Queerying Evangelism:

Qu(e)rying Evangelism Cheri DiNovo, 2005 The book chronicles Cheri DiNovo's own attempts as a minister to expand the membership of a rapidly shrinking congregation in a poor inner city Toronto neighborhood. As a result, DiNovo discovers that in her congregation's decision to evangelize among the marginalized and queer in their neighborhood, church members are radically changed by realizing how queer or different they are themselves. Jacket Unlocking Orthodoxies for Inclusive Theologies Robert E. Shore-Goss, Joseph N. Goh, 2019-11-28 This book enters a new liminal space between the LGBTQ and denominational Christian communities. It simultaneously explores how those who identify as queer can find a home in church and how those leading welcoming or indeed unwelcoming congregations can better serve both communities. The primary argument is that queer inclusion must not merely mean an assimilation into existing heteronormative respectability and approval. Chapters are written by a diverse collection of Asian, Latin American, and U.S. theologians, religious studies scholars, and activists. Each of them writes from their own social context to address the notion of LGBTQ alternative orthodoxies and praxes pertaining to God, the saints, failure of the church, queer eschatologies, and erotic economies. Engaging with issues that are not only faced by those in the theological academy but also by clergy and congregants, the book addresses those impacted by a history of Christian hostility and violence who have become suspicious of attempts at acceptance. It also sets out an encouragement for queer theologians and clergy to think deeply about how they form communities where queer perspectives are proactively included. This is a forward-looking and positive vision of a more inclusive theology and ecclesiology. It will therefore appeal to scholars of Queer Theology and Religious Studies as well as practitioners seeking a fresh perspective on church and the LGBTQ community. Criminology and Queer Theory Matthew Ball, 2016-07-13 This book offers critical reflections on the intersections between criminology and queer scholarship and charts future directions for this field. Since their development over twenty-five years ago, queer scholarship and politics have been hotly contested fields, equally embraced and dismissed. Amid calls for criminology and criminal justice institutions to respond more effectively to the injustices faced by LGBTIQ people, criminologists have recently developed a Queer Criminology and turned to queer scholarship in the process. Through a sweeping analysis of critical criminologies as well as issues as varied as shame and utopian thought, Matthew Ball points to the many opportunities for criminology to engage further with the more politically disruptive strands of queer scholarship. His analysis highlights that criminology and queer theory are dangerous bedfellows and that navigating the tension between them is central to confronting the social and criminal injustices experienced by LGBTIQ communities. This book will be of particular interest for scholars of criminology, criminal justice, LGBTIQ studies, gender studies, and critical theory. Trans-Gender Justin Sabia-Tanis, 2018-06-25 Rev. Dr. Justin Sabia-Tanis is a creative, queer theologian and activist with a wealth of pastoral experience. His classic Transgendered Theology: Ministry and Communities of Faith is now available again for faith communities and university students struggling to include trans people.

It is a primer for understanding the spiritual journeys of transgendered people examining the biblical support for inclusion and provides faith communities guidelines for hospitality His notion of gender as a calling is a creative theological proposal for all of us to recognize our own gender calling and the diverse callings of the marginalized Sabia Tanis imaginatively uses the image of twilight space of dawn and dusk in between space occupied by trans people His theology impacted my own commitment to transgendered rights and inclusion At this time of conservative religious targeting the advances of transgendered people we need the prophetic theological voice of Justin Sabia Tanis compassionate inclusion Rev Dr Robert E Shore Goss Queer Theologian and author of Jesus Acted Up Justin gives tremendous insight into life at the intersection of gender identity and faith As a transgender Latina religious leader and psychotherapist I have referenced Justin s book in workshops and discussion groups to help allies and advocates of the transgender community to understand and promote acceptance of the transgender community Justin s book is a must read for clergy who want to integrate transgender community members in to their congregations Nicole M Garcia MDiv MA LPC Transgendered Theology Ministry and Communities of Faith remains a trailblazing work in the exploration of transgender identities gender variance and Scripture and responses of exclusion and inclusion conveyed by communities of faith Dr Sabia Tanis wide ranging research and candid conversations about transgender persons seeking faithful spiritual identity provides a helpful framework for transgender people and for families friends and communities who want to support us Outlining explicit and implicit barriers to participation Sabia Tanis challenges faith communities to offer genuine hospitality and welcome to transgender and gender non conforming people offering several ways to extend such welcome including liturgical resources created specifically for the transgender community This text continues to be a valuable resource for my parish ministry pastoral care professional writing and personal reflection I am grateful to see it back in print Rev Dr David Weekley Handbook of LGBT Communities, Crime, and Justice Dana Peterson, Vanessa R. Panfil, 2013-12-04 Contemporary scholars have begun to explore non normative sexual orientation gender identity and gender expression in a growing victimization literature but very little research is focused on LGBTQ communities patterns of offending beyond sex work and their experiences with police the courts and correctional institutions This Handbook the first of its kind in Criminology and Criminal Justice will break new ground by presenting a thorough treatment of all of these under explored issues in one interdisciplinary volume that features current empirical work Edward Lear and the Play of Poetry James Williams, Matthew Bevis, 2016-08-25 Of all the Victorian poets Edward Lear has a good claim to the widest audience admired and championed by critics and poets from John Ruskin to John Ashbery he has also been read heard and loved by generations of children As a central figure in the literature of nonsense Lear has also shaped the evolution of modern literature and his work continues to influence and inspire writers and readers today This collection of essays the first ever devoted solely to Lear builds on a recent resurgence of critical interest and asks how it is that the play of Lear s poetry continues to delight and to challenge our sense of what poetry can be These seventeen chapters written by established and emerging critics of poetry seek to explore and appreciate the playfulness embodied in the poems and to provide contexts in which it can be better understood and enjoyed They consider how Lear s poems play off various inheritances the literary fool Romantic lyric his religious upbringing explore particular forms in which his playful genius took flight his letters his queer writings about love and trace lines of Learical influence and inheritance by showing how other poets and thinkers across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries played off Lear in their turn Joyce Stein Eliot Auden Smith Ashbery and others Inventing Edward Lear Sara Lodge,2018-11-30 Inventing Edward Lear is an exceptional valuable original study presenting new materials on aspects of Lear s life and work Jenny Uglow author of Mr Lear and The Lunar Men Edward Lear wrote some of the best loved poems in English including The Owl and the Pussycat but the father of nonsense was far more than a poet He was a naturalist a brilliant landscape painter an experimental travel writer and an accomplished composer Sara Lodge presents the fullest account yet of Lear s passionate engagement in the intellectual social and cultural life of his times Lear had a difficult start in life He was epileptic asthmatic and depressive but even as a child a consummate performer who projected himself into others affections He became by John James Audubon s estimate one of the greatest ornithological artists of the age Queen Victoria an admirer chose him to be her painting teacher He popularized the limerick set Tennyson s verse to music and opened fresh doors for children and adults to share fantasies of magical escape Lodge draws on diaries letters and new archival sources to paint a vivid picture of Lear that explores his musical influences his religious nonconformity his relationship with the Pre Raphaelite movement and the connections between his scientific and artistic work He invented himself as a character awkward but funny absurdly sympathetic In Lodge s hands Lear emerges as a dynamic and irreverent polymath whose conversation continues to draw us in Inventing Edward Lear is an original and moving account of one of the most intriguing and creative of all Victorians

Religious Remembrancer ,1917 Woman's Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church ,1920 Sanctuary Adey Wassink,Katie Imborek,Tom Wassink,2024-10-08 The inspiring story of a church that became inclusive and wound up healthier and happier As they welcomed LGBTQ members this Iowa congregation transformed into a more caring Christian community The Queering of an American Evangelical Jeff Hood,2013-09-15 The Heart of Evangelism Jerram Barrs,2005-02-08 All Christians are called Called to love God with all that we are Called to serve Him Called to reach out to the lost However if we are honest the majority of us would admit that we find this last calling the most difficult While we gladly support the evangelistic ministries of others many of us feel discouraged by our own attempts at witnessing because our memorized approaches don t seem to work This biblical study of evangelism gracefully reminds us that the New Testament model of witnessing is not a one size fits all methodology With compassion for the lost filling every page Jerram Barrs shows the variety of approaches used in the New Testament where the same uncompromised Gospel was packaged as differently as the audience and calls you to follow its example You can learn to witness comfortably in your particular circumstances so that sharing Christ doesn't feel like a chore And as you watch God work in the lives of others and see the great blessings He brings you'll discover what a privilege it is to live out the heart of evangelism truly loving others to Christ
