Quebec Canada In The 21st Century:

Quebec Cinema in the 21st Century Michael Gott, Thibaut Schilt, 2024-02-06 This collection of ten chapters and three original interviews with Quebecois filmmakers focuses on the past two decades of Quebec cinema and takes an in depth look at a primarily Montreal based filmmaking industry whose increasingly diverse productions continue to resist the hegemony of Hollywood and to exist as a visible and successful hub of French language and ever more multilingual cinema in North America This volume picks up where Bill Marshall's 2001 Quebec National Cinema ends to investigate the inherently global nature of Quebec's film industry and cinematic output since the beginning of the new millennium Through their analyses of contemporary films Une colonie Avant les rues Bon cop bad cop Les Affamés Tom la ferme Uvanga among others directors including Xavier Dolan Denis Côté Sophie Desrues Chloé Robichaud Jean Marc Vallée and Monia Chokri and genres such as the buddy comedy and the zombie film our authors examine the growing tension between Quebec cinema as a national cinema and as an art form that reflects the transnationalism of today's world a new form of fluidity of individual experiences and an increasing on screen presence of Indigenous subjects both within and outside the borders of the province The book concludes with specially conducted interviews with filmmakers Denis Chouinard Bachir Bensaddek and Marie Hélène Cousineau who provide their views and insights on contemporary Quebec filmmaking

Canada on the Threshold of the 21st Century C.H.W. Remie, J.-M. Lacroix, 1991-08-22 This collection contains a selection of papers presented at the very First All European Canadian Studies Conference that took place in The Hague October 24-27 1990 This unique meeting took place for the first time in the history of Canadian Studies The focus of the papers is on the future rather than the past and it took place at a moment in time when Canada went through major crises that raised serious doubts about the country's future The papers of this volume explore the main issues and problems that Canada faces The volume contains sections on demography environmental problems economic transformations Canadian identity political power structure aboriginal issues and Canada's international relations As a whole the book takes stock where Canada stands and where it is going

Canadian Agriculture in the 21st Century Dr. Marvin S. Anderson, The Canadian Farming Community is facing numerous ongoing challenges including rapidly changing technologies the gradual erosion of the rural lifestyle growing consumer concerns about the healthiness of food and growing environmental concerns including climate change This book begins with an historic overview of agriculture in Canada followed by a statistical profile of the contemporary Canadian farm ranch supporting agri industrial complex and the innumerable farm organizations in Canada The vital role of international trade and government support in the evolution of Canadian agriculture is also highlighted Resource management issues and related hot button issues e.g. climate change GMO's are also addressed in considerable detail In addition Dr Anderson identifies the likely trends in Canadian agriculture in the immediate years ahead Emphasizing the diversity complexity strength and vitality of the agricultural sector Canadian Agriculture in the 21st Century ultimately highlights how it effectively molds and remains integral to the socioeconomic fabric of both rural and urban Canada. An underlying theme is the importance of having Canadian agriculture become increasingly ecofriendly in the challenging years ahead, particularly the need to gradually adopt more sustainable regenerative organic technologies and the need to more proactively serve as a vital CO₂ sink in climate change mitigation. Dr. Anderson also suggests that the public should financially compensate farmers/ranchers for protecting environmental amenities that accrue to everyone. A complimentary theme is the need for Canadian agriculture to become increasingly sensitive to consumer concerns, particularly with respect to rigorous health standards, animal welfare, and sustainable resource management.

The Role of the Nation-State in the 21st Century: Human Rights, International Organisations and Foreign Policy Monique Castermans-Holleman, Fried van Hoof, Jacqueline Smith, 2023-09-20. This collection of essays contributed by his friends pays tribute to the work of Peter R. Baehr, whose impressive career spans some 40 years of activity devoted to the cause of human rights. Although human rights remains the leitmotiv of Professor Baehr's career, the themes explored in this collection—the role of the nation-state in the 21st century, international organisations, and foreign policy—are a reflection of the versatility of his work and the range of his interests. This volume thus offers the reader a stimulating collection of essays by a wide range of international experts on both the theory and the practice of human rights within the context of the nation-state of the 21st century.

The Global Journalist in the 21st Century David H. Weaver, Lars Willnat, 2020-10-25. The Global Journalist in the 21st Century systematically assesses the demographics, education, socialization, professional attitudes, and working conditions of journalists in various countries around the world. This book updates the original Global Journalist 1998 volume with new data adding more than a dozen countries and provides material on comparative research about journalists that will be useful to those interested in doing their own studies. The editors put together this collection working under the assumption that journalists' backgrounds, working conditions, and ideas are related to what is reported and how it is covered in the various news media around the world in spite of societal and organizational constraints, and that this news coverage matters in terms of world public opinion and policies. Outstanding features include coverage of 33 nations located around the globe based on recent surveys conducted among representative samples of local journalists; comprehensive analyses by well-known media scholars from each country; a section on comparative studies of journalists; an appendix with a collection of survey questions used in various nations to question journalists. As the most comprehensive and reliable source on journalists around the world, The Global Journalist will serve as the primary source for evaluating the state of journalism. As such, it promises to become a standard reference among journalism, media, and communication students and researchers around the world.

Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005. Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers' current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography. As such, it is both a state-of-the-discipline assessment and a topical reference. It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White

Federalism and National Diversity in the 21st Century Alain-G. Gagnon, Arjun Tremblay, 2020-03-21 This edited volume explores the obstacles to and opportunities for the development and entrenchment of a sustainable and representative multinational federalism In doing so it tackles a striking puzzle on the one hand scholars agree that deeply diverse multinational and multiethnic democracies should adopt federal structures that reflect and empower territorially concentrated diversity On the other hand there are very few if any real examples of enshrined and fully operative substantive multinational federalism What are the main roadblocks to the adoption of multinational federalism Can they be overcome Is there a roadmap to realizing multinational federalism in the twenty first century In addressing these questions this book brings together scholars from across the globe who explore a diverse range of cases from different and innovative analytical approaches The chapters contribute to answering the above questions each in their own way while also addressing other important aspects of multinational federalism The book concludes that the way forward likely depends on the emergence of a specific set of norms and a receptiveness to the complex institutional design
