By A. [and E.] Strickland Agnes Strickland, 1845 Lives of the Queens of England of the House of Hanover Dr. Doran (John), 1865 Ice Cream, Gasmasks and God Joyce M Lovely, 2015-06-22 Joyce Lovely grew up in Liverpool during World War 2 her family narrowly surviving a blitz which severely damaged their home and killed two thousand of their fellow Liverpudlians in a single week She and her young friends dreamed of peace and safety but not as much as they dreamed about ice cream and chocolate and later handsome boyfriends As a teenager in the post war years she found herself pursued by romantic suitors Her choice of husband was ultimately guided by her early discovery of God and faith which was how she found herself a newly married woman struggling to run her first home in the wilds of the Shetland Isles trying to make ends meet on the slim pay of her minister husband and the kindness of the islanders A charming memoir of a young woman s childhood and coming of age High Tea on the Cunard Queens Paul Curtis, 2019-08-12 This amusing insight into Cunard's legendary liners begins more than fifty years ago when Paul Curtis joined the original Queen Mary as entertainments officer. Over a Cunard high tea in the Queens Room Paul recounts the stories of these iconic ships. Then over a drink in the Red Lion he shares the tales of the antics of both passengers and crews. The facts are delivered in vivid detail, some of them things you should know and an occasional peep at things you shouldn't. Simply turning these pages releases a sniff of the sea and a whiff of champagne. Paul has worked, travelled upon or photographed every Cunard Queen ever built. He has an offbeat sense of humour and a keen appetite for the ridiculous. A life at sea can do that to you. Lives of the Queens of England Agnes Strickland, 2025-08-25. Founded in 1841 by a royal charter, Queen's University evolved into a national institution steeped in tradition and an abiding sense of public service. Propelled initially by its Presbyterian instincts and an attachment to Gaelic culture, Queen's has prospered and adapted over the years to match Canada's ever-changing dynamics. In this third volume of Queen's University's official history, Duncan McDowall demonstrates that the late twentieth century was a contest between expediency and tradition, waged through crisis and careful evolution. Testing Tradition calibrates the durability of Queen's vaunted traditions in the face of shifts in the broader Canadian society. During this time of massive postsecondary expansion, Queen's grew sevenfold from a small collegial campus of 3,100 students to a sprawling cosmopolitan place of more than 20,000 students from over 120 countries engaged in undergraduate, graduate and professional programs. Measuring Queen's University's responses to concerns over social diversity, human rights and gender equity through the eyes of its trustees, administrators, students, faculty and the Kingston community, this volume pays particular attention to the experiences of women and visible minorities at the university Copiously illustrated with photographs of important people events and aspects of campus life this volume shows how Queen's in having its traditions tested has worked to retain the best of its past while accepting the inevitability of change The Queen's Colonial: Colonial Series Book 1 Peter Watt, 2018-11-13
