Queensland 1824 1900:

Queensland, 1824-1900 George Finkel, 1975 Brief mention of Aborigines violent conflict Australian national bibliography, 1961 Aboriginal Dreaming Paths and Trading Routes Dr Dale Kerwin, 2011-12-07 Highlights the contribution Aboriginal people made in assisting European explorers surveyors and stockmen to open the country for colonisation and explores the interface between Aboriginal possession of the Australian continent and European colonisation and appropriation Australian National Bibliography, 1901-1950: Main sequence, 23,666-49,436, 1988 The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned, 1923 The Best of Colonial Brisbane Rod Fisher, 2012-01-09 Packed inside this unique collection on colonial Brisbane are no less than 22 essays by historian Rod Fisher Most were published as scattered articles in various formats over 25 years 3 have never seen the light of day and all are brought up to date While stepping through the years from 1842 1901 and sometimes further as a continuum they are grouped under 5 main themes Occupation deals with early settlement employment and pursuits until the 1860s That involves the lie of the land including the town its old windmill industry photography cultural associations and personnel The next theme of Alienation traverses the same years in exposing as never before the aboriginal experience and ethnic mix while taking the formation of the New Church until the early 1880s as an instance of sectarianism The Separation section concerns several historical oversights about 1859 the time lag in acknowledging Brisbane as the colonial capital rediscovery of the original proclamation of Queensland recognition of the role of its prime public servant and ongoing history of the first colonial flag as well as the visual means used by a sojourning artist to promote Brisbane's new found status in 1864 66 Then Personation portrays the rise and fall of 4 representative men from early colonial years to the end of the era an Anglican brewer turned public servant and teacher English Swedenborgian artist musician and naturalist Scottish Presbyterian novelist merchant and planter and Irish Catholic building contractor not forgetting their supportive and long suffering wives Going back from the late 1880s to the 1840s and then forward into the next century the final theme of Location examines the iniquities of urban Frogs Hollow origins of rustic Bulimba trends in old South Brisbane controversies of North Brisbane Cemetery later Lang Park perceptions of Brisbane River and sad saga of Moreton Bay Droughts, Cyclones & Floods Don Garden, 2017-02-03 Droughts Floods and Cyclones is the most comprehensive study of this phenomenon examining the impact of a series of El Niño events in Australia New Zealand Fiji and French Polynesia in the second half of the nineteenth century Race Relations in Colonial Queensland Raymond Evans, Kay Saunders, Kathryn Cronin, 1988 Includes section on Aborigines and Europeans violent conflict resistance native police racism stereotypes alcoholism infectious disease prostitution fringedwellers government policy Archibald Meston Reverend Duncan McNab Indentured Labour in the British Empire, 1834-1920 Kay Saunders, 2018-03-14 First published in 1984 Indentured labour migration in the nineteenth century intersects many of the most serious issues of our own time racism Third World poverty and the arrogance of a great world powers Indenture suggests lack of freedom and the exploitation of people forced into exile or misadventure Coming as it did after the abolition of slavery in the British Empire in 1834 in many respects it can be regarded as a replacement of the slave labour system Indeed both concerned humanitarians and officials in the nineteenth century and many historians subsequently have regarded indentured labour merely as a new system of slavery Many of the articles in this book address themselves to this assertion whilst investigating the particular variations inherent in their geographic area The differing patterns of Indian indenture in the West Indies and British Guiana coming almost immediately after slavery forms the first section of this book Attention is given to the Indians engaged in the sugar industries in Mauritius and Fiji and the rubber industry in Malaya The use of Pacific Islanders in the Queensland industry is also examined particularly in the sugar industry which by the early twentieth century contained the unique pattern of white expensive unionized labour Other groups dealt with include the aboriginal workers in Australia and the Chinese workers in the Transvaal Overall this book is comprehensive and far reaching in its scope and the complex issues which it raises

Boosting Brisbane Rod Fisher, 2009 Boosting Brisbane provides a treasure trove of visual delights So if you are into history literature fine arts architecture geography media technology museology or culture of Brisbane in particular this timely collection fits the bill The Geographical Journal, 1901 Includes the Proceedings of the Royal geographical society formerly published separately Handbook of Historical Studies in Education Tanya Fitzgerald, 2020-04-03 This book offers an in depth historiographical and comparative analysis of prominent theoretical and methodological debates in the field Across each of the sections contributors will draw on specific case studies to illustrate the origins debates and tensions in the field and overview new trends directions and developments Each section includes an introduction that provides an overview of the theme and the overall emphasis within the section In addition each section has a concluding chapter that offers a critical and comparative analysis of the national case studies presented As a Handbook the emphasis is on deeper consideration of key issues rather than a more superficial and broader sweep The book offers researchers postgraduate and higher degree students as well as those teaching in this field a definitive text that identifies and debates key historiographical and methodological issues The intent is to encourage comparative historiographical perspectives of the nominated issues that overview the main theoretical and methodological debates and to propose new directions for the field Literary Research and the Victorian and Edwardian Ages, 1830-1910 Melissa S. Van Vuuren, 2010-11-19 The diverse literatures of Victorian and Edwardian Britain have provided a wealth of research materials for novice and expert researchers alike Although the body of scholarship for the Edwardian Age is smaller than that of the Victorian researchers should have no shortage of resources for learning more about the literatures of either time period While many of the novels plays poetry and prose from the Victorian and Edwardian Ages are still readily available in print a vast amount of literature has long since fallen out of print Recent efforts in digitization the Victorian Women Writers Project English Literary Periodicals 1681 1914

Early British Periodicals 1681 1921 19th Century British Library Newspapers 19th Century U K Periodicals Times Digital Archives Victorian Popular Culture and even Google Books have helped to make many texts more widely accessible Literary Research and the Victorian and Edwardian Ages 1830 1910 discusses traditional and new resources for researching this period of British literature and the ways in which those resources can be used in conjunction with one another By helping readers navigate the resources and issues particular to these literatures this book will serve as an essential guide to researching the literatures of the Victorian and Edwardian Ages

Convict Workers Stephen Nicholas, 1988 This work offers a new interpretation of Australia's convict past It is based on a detailed analysis of records of 20 000 male and female convicts one in three of those transported to New South Wales between 1817 and 1840

The Architecture of East Australia Bill MacMahon, 2001-11-29 The story of Australian architecture might be said to parallel the endeavours of Australians to adapt reconcile themselves with their home neighbours It is the story of 200 years of coming to terms with the land of adaptation insight making do Early settlers were poorly provisioned profoundly ignorant of the land richly prejudiced towards its peoples They pursued many paths over many terrains From the moist temperate region of Tasmania with heavy Palladian villas to the monsoonal north with open lightweight stilt houses the continent has induced most different regional building styles

Colonialism, Maasina Rule, and the Origins of Malaitan Kastom David W. Akin, 2013-10-31 This book is a political history of the island of Malaita in the British Solomon Islands Protectorate from 1927 when the last violent resistance to colonial rule was crushed to 1953 and the inauguration of the island's first representative political body the Malaita Council At the book's heart is a political movement known as Maasina Rule which dominated political affairs in the southeastern Solomons for many years after World War II The movement's ideology kastom was grounded in the determination that only Malaitans themselves could properly chart their future through application of Malaitan sensibilities and methods free from British interference Kastom promoted a radical transformation of Malaitan lives by sweeping social engineering projects and alternative governing and legal structures When the government tried to suppress Maasina Rule through force its followers brought colonial administration on the island to a halt for several years through a labor strike and massive civil resistance actions that overflowed government prison camps David Akin draws on extensive archival and field research to present a practice based analysis of colonial officers' interactions with Malaitans in the years leading up to and during Maasina Rule A primary focus is the place of knowledge in the colonial administration Many scholars have explored how various regimes deployed colonial knowledge of subject populations in Asia and Africa to reorder and rule them The British imported to the Solomons models for native administration based on such an approach particularly schemes of indirect rule developed in Africa The concept of custom was basic to these schemes and to European understandings of Melanesians and it was made the lynchpin of government policies that granted limited political roles to local ideas and practices Officers knew very little about Malaitan cultures however and Malaitans seized the opportunity to transform custom into kastom as the foundation for a new society The book s overarching topic is the dangerous road that colonial ignorance paved for policy makers from young cadets in the field to high officials in distant Fiji and London Today kastom remains a powerful concept on Malaita but continued confusion regarding its origins history and meanings hampers understandings of contemporary Malaitan politics and of Malaitan people s ongoing problematic relations with the state
