Que Viva Eisenstein:

Que Viva Mexico! Sergei Eisenstein, 1951 Mexico According to Eisenstein Inga Karetnikova, Leon Steinmetz, 1991
Sergei Eisenstein 1898-1948 spent just over a year in Mexico from December 1930 to February 1932 a period during which he shot a huge quantity of footage for his never to be completed film Que viva Mexico. This remarkable volume gathers the original script for Que viva Mexico, dozens of photographs and drawings and various short pieces of writing about Mexico completed after Eisenstein's return to the Soviet Union. Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant, Jeannette Sloniowski, 2013-12-16 Documenting the Documentary offers clear, serious and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism, abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis. A Distortion of Sergei Eisenstein's "Que Viva Mexico!", 1933 Sergei Eisenstein and Upton Sinclair: the Making & Unmaking of Que Viva Mexico! Harry M. Geduld, Sergei Eisenstein, Upton Sinclair, 1970 Que viva Mexico!, by S.M. Eisenstein; with an introduction by Ernest Lindgren ... New revised ed.; afterword by Ivor Montague Sergei Eisenstein, 1972 Sergei Eisenstein and Upton Sinclair Harry M. Geduld, 1970 Mexico Through Russian Eyes, 1806-1940 William Harrison Richardson, 2010-11-23 In this unique book William Richardson analyzes the descriptions given of Mexico by an assortment of Russian visitors from the employees of the Russian American Company who made their first contacts in the early nineteenth century to the artists, diplomats and exiles of the twentieth century. He explores the biases they brought with them and the interpretations they relayed back to readers at home. Richardson finds that Russians had a particular empathy for the Mexicans, sharing a perceived similarity in their histories: conquest by a foreign power, a long period of centralized authoritarian rule, an attempt at liberal reform followed by revolution. Working Stiffs, Union Maids, Reds, and Riffraff Tom Zaniello, 2018-05-31 The revised and expanded edition of Working Stiffs, Union Maids, Reds, and Riffraff offers 350 titles compared to the original edition's 150. The new book is global in scope with examples of labor films from around the world. Viewers can turn to this comprehensive annotated guide for films about unions or labor organizations, labor history, working class life, where an economic factor is significant, political movements if they are tied closely to organized labor, production or the struggle between labor and capital from a top-down, either entrepreneurial or managerial perspective. Each entry includes a critical commentary, production data, cast list, MPAA rating if any, suggested related films, annotated references to books and websites for further reading and information about availability of films for rental and/or purchase. This edition addresses both historical and contemporary films and features many more documentaries and hard-to-find information about agitprop and union-financed films. Working Stiffs, Union Maids, Reds, and Riffraff: An Expanded Guide to Films about Labor features fifty-eight production stills and frame enlargements. It also includes a greatly expanded Thematic Index of Films. Two new sections will help the reader discover labor films in chronological order or by nationality or affiliation with certain cinematic movements. Cahiers Du Cinéma, the 1950s Jim Hillier, 1985 The Cahiers du Cinéma has played a major role in establishing film theory and criticism as an essential part of the late 20th century culture This volume contains articles from the 1950s The Essential Raymond Durgnat Henry K. Miller, 2019-07-25 Raymond Durgnat was a maverick voice during the golden age of film criticism From the French New Wave and the rise of auteurism through the late 1960s counter culture to the rejuvenated Hollywood of the 1970s his work appeared in dozens of publications in Britain France and the USA At once evoking the film culture of his own times and anticipating our digital age in which technology allows everyone to create their own moving image text combos Durgnat's writings touch on crucial questions in film criticism that resonate more than ever today Bringing together Durgnat's essential writing for the very first time this career spanning collection includes previously unpublished and untranslated work and is thoroughly introduced and annotated by Henry K Miller Ostrannenie Annie van den Oever, 2010 Summary Defamiliarisation or ostrannenie the artistic technique of forcing the audience to see common things in an unfamiliar or strange way in order to enhance perception of the familiar has become one of the central concept of modern artistic practice ranging over movements including Dada postmodernism epic theatre and science fiction as well as our response to arts Coined by the Soviet literary critic Victor Shklovskii in 1917 ostrannenie has come to resonate deeply in film studies where it entered into dialogue with the French philosopher Derrida's concept of différance bordering on differing and deferring Striking provocative and incisive the essays of the distinguished film scholars in this volume recall the range and depth of a concept that since 1917 changed the trajectory of theoretical inquiry

The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded Wanda Strauven, 2006 Twenty years ago noted film scholars Tom Gunning and Andr  Gaudreault introduced the phrase cinema of attractions to describe the essential qualities of films made in the medium's earliest days those produced between 1895 and 1906 Now The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded critically examines the term and its subsequent wide ranging use in film studies The collection opens with a history of the term tracing the collaboration between Gaudreault and Gunning the genesis of the term in their attempts to explain the spectacular effects of motion that lay at the heart of early cinema and the pair's debts to Sergei Eisenstein and others. This reconstruction is followed by a look at applications of the term to more recent film productions from the works of the Wachowski brothers to virtual reality and video games. With essays by an impressive collection of international film scholars and featuring contributions by Gunning and Gaudreault as well, The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded will be necessary reading for all scholars of early film and its continuing influence.

Roberto Rossellini Peter Brunette, 2022-05-13 This is the first full-length study in any language of the most significant film director of Italian Neorealism. Peter Brunette combines close analyses of Roberto Rossellini's formal and narrative style with a thorough account of his position in the political and cultural landscape of postwar Italy. More than forty films are explored, including Open City, Paisan, Voyage to Italy, The Rise to Power of Louis XIV, and films made in the director's later years that documented crucial epochs in human history. Brunette's book is based on eight years of research during which he interviewed members of the director's family as well as Rossellini himself. Brunette also draws on an enormous body of European and American criticism and discusses the various intellectual debates spawned by the director's work. This landmark study is both a comprehensive introduction to one of the most influential practitioners of the contemporary cinema and a boldly original discussion of Italian Neorealism.
