AMERICAN LITERATURE

AND THE REINVENTION OF LESBIAN AND GAY IDENTITIES

ROBERT MCRUER

Phillip L. Hammack, Bertram J. Cohler

The Queer Renaissance Robert McRuer, 1997-06 The Queer Renaissance puts a name to the unprecedented outpouring of creative work by openly lesbian and gay novelists poets and playwrights in the past two decades This volume is one of the first to critically analyze this cultural awakening and is one of the only books to consider the work of gay male and lesbian writers together Most importantly it is the first book to consider how this wave of creative activity has worked in tandem with a flourishing of radical gueer politics The Queer Renaissance explores the work of such important figures as Audre Lorde Edmund White Randall Kenan Gloria Anzaldua Tony Kushner and Sarah Schulman to guestion the dichotomy between art and activism In addition it interrogates the ways gueer theory deploys intersects with and contests contemporary theoretical movements such as cultural studies feminist theory African American theory and Chicano a theory Renaissance Robert McRuer, 1997-06 The Queer Renaissance puts a name to the unprecedented outpouring of creative work by openly lesbian and gay novelists poets and playwrights in the past two decades This volume is one of the first to critically analyze this cultural awakening and is one of the only books to consider the work of gay male and lesbian writers together Most importantly it is the first book to consider how this wave of creative activity has worked in tandem with a flourishing of radical gueer politics The Queer Renaissance explores the work of such important figures as Audre Lorde Edmund White Randall Kenan Gloria Anzaldua Tony Kushner and Sarah Schulman to guestion the dichotomy between art and activism In addition it interrogates the ways queer theory deploys intersects with and contests contemporary theoretical movements such as cultural studies feminist theory African American theory and Chicano a theory Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies Timothy Murphy, 2013-10-18 The Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies surveys the field in some 470 entries on individuals Adrienne Rich arts and cultural studies Dance ethics religion and philosophical issues Monastic Traditions historical figures periods and ideas Germany between the World Wars language literature and communication British Drama law and politics Child Custody medicine and biological sciences Health and Illness and psychology social sciences and education Kinsey Report Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this The Disability Studies Reader Lennard J. Davis, 2016-10-19 The fifth edition of The Disability Studies Reader addresses the post identity theoretical landscape by emphasizing questions of interdependency and independence the human animal relationship and issues around the construction or materiality of gender the body and sexuality Selections explore the underlying biases of medical and scientific experiments and explode the binary of the sound and the diseased mind The collection addresses physical disabilities but as always investigates issues around pain mental disability and invisible disabilities as well Featuring a new generation of scholars who are dealing with the most current issues the fifth edition continues the Reader's tradition of remaining timely urgent and critical Queer Christianities Kathleen T. Talvacchia, 2015 Queerness and Christianity often depicted as mutually exclusive both challenge received notions of the good and the natural Nowhere is this challenge more visible than in the identities faiths and communities that queer Christians have long been creating As Christians they have staked a claim for a Christianity that is true to their self understandings How do queer identified persons understand their religious lives And in what ways do the lived experiences of queer Christians respond to traditions and reshape them in contemporary practice Queer Christianities integrates the perspectives of queer theory religious studies and Christian theology into a lively conversation both transgressive and traditional about the fundamental questions surrounding the lives of queer Christians The volume contributes to the emerging scholarly discussion on queer religious experiences as lived both within communities of Christian confession as well as outside of these established communities Organized around traditional Christian states of life celibacy matrimony and what is here provocatively conceptualized as promiscuity this work reflects the ways in which queer Christians continually reconstruct and multiply the forms these states of life take Queer Christianities challenges received ideas about sexuality and religion yet remains true to Christian self understandings that are open to further enquiry and to further queerness Blackness and Disability Christopher M. Bell, 2012-02-01 Disability Studies diverge from the medical model of disability which argues that disabled subjects can and should be fixed to view disability as socially constructed much in the same way other identities are The work of reading black and disabled bodies is not only recovery work but work that requires a willingness to deconstruct the systems that would keep those bodies in separate spheres This pivotal volume uncovers the misrepresentations of black disabled bodies and demonstrates how those bodies transform systems and culture Drawing on key themes in Disability Studies and African American Studies these collected essays complement one another in interesting and dynamic ways to forge connections across genres and chronotopes an invitation to keep blackness and disability in conversation With an analysis of disability as a result of war studies of cognitive impairment and slavery in fiction representations of slavery and violence in photography deconstructions of illness cancer and AIDS narratives comparative analyses of black and Latina o and black and African subjects analysis of treatments of disability in hip hop and commentary on disability blackness and war this volume shows that the historical lines of demarcation in this field are permeable and should be challenged Undomesticated Ground Stacy Alaimo, 2000 From Mother Earth to Mother Nature women have for centuries been associated with nature Feminists troubled by the way in which such representations show women controlled by powerful natural forces and confined to domestic space have sought to distance themselves from nature In Undomesticated Ground Stacy Alaimo issues a bold call to reclaim nature as feminist space Her analysis of a remarkable range of feminist writings as well as of popular journalism visual arts television and film powerfully demonstrates that nature has been and continues to be an essential concept for feminist theory and practice Alaimo urges feminist theorists to rethink the concept of nature by probing the vastly different meanings that it carries She discusses its significance for Americans engaged in social and political struggles from for example the Indian Wars of the early nineteenth century to the birth control movement in the 1920s to contemporary battles against racism and heterosexism Reading works by Catherine Sedgwick Mary Austin Emma Goldman Nella Larson Donna Haraway Toni Morrison and others Alaimo finds that some of these writers strategically invoke nature for feminist purposes while others cast nature as a postmodern agent of resistance in the service of both environmentalism and the women s movement By examining the importance of nature within literary and political texts this book greatly expands the parameters of the nature writing genre and establishes nature as a crucial site for the cultural work of feminism Disability Studies Sharon L. Snyder, Brenda Jo Brueggemann, Rosemarie Garland-Thomson, 2022-11-01 Images of disability pervade language and literature yet disability is as the volume s introduction notes the ubiquitous unspoken topic in contemporary culture The twenty five essays in Disability Studies provide perspectives on disabled people and on disability in the humanities art the media medicine psychology the academy and society Edited and introduced by Sharon L Snyder Brenda Jo Brueggemann and Rosemarie Garland Thomson and containing an afterword by Michael B rub author of Life As We Know It the volume is rich in its cast of characters including John Bulwer Teresa de Cartagena Audre Lorde Oliver Sacks Samuel Johnson Mark Twain Walt Whitman in its powerful authentic accounts of disabled conditions deafness blindness MS cancer the absence of limbs in its different settings ancient Greece medieval Spain Nazi Germany the modern United States and in its mix of the intellectual and the emotional of subtle theory and plainspoken autobiography

The Ashgate Research Companion to Queer Theory Noreen Giffney, Michael O'Rourke, 2016-03-23 This interdisciplinary volume of thirty original essays engages with four key concerns of gueer theoretical work identity discourse normativity and relationality. The terms gueer and theory are put under interrogation by a combination of distinguished and emerging scholars from a wide range of international locations in an effort to map the relations and disjunctions between them These contributors are especially attendant to the many theoretical discourses intersecting with queer theory including feminist theory LGBT studies postcolonial theory psychoanalysis disability studies Marxism poststructuralism critical race studies and posthumanism to name a few This Companion provides an up to the minute snapshot of queer scholarship from the past two decades and identifies many current directions queer theorizing is taking while also signposting several fruitful avenues for future research This book is both an invaluable and authoritative resource for scholars and an indispensable teaching tool for use in the classroom

Hammack, Bertram J. the history of higher education in the United States Cohler, 2009-03-06 This book assembles a diverse group of scholars working within a new pathbreaking paradigm of sexual science fusing perspectives from history sociology and psychology. The contributors are united in their commitment to the idea of narrative as central to the study of sexual identity offering an analytic approach to social science inquiry on sexual identity that restores the voices of sexual subjects The result is a rich examination of lives in context with an eye toward multiplicity and meaning across the life course Central to the chapters in this volume is the significance of history generation and narrative in the provision of a workable and meaningful configuration of identity Imagine Nation Peter Braunstein, Michael William Doyle, 2013-07-04 Amidst the recent flourishing of Sixties scholarship Imagine Nation is the first collection to focus solely on the counterculture Its fourteen provocative essays seek to unearth the complexity and rediscover the society changing power of significant movements and figures Encyclopedia of Contemporary Writers and Their Work Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of authors associated with the English language fiction of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Pedagogy, Image Practices, and Contested Corporealities Sarah Brophy, Janice Hladki, 2016-02-05 This volume focuses on popular film television and online representations of contested corporealities and contributes to visual culture studies disability studies critical pedagogy and medical humanities Emphasizing unruly embodiments that transgress and transform the volume conceptualizes visual culture as a space of query and accountability In their introduction the editors underline how spaces of cultural production provide necessary contexts for analyzing the social impact of contested corporealities Contributors in turn offer new perspectives on technologies disability and cultural production Eunjung Kim argues that life size dolls in contemporary art films show how acts of caring for radically passive bodies can emerge as both erotic and beautiful Nicole Markoti critiques the prioritizing of death as the most desirable logical outcome in biopics of disability and Katherine W Sweaney's article on the online anatomization of an amnesiac's brain reminds us of the high stakes for medicine and science in the public display of knowledge making Working at the intersection of fat and critical race studies Scott Stoneman discusses the body politics of the film Precious Katerie Gladdys and Deshae E Lott reflect on their lyrical installation about life with mechanical ventilation and Ann Fudge Schormans and Adrienne Chambon examine how image making by persons with intellectual disabilities can intervene in ableist defined social space With attention to queer theory and transnationalism Michael Gill considers the British web based RTV program The Specials where young men labeled as intellectually disabled fashion their erotic self understandings as they discuss and appreciate an ensemble of Thai kathoey performers Concentrating on the global politics of organ transplantation Donna McCormack critically examines feature films that mediate questions of community ethics and mobility The volume is further enriched by the inclusion of an interview in which Danielle Peers Melisa Brittain and Robert McRuer discuss the significance of crip possibilities in art and academia This book was originally published as a special issue of The Review of Education Pedagogy and Cultural Studies Country Scott Herring, 2010-06-01 The metropolis has been the near exclusive focus of gueer scholars and gueer cultures in America Asking us to look beyond the cities on the coasts Scott Herring draws a new map tracking how rural queers have responded to this myopic mindset Interweaving a wide range of disciplines art media literature performance and fashion studies he develops an extended critique of how metronormativity saturates LGBTQ politics artwork and criticism To counter this ideal he offers a vibrant theory of queer anti urbanism that refuses to dismiss the rural as a cultural backwater Impassioned and provocative Another Country expands the possibilities of gueer studies beyond its city limits Herring leads his readers from faeries in the rural Midwest to photographs of white supremacists in the deep South from Roland Barthes s obsession with Parisian fashion to a graphic memoir by Alison Bechdel set in the Appalachian Mountains and from cubist paintings in Lancaster County to lesbian separatist communes on the northern California coast The result is an entirely original account of how gueer studies can and should get to another country
