Not My Mother's Sister Astrid Henry, 2004-09-07 Rebellious generations and the emergence of new feminisms

Homotopia? Jonathan Kemp, 2015 There is not one corner of the earth where the alleged crime of sodomy has not had shrines and votaries Marquis de Sade Philosophy in the Bedroom Maybe the target nowadays is not to discover what we are but to refuse what we are We have to promote new forms of subjectivity through the refusal of this kind of individuality Michel Foucault The Subject and Power Do opposites attract Is desire lack These assumptions have become so much a part of the ways in which we conceive desire that they are rarely questioned Yet what do they say about how homosexuality a desire for the same is viewed in our culture This book takes as its starting point the absence of a suitable theory of homosexual desire a theory not predicated on such heterological assumptions It is an investigation into how such assumptions acquired meaning within homosexual discourse and as such is offered as an interruption within the hegemony of desire As such homosexual desire constitutes the biggest challenge to Western binaric thinking in that it dissolves the sacred distinctions between Same Other Desire Identification subject object male female Homotopia composed in 1997 but not published until now investigates the development of a homosexual discourse at the end of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth century and reveals how that discourse worked within heterosexualized models of desire Andre Gide s Corydon Edward Carpenter s The Intermediate Sex and John Addington Symond s A Problem in Modern Ethics are all pseudo scientific texts written by non medical men of letters and were in their time highly influential on the emerging homosexual discourse The fourth text the twenty odd pages of Marcel Proust s novel A la recherche de temps perdu usually referred to as La Recherche is the most problematic in that it appeared under the guise of fiction But Proust originally planned this essay within a novel to be published separately In it he offers a pseudo scientific theory of male male love These four texts were published between the years 1891 and 1924 an historical moment when the concept of a distinct homosexual identity took shape within a medicalized discourse centered on essential identity traits and characteristics and they all work within the rubric of science contributing to a discourse which saw the human race divided into two distinct categories heterosexuals and homosexuals How did this division come about and what were its effects How was this discourse sustained and how were the meanings it produced received For men whose erotic interest was exclusively in other men what did it mean to see oneself and one s desires as the outcome of biology rather than moral lapse
