Ww2 Through the Eyes of a Child Patrick J. Cullen,2012 This is the true story of a little child called Patrick who was one of five little brothers that came through what seemed like a strange world full of bombs dropping causing big fires and total destruction on a massive scale every morning I would wake up to see new Wendy houses to play in not realizing someone lived there the day before and the houses were still burning it was nice and warm food was so scarce it was rationed so much so we had a plot of land where the family tried to grow our own food sweets and fruit I did not see until I was 14yrs old as for toys well you just made your own if you could what the war failed to do was any damage to Manchester folks wicked sense of humour that's why to me they will always be the salt of the earth and I should know I am one of them There is an old saying you can take the child out of Manchester but you will never take Manchester out of the child The best way to give you an understanding about the war is this if you can imagine that almost every single nation on this planet was involved in the fighting for 6 long years with the exception of Spain

Cullen, 2010-10-11 So you think you know what it was like in 1939 and beyond to live through World War 2 the blitz and all well you will have one eye already open from your current education so let this little boy called Patrick tell you what you don't know Warts and all so you will have both eyes open wide and at last you will have real valuable true knowledge now you know the real truth The place Patrick talks about is the borough of HARPURHEY MANCHESTER UK It is the story of the greatest abject poverty and squalor if you are a male you will laugh a lot about his antics to survive if you are a female you may weep a lot about his treatment and being branded a street urchin at such a tender young age but Patrick tells all that is when he could stop coughing from all the muck crap and shit that was in abundance at that time
