Tales of Seduction Sarah Wright, 2007-10-24 Don Juan is one of the most intriguing creations of Western literature a perpetual source of fascination. In the popular imagination he exists as a legendary seducer of women a trickster and transgressor of sacred boundaries. Crossing cultures from east to west he has been the recipient of countless revisions while the twentieth century has viewed the figure afresh through the prism of its own cultural terms of reference and social concerns. Using an interdisciplinary approach Tales of Seduction focuses on the fascinating intersections between myth culture and intellectual inquiry. Sarah Wright takes Don Juan back to Spain and examines the confluences of Spanish culture with aspects of Western intellectual history such as medicine psychoanalysis and linguistics where she finds Don Juan continues to transgress the limits of culture until the present.

Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime. In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism. In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis García Berlanga and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Seor Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana. The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura José Luis Borau Víctor Erice and others. After Franco's death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War. The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted. While established directors like Saura, Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almodóvar Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown. In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amenabar's Thesis José Luis García's The Grandfather and Almodóvar's Talk to Her and Volver. In Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80s and 90s and into the present day. Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema. In addition to identifying
