Queen Elizabeth At War His Majestys Transport 1939 1946:

"Queen Elizabeth" at War Chris Konings, 1985 In depth recounting of the Queen Elizabeth s career as a troop ship during World War II

A Bridge of Ships James Pritchard, 2011-05-20 In A Bridge of Ships James Pritchard tells the story of the rapidly changing circumstances and forceful personalities that shaped government shipbuilding policy He examines the ownership and expansion of the shipyards and the role of ship repairing as well as recruitment and training of the labour force He also tells the story of the struggle for steel and the expansion of ancillary industries Pritchard provides a definitive picture of Canada s wartime ship production assesses the cost more than 1 2 billion and explains why such an enormous effort left such a short lived legacy The story of Canada s shipbuilding industry is as astonishing as that of the nation s wartime navy The personnel of both expanded more than fifty times yet the history of wartime shipbuilding remains virtually unknown With the disappearance of the Canadian shipbuilding industry from both the land and memory it is time to recall and assess its contribution to Allied victory

Cockatoo Island John Jeremy, 2005 John Jeremy pays tribute to Sydney Harbour s largest and by far most fascinating island in this new edition of Cockatoo Island Sydney s Historic Dockyard The book focuses on the industrial history of Cockatoo Island and is the most detailed account of the dockyard its administration and activities yet written It also provides fascinating detail and spectacular archival photography of Sydney Harbour s industrial heart

Most Honorable Son Gregg Jones, 2024-07-23 The first comprehensive biography of unjustly forgotten war hero Ben Kuroki a Japanese American farm boy from Nebraska who flew fifty eight combat missions fighting the Axis powers during World War II and battled racism injustice and prejudice on the home front Ben Kuroki was a twenty four year old Japanese American farm boy whose heritage was never a problem in remote Nebraska until Pearl Harbor Among the millions of Americans who flocked to military stations to enlist Ben wanted to avenge the attack reclaim his family honor and prove his patriotism But as anti Japanese sentiment soared Ben had to fight to be allowed to fight for America And fight he did As a gunner on Army Air Forces bombers Ben flew fifty eight missions spanning three combat theaters Europe North America and the Pacific including the climactic B 29 firebombing campaign against Japan that culminated with the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki He flew some of the war s boldest and bloodiest air missions and lived to tell about it In between his tours in Europe and the Pacific he challenged FDR s shameful incarceration of more than one hundred thousand people of Japanese ancestry in America and he would be credited by some with setting in motion the debate that reversed a grave national dishonor In the euphoric wake of America s victory the decorated war hero used his national platform to carry out what he called his fifty ninth mission urging his fellow Americans to do more to eliminate bigotry and racism at home Told in full for the first time and long overdue Ben s extraordinary story is a quintessentially American one of patriotism principle perseverance and courage It s about being in the vanguard of history the bonding of a band of brothers united in a just cause a timeless and unflinching account of racial bigotry and one man s transcendent sense of belonging in war in
