Queen Victorias Bomb:

Queen Victoria's Bomb Ronald Clark, 2013-05-14 A sudden intolerably bright fireball lights up a remote and deserted Indian plateau Searing heat melts rock into incandescent pools of glowing liquid The earth heaves A monstrous thunderclap of sound reverberates over the land An ominous mushroom shaped cloud boils skywards For years afterwards strange plants and even stranger human mutants are discovered in the area warped spawn of a mysterious and deadly force Just another atomic test Not exactly Because it was Professor Huxtable s brainchild And the professor is one of the most devoted and loyal servants of Queen Victoria Queen Victoria's Bomb, 1967 Queen Victoria's Bomb; the Disclosures of Professor Franklin Huxtable, M.A., Cantab Ronald William Clark, 1968 The History & Records of Queen Victoria's Rifles, 1792-1922 Cuthbert Alfred Garnet Cuthbert Keeson, 1923 The War History of the 4th Battalion the London Regiment (Royal Fusiliers), 1914-1919 F. Clive Grimwade, 1922 The War History of the 4th Battalion, the London Regiment (Royal Fusiliers) 1914-1918 F. Clive Grimwade, 1922 American Book Publishing Record, 1985 The Dramatic Legacy of Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters Muriel Gold C.M. Ph.D., 2010-10-11 It was 1933 in the midst of the Great Depression Montrealers like their counterparts in other countries were inundated with financial burdens Uppermost in most parents minds was the task of supporting their families Dance lessons music lessons drama lessons were considered in many quarters as frills This pervasive mood did not daunt two young women Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters from initiating their mission Instead it spurred them on Difficult times they believed were all the more reason to inspire children through the love of the arts in this case drama and theatre Muriel Gold tells the story of these two dynamic women through innumerable anecdotes often hilarious sometimes moving but always a compelling and fascinating read A former student and teacher at the School she recreates the magic of past childrens theatre productions cites the monologues the poems the voice exercises vividly recalled by the children they nurtured over a period of close to 60 years They brought me out of my shell Hana Gartner well known national broadcaster The joy and the laughter the tears and the catharsis and the love that these two women gave to all of us is something that lives on Judy Siblin journalist My first meeting with Dorothy and Violet when I was eight years old was one of fascination Having just returned from three years in England I thought these two charming ladies must be related to the Queen their English was so polished Clare Shapiro artistic director Imago Theatre The Montreal Childrens Theatre probably had a bigger influence on my life than any educational facility I was madly in love with Violet Walters She bore a striking resemblance to some of the silent screen stars William Shatner Hollywood star Flight, 1928 Bomber Squadrons of the R.A.F. and Their Aircraft Philip J. R. Moyes, 1964 Illustrated record of British Royal Air Force squadrons formed since the First World War including those formed from Allied and Dominions personnel Popular Culture and Its Relationship to Conflict in the UK and Australia since the Great War Andrekos Varnava, Michael J.K. Walsh, 2022-12-26 This book shows how cultural production derived from or in anticipation of conflict can be used to create specific social identities national histories and contemporary concepts of memory in Britain and Australia Studies on the politics of cultural production have usually focussed on one conflict or on one particular cultural medium at a time This volume however presents a broader horizon to draw attention to more popular forms of cultural production from the Great War up to and including its Centenary The chapters in this volume interrogate the contentious philosophical notion that culture thrives in times of war and expires in peace and asks whether art as a form of social barometer can anticipate conflict rather than merely respond to it This is a fascinating read for students researchers and academics interested in British and Australian History and its relationship with Popular Culture The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary British History

History, Memory and Public Life Anna Maerker, Simon Sleight, Adam Sutcliffe, 2018-07-06 History Memory and Public Life introduces readers to key themes in the study of historical memory and its significance by considering the role of historical expertise and understanding in contemporary public reflection on the past Divided into two parts the book addresses both the theoretical and applied aspects of historical memory studies Approaches to history and memory introduces key methodological and theoretical issues within the field such as postcolonialism sites of memory myths of national origins and questions raised by memorialisation and museum presentation Difficult pasts looks at history and memory in practice through a range of case studies on contested complex or traumatic memories including the Northern Ireland Troubles post apartheid South Africa and the Holocaust Examining the intersection between history and memory from a wide range of perspectives and supported by guidance on further reading and online resources this book is ideal for students of history as well as those working within the broad interdisciplinary field of memory studies
