The New Milton Criticism Peter C. Herman, Elizabeth Sauer, 2012-04-12 A collection of new essays demonstrating a wholly new approach to the complexities of Milton's work Criminalising Cartels Caron Beaton-Wells, Ariel Ezrachi, 2011-02-10 This book is inspired by the international movement towards the criminalisation of cartel conduct over the last decade. Led by US enforcers, criminalisation has been supported by a growing number of regulators and governments. It derives its support from the simple yet forceful proposition that criminal sanctions, particularly jail time, are the most effective deterrent to such activity. However, criminalisation is much more complex than that basic proposition suggests. There is complexity both in terms of the various forces that are driving and shaping the movement (economic, political, and social) and in the effects on the various actors involved in it (government enforcement agencies, the business community, judiciary, legal profession, and general public). Featuring contributions from authors who have been at the forefront of the debate around the world, this substantial 19 chapter volume captures the richness of the criminalisation phenomenon and considers its implications for building an effective criminal cartel regime, particularly outside of the US. It adopts a range of approaches, including general theoretical perspectives from criminal theory, economics, political science, regulation, and criminology, and case studies of the experience with the design and enforcement of existing or contemplated criminal cartel regimes in various jurisdictions, including in Australia, Canada, EU, Germany, Ireland, and the UK. The book also explores the international dimensions of criminalisation, its specific practical consequences, such as increased potential for extradition, as well as its more general implications for trends of harmonisation or convergence in competition law and enforcement. History and Historiography of Linguistics Hans-Josef Niederehe, E. F. K. Koerner, 1990 These two volumes present papers from the Fourth International Conference on the History of the Language Sciences (ICHoLS IV) held at the University of Trier, Germany, in August 1987. Volume 1 contains the following sections: I Generalia, II Antiquity, III Arabic Linguistics, IV Middle Ages, V Renaissance, VI 17th Century. Volume 2 continues with VII 18th Century, VIII 19th Century, IX 20th Century, and provides Author and Subject Indexes. ECRM 2017 16th European Conference on Research Methods in Business and Management Dr Anthony Buckley, 2017 Living The Letters Michael Marmur, 2025-04-11 In this work, Michael Marmur employs the structure of the Hebrew alphabet to set out elements of an emerging Jewish theology, presenting a case for the urgent relevance of Jewish life at a time of deepening rupture and accelerating change. He presents core components of a theory and practice of contemporary Judaism. The Hebrew alphabet has long beguiled and preoccupied Biblical authors and liturgical poets, rationalists and mystics, conservatives and radicals. It has served as a locus of theological speculation, an engine of creativity, and a recurrent motif throughout the cycle of life, from childhood instruction to graveside recitation. For each letter of the Hebrew alphabet, Marmur proposes a concept gleaned from theology, philosophy, ritual, politics, community, and other fields. Readers are invited to combine and deploy them in imagining a Judaism of tomorrow. This is an open access book. The End of Education as We Know It Ida Rose Florez, 2025-01-28 It's time for a whole new way of doing school. People are born systems thinkers. Education has the power to encourage our innate connection with the complex world, yet instead, our schools focus on

Geschichte Der Sprachwissenschaften Sylvain Aurox, 2000

Perspectives on Organizational Communication Steven R. Corman, Marshall Scott Poole, 2000-11-08 This volume promotes constructive dialogue among the basic methodological positions in organizational communication today Three essays discuss the concept of common ground from interpretive post positivist and critical vantage points In Search of the Two-Handed Economist Craig Freedman, 2016-11-21 For the economics profession issues of marketing and ideology have often been reduced to the status of the love that dare not speak its name This volume brings these issues out of the closet and examines what effect if any these factors have in shaping the contours of the discipline The way in which economists face policy issues is in part driven even if only subconsciously by unacknowledged ideological concerns and the increasing need to sell one's theories views and policies in a frustratingly competitive academic market In seven carefully and provocatively granulated chapters the volume raises possible implications of these marketing and ideological imperatives by approaching the problem from a number of surprising and irreverent directions Though unfortunately in its irrevocable denouement the text proves incapable of creating anything resembling a life changing experience let alone coming to any definite and irrefutable conclusions Like life itself economics is full of uncertainties and uncontrollable difficulties

Ideologies and Political Theory Michael Freeden, 1996-10-25 Ideologies play a crucial role in the way we understand and shape the political world But no one has yet satisfactorily explained the nature of ideologies themselves In this important study Michael Freeden offers a ground breaking approach to the subject Drawing on the political experience of Britain France Germany and the USA over the past two centuries the author provides an in depth examination of the key political ideologies liberalism conservatism socialism feminism and green political thought He goes on to outline a powerful and sophisticated new theory of ideologies and argues that by paying special attention to the complexity conceptual inter relationship and historical and contemporary context of ideologies we can both better understand them and reinvigorate the study of political theory From reviews of the hardback What is on offer here is both a highly original and profoundly stimulating analysis of ideological thinking Freeden's book will undoubtedly shape and redefine the field of ideological studies as it presently stands initiating fruitful lines of research for many years to come There is much to admire in this book History of European Ideas The approach is immensely illuminating The outstanding merit of Freeden's work is that he has shown what political philosophy presently lacks and has done so by demonstrating that ideologies should not be dismissed as merely the poor cousins of philosophies Both political theory and political philosophy have a great deal to learn from this book Radical Philosophy Non-doctrinal Research Methods in Environmental Law Paul Martin, Solange Teles da Silva, Marcia Leuzinger, Miriam Verbeek, Andrew Lawson, 2023-09-06 This timely book explores the innovative non doctrinal methods currently being used in environmental law research Drawing on their extensive experience expert contributors provide insight into how creative approaches to research can improve understanding of law and policy leading to more effective legal protection for the environment
