H Merle D Aubign Maryland, My Maryland James Andrew Davis,2019 Historians have long treated the patriotic anthems of the American Civil War as colorful if largely insignificant side notes Beneath the surface of these songs however is a complex story Maryland My Maryland was one of the most popular Confederate songs during the American Civil War yet its story is full of ironies that draw attention to the often painful and contradictory actions and beliefs that were both cause and effect of the war Most telling of all it was adopted as one of a handful of Southern anthems even though it celebrated a state that never joined the Confederacy In Maryland My Maryland Music and Patriotism during the American Civil War James A Davis illuminates the incongruities underlying this Civil War anthem and what they reveal about patriotism during the war The geographic specificity of the song s lyrics allowed the contest between regional and national loyalties to be fought on bandstands as well as battlefields and enabled Maryland My Maryland to contribute to the shift in patriotic allegiance from a specific localized and material place to an ambiguous inclusive and imagined space Musical patriotism it turns out was easy to perform but hard to define for Civil War era Americans History of the Reformation in the sixteenth century; [vol.

Reformation in the Sixteenth Century and in the Time of Calvin (Complete) Jean Henri Merle d'Aubigne,1849-01-01 Facts

alone do not constitute the whole of history any more than the members of the body form the complete man There is a soul in history as well as in the body and it is this which generates vivifies and links the facts together so that they all combine to the same end The instant we begin to treat of Geneva which through the ministry of Calvin was to become the most powerful centre of Reform in the sixteenth century one question starts up before us What was the soul of the Reformation of Geneva Truly salvation by faith in Christ who died to save truly the renewal of the heart by the word and the Spirit of God But side by side with these supreme elements that are found in all the Reformations we meet with secondary elements that have existed in one country and not in another What we discover at Geneva may possibly deserve to fix the attention of men in our own days the characteristic element of the Genevese Reform is liberty Three great movements were carried out in this city during the first half of the sixteenth century The first was the conquest of independence the second the conquest of faith the third the renovation and organisation of the Church Berthelier Farel and Calvin are the three heroes of these three epics Each of these different movements was necessary The bishop of Geneva was a temporal prince like the bishop of Rome it was difficult to deprive the bishop of his pastoral staff unless he were first deprived of his sword The necessity of liberty for the Gospel and of the Gospel for liberty is now acknowledged by all thoughtful men but it was proclaimed by the history of Geneva three centuries ago But it may be said a history of the Reformation has no concern with the secular political and social element I have been reproached with not putting this sufficiently forward in the history of the Reformation of Germany where it had relatively but little importance I may perhaps be reproached with dwelling on it too much in the Reformation of Geneva where it holds a prominent place It is a hard matter to please all tastes the safest course is to be guided by the truth of principles and not by the exigencies of individuals Is it my fault if an epoch possesses its characteristic features if it is impossible to keep back the secular without wronging the spiritual element To cut history in two is to distort it In the Reform of Geneva and especially in the constitution of its church the element of liberty predominates more than in the Reforms of other countries We cannot know the reason of this unless we study the movement which gave birth to that Reform The history of the political emancipation of Geneva is interesting of itself liberty it has been said has never been common in the world it has not flourished in all countries or in all climates and the periods when a people struggles justly for liberty are the privileged epochs of history One such epoch occurred at the commencement of modern times but strange to say it is almost in Geneva alone that the struggles for liberty make the earlier decades of the sixteenth century a privileged time It is in this small republic that we find men remarkable for their devotion to liberty for their attachment to law for the boldness of their thoughts the firmness of their character and the strength of their energy In the sixteenth century after a repose of some hundreds of years humanity having recovered its powers like a field that had long lain fallow displayed almost everywhere the marvels of the most luxuriant vegetation Geneva is indeed the smallest theatre of this extraordinary fermentation but it was not the least in heroism and grandeur and on that ground alone it deserves attention
