Miami exile leaders put children at the heart of efforts to mobilize opposition to Castro s regime and to link the well being of Cuban refugees to U S Cold War foreign policy objectives Casavantes Bradford concludes that the 1999 Eli n Gonz lez custody battle was the most notorious recent manifestation of the ongoing struggle to define and control Cuban childhood revealing the persistent centrality of children to Cuban politics and national identity Inside the Revolution Mona Rosendahl, 1997 The first ethnographic study of life in Cuba to emerge in over twenty years Inside the Revolution offers a rare close view of how socialist ideology translates into everyday experience in one Cuban municipality Mona Rosendahl draws on eighteen months of fieldwork in a municipality she calls by the fictional name Palmera to present a vivid account of the lives and thoughts of residents many of whom have lived inside the revolution for more than thirty five years In Palmera support for the socialist program remains strong Rosendahl attributes continuing loyalty to four conditions improvements in the standard of living from 1959 to 1990 the uniformity and omnipresence of political communications from the government a historical emphasis on local participation in the revolution and the consistency of revolutionary ideals with traditional machista expectations and practices Through an analysis of ideology and practice in contemporary Cuba Rosendahl documents how its citizens support the present political system and how reciprocal economics between households and ideas about gender both reinforce and challenge that system Rosendahl also explains how those who oppose state socialism resist participation in society through inaction or withdrawal The Cuba Reader Aviva Chomsky, Barry Carr, Alfredo Prieto, Pamela Maria Smorkaloff, 2019-05-17 Tracking Cuban history from 1492 to the present The Cuba Reader includes more than one hundred selections that present myriad perspectives on Cuba s history culture and politics The volume foregrounds the experience of Cubans from all walks of life including slaves prostitutes doctors activists and historians Combining songs poetry fiction journalism political speeches and many other types of documents this revised and updated second edition of The Cuba Reader contains over twenty new selections that explore the changes and continuities in Cuba since Fidel Castro stepped down from power in 2006 For students travelers and all those who want to know more about the island nation just ninety miles south of Florida The Cuba Reader is an invaluable

introduction Operation Pedro Pan and the Exodus of Cuba's Children Deborah Shnookal, 2022-06-28 This in depth examination of one of the most controversial episodes in U S Cuba relations sheds new light on the program that airlifted 14 000 unaccompanied children to the United States in the wake of the Cuban Revolution Operation Pedro Pan is often remembered within the U S as an urgent rescue mission but Deborah Shnookal points out that a multitude of complex factors drove the exodus including Cold War propaganda and the Catholic Church s opposition to the island s new government Shnookal illustrates how and why Cold War scare tactics were so effective in setting the airlift in motion focusing on their context the rapid and profound social changes unleashed by the 1959 Revolution including the mobilization of 100 000 Cuban teenagers in the 1961 national literacy campaign Other reforms made by the revolutionary government affected women education religious schools and relations within the family and between the races Shnookal exposes how in its effort to undermine support for the revolution the U S government manipulated the aspirations and insecurities of more affluent Cubans She traces the parallel stories of the young Pedro Pans separated from their families in some cases indefinitely in what is often regarded in Cuba as a mass kidnapping and the children who stayed and joined the literacy brigades These divergent journeys reveal many underlying issues in the historically fraught relationship between the U S and Cuba and much about the profound social revolution that took place on the island after 1959 Publication of the paperback edition made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities Cuba Louis A. Pérez, 2015 Spanning the history of the island from pre Columbian times to the present this highly acclaimed survey examines Cuba s political and economic development within the context of its international relations and continuing struggle for self determination The dualism that emerged in Cuban ideology between liberal constructs of patria and radical formulations of nationality is fully investigated as a source of both national tension and competing notions of liberty equality and justice Author Louis A P rez Jr integrates local and provincial developments with issues of class race and gender to give students a full and fascinating account of Cuba s history focusing on its struggle for nationality

Neoliberalism, Personhood, and Postsocialism Nicolette Makovicky, 2016-04-22 Despite a growing literature debating the consequences of neo liberal political and economic policy in the former Eastern bloc the idea of neo liberal personhood has so far received limited attention from scholars of the region Presenting a range of ethnographic studies this book lays the groundwork for a new disciplinary agenda by critically examining novel technologies of self government which have appeared in the wake of political and economic liberalization Neoliberalism Personhood and Postsocialism explores the formation of subjectivities in newly marketized or marketizing societies across the former Eastern Bloc documenting the rise of the neo liberal discourse of the enterprising self in government policy corporate management and education as well as examining the shifts in forms of capital amongst marginal capitalists and entrepreneurs working in the grey zone between the formal and informal economies A rich investigation of the tools of neo liberal governance and the responses of entrepreneurs and families in changing societies this book reveals the full complexity of the relationship between historically and socially embedded economic practices and the increasing influence of libertarian political and economic thought on public policy institutional reform and civil society initiatives As such it will appeal to anthropologists sociologists and geographers with interests in political discourse identity entrepreneurship and organizations in post socialist societies To Die in Cuba Louis A. Pérez Jr.,2012-12-01 For much of the nineteenth century and all of the twentieth the per capita rate of suicide in Cuba was the highest in Latin America and among the highest in the world a condition made all the more extraordinary in light of Cuba s historic ties to the Catholic church In this richly illustrated social and cultural history of suicide in Cuba Louis A Perez Jr explores the way suicide passed from the unthinkable to the unremarkable in Cuban society In a study that spans the experiences of enslaved Africans and indentured Chinese in the colony nationalists of the twentieth century republic and emigrants from Cuba to Florida following the 1959 revolution Perez finds that the act of suicide was loaded with meanings that changed over time Analyzing the social context of suicide he argues that in addition to confirming despair suicide sometimes served as a way to consecrate patriotism affirm personal agency or protest injustice The act was often seen by suicidal persons and their contemporaries as an entirely reasonable response to circumstances of affliction whether economic political or social Bringing an important historical perspective to the study of suicide Perez offers a valuable new understanding of the strategies with which vast numbers of people made their way through life if only to choose to end it To Die in Cuba ultimately tells as much about Cubans lives culture and society as it does about their self inflicted deaths Cuba--twenty-five Years of Revolution, 1959-1984 Sandor Halebsky,John M. Kirk,1985 Essays on cultural change economic reform political development and foreign policy initiated by the 1959 revolution in Cuba analyses educational policy health services food security social status of women and evolution of the Catholic Church examines the emergence of popular culture film industry and literature looks at economic policy economic planning the political system the legal system working class etc discusses international relations partic The role of USA and role of USSR References statistical tables Writings for a Liberation Psychology Ignacio Martín-Baró,1996-09-01 A Spanish born Jesuit trained in psychology at the University of Chicago and killed by a Salvadoran death squad in 1989 Mart n Bar devoted much of his career to making psychology speak to the community and to the individual This collection clarifies his importance in Latin American psychology and reveals a major force in social theory Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Cuba Was Different Even Sandvik Underlid,2021-03-01 In Cuba Was Different Even Sandvik Underlid explores the views of Cuban authorities official press and Party members as they reflect back on the collapse of Soviet and Eastern European socialism In so doing he contributes to a better understanding as to why the Cuban system often associated with Fidel Castro s leadership did not itself collapse Despite the loss of its most important allies key ideological referents and even most of its foreign trade Cuba did not embrace capitalism The author critically examines and analyzes the collapse of the USSR and Eastern Europe as reported in the Cuban Communist Party newspaper Granma both as they unfolded and subsequently through the lens of additional interviews with individual Party members This focus on Cuba s Communist Party provides new perspectives on how these events were seen from Cuba and on the notable resilience of many party members
