Levinas and Education Denise Egea-Kuehne, 2008-04-02 This first book length collection on Levinas and education gathers new texts written especially for this volume by an international group of scholars well known for their work in philosophy educational theory and on Levinas It provides an introduction to some of Levinas s major themes of ethics justice hope hospitality forgiveness and more as its contributing authors address some fundamental educational issues such as what it means to be a teacher what it means to learn from a teacher the role of language in the curriculum literature ethics and education moral education and human relations in schools ethics of responsibility and philosophical pedagogical discourse educational hospitality and interculturalism unconditional responsibility and education educating for participatory democratic citizenship the pedagogy of peace logic rationality and ethics connecting teaching to spirituality Levinas always insisted that his aim was not to provide a program and accordingly it is not the intent of the authors to look in Levinas s texts for a set of guidelines rules or precepts to be applied to education Rather this study invites educators and researchers in philosophy and philosophy of education to a thoughtful and critical reading of Levinas and to engage with his unique style of analysis and questioning as they uncover with these authors the necessity and the possibility of thinking education anew in terms of ethics justice responsibility hope and faith

Timing and Temporality in Islamic Philosophy and Phenomenology of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2007-09-19 From time immemorial concern with timing of life has been crucial for the regulation of human praxis as well as for the philosophical quest to understand existence by seeking its meaning The two used to inform each other until modernity when they parted In spite of the extensive progress in manipulating change and motion and of the abundance of metaphysical attempts to enlighten human beings about their fate the puzzling nature of temporality and timing of reality remains controversial The present collection of studies seeks a new answer by initiating a novel investigation informed by the ancient wisdom of the Greco Arabic Islamic sources and inheritance on the one side and the contemporary discernment of Occidental phenomenology of life on the other in a common dialogical effort to unravel this great enigma of existence Papers by Anna Teresa Tymieniecka William C Chittick Reza Akbarian Daniela Verducci Michael F Andrews Seyyed Mohammed Khamenei Nader El Bizri Mehdi Aminrazavi Massimo Durante Abdul Rahim Afaki Maria Chiara Teloni A L Samian Kathleen Haney Jad Hatem Robert J Dobie Michel Dion The Challenge of God Colby Dickinson, Hugh Miller, Kathleen McNutt, 2020-01-23 In view of the double vocative that characterizes the relation of Creator to creature this book offers critiques of modern and postmodern philosophy for the ways in which they have separated philosophy theology and spirituality This collection examines the complicated relationship of God to Being and the meaning of Revelation as well as highlighting the context and the role of the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola Discussions include the Catholic Principle and its relevance in contemporary times and Christian epic visionaries such as Dante Milton Blake and Joyce providing scholars a forum to debate their theological identity and its meaning for future studies This volume contributes a unique engagement from many perspectives with the Catholic intellectual tradition in its philosophical theological spiritual literary and artistic dimensions

Rethinking Philosophy and Theology with Deleuze Brent Adkins, Paul R. Hinlicky, 2013-04-11 The debate between faith and reason has been a dominant feature of Western thought for more than two millennia This book takes up the problem of the relation between philosophy and theology and proposes that this relation can be reconceived if both philosophy and theology are seen as different ways of organising affects Brent Adkins and Paul R Hinlicky break new ground in this timely debate in two ways Firstly they lay bare the contemporary dependence on Kant and propose that our Kantian inheritance leaves us with an insuperable dualism Secondly the authors argue that the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze provides a way of resolving the debate between faith and reason that does justice to philosophy and theology by reconceiving of both as assemblages Deleuze's philosophy differentiates domains of thought in terms of what they create This seems like a particularly fruitful way to pursue the problem of the relations among philosophy and theology because it allows their distinction without at the same time placing them in opposition to one another Emmanuel Levinas' Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology Alain Mayama, 2010 Emmanuel Levinas Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology analyzes Levinas work in relation to two important liberation theologians Gustavo Guti rrez and Jon Sobrino whose scholarship like his needs to be brought into greater contemporary debate about the subject's encounter with the other More specifically this book argues that for Levinas Guti rrez and Sobrino commitment to the neighbor is the necessary context for understanding God They posit the human other as the possibility of the subject's subjectivity To be human is to act with love toward one's neighbor. Thus the author articulates the possibility of reading Levinas philosophy as a revalidation of one of the truths of Christianity: the concern for the humanity of every human person as expressed in Christian theology in general and liberation theology in particular. In order to show the relevance of Levinas philosophy for Christian theology in general, the author discusses three Christian scholars: Enrique Dussel, Jean-Luc Marion, and Michael Purcell. Although they challenge some aspects of Levinas philosophy, they nevertheless see its significance for Christian theological anthropology. The discussion concludes by proposing Levinas philosophy and liberation theology's turn to the neighbor as significant for addressing contemporary socio-political and ethnic conflicts in sub-Saharan Africa.

Approaches to Human Geography Stuart C. Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2014-12-01. The book covers some of the traditionally most obtuse and difficult to grasp philosophical ideas that have influenced geography. The fact that these are presented in an inclusive and accessible manner is a key strength. Many students have commented that the chapters they have read have encouraged them to read more in this field, which is fantastic from a lecturer's perspective. Richard White, Sheffield Hallam University. A new edition of the classic Approaches text for students, organised in three sections which overview and explain the history and philosophy of Human Geographies in all its applications by those who practise it. Section One: Philosophies, Positivist Geography, Humanism, Feminist Geographies, Marxism's Structuration Theory, Human-Animal Realism, Postmodern Geographies, Poststructuralist Theories, Actor-Network Theory, Postcolonialism, Geohumanities, Technologies. Section Two: People, Institutions and Cultures, Places and Contexts, Memories and Desires, Understanding Place, Personal and Political, Becoming a Geographer, Movement and Encounter, Spaces and Flows, Places as Thoughts. Section Three: Practices, Mapping and Geovisualization, Quantification, Evidence and Positivism, Geographic Information Systems, Humanism, Activism, Feminist Geographies, Poststructuralist Theories, Psychoanalysis, Environmental Inquiry, Contested Geographies and Culture Wars. Fully updated throughout and with eight brand new chapters, this is the core text for modules on history, theory and practice in Human Geography.

Approaches to Human Geography Stuart Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2006-01-27. Approaches to Human Geography is the essential student primer on theory and practice in Human Geography. It is a systematic review of the key ideas and debates informing post-war geography, explaining how those ideas work in practice. Avoiding jargon while attentive to the rigor and complexity of the ideas that underlie geographic knowledge, the text is written for students who have not met philosophical or theoretical approaches before. This is a beginning guide to geographic research and practice.

Thinking about Thinking Adriaan Theodoor Peperzak, 2012. This essay in metaphilosophy aims at showing that philosophy is indeed a conversation by clarifying many, if not all, features that determine the philosophical practice as provocative, responsive, dialogical, communitarian, educational and transformative. Since philosophical thought is also rooted in a dimension of faith, this basic relation is made explicit and concretized through analyses of a particular form of interaction between faith and philosophy.

Happiness Randy Alcorn, 2015-09-17. Do you ever wonder whether God even cares if we're happy? This world can be so hard and we aren't promised an easy road. But that's not the whole story. The Bible is filled with verses that prove that ours is a God who not only loves celebrations but also desperately wants his children to experience happiness. Why else would he go to the lengths he did to ensure our eternal happiness in his presence? We know that we will experience unimaginable joy and happiness in heaven, but that doesn't mean we can't also experience joy and happiness here on earth. In Happiness, noted theologian Randy Alcorn, bestselling author of Heaven, dispels centuries of misconceptions about happiness, including downright harmful ideas like the prosperity gospel, and provides indisputable proof that God not only wants us to be happy, he commands it. Randy covers questions like: How can I cultivate happiness in my life? What's the difference between joy and happiness? Can good things become idols that steal our happiness? Is seeking happiness selfish? How can I achieve happiness through gratitude? What does it look like to receive God's grace? The most definitive study on the subject of happiness to date, this book is a paradigm-shifting wake-up call for the church and Christians everywhere. Trust: Who Or What Might Support Us? Adriaan T. Peperzak, 2013-01-02. Without trust in other persons, social connections, a host of natural phenomena, and events, cultural symbols and structures, historical traditions, and religious or quasi-religious interpretation, no human life is possible. What is trust, and how does it unfold in the various dimensions that compose human existence in a world of exhilarating splendor and incomprehensible horror? Paths Not Taken Paul R. Hinlicky, 2009-08-13. In this book, Paul Hinlicky suggests that, to the detriment of the church as a whole, Martin Luther's legacy did not unfold as he himself would have hoped or expected. Paths Not Taken analyzes the unhappy fate of theology in the tradition of Luther through the pivotal early modern theological philosopher Gottfried Leibniz. Through this lens, Hinlicky shows how the twofold intention of reforming the Church according to the gospel and providing a Christian philosophy of culture for a renewed Christendom diverged along the way. In his conclusion, Hinlicky considers three outstanding contemporary representatives of theology in Luther's tradition: Pannenberg, Jüngel, and Jenson, and settles on a path to be taken by Lutheran theology after Christendom and after modernity. Solidarity with the World Carolyn A. Chau, 2016-11-15. Is Christian mission even possible today?

In a secular age, is it possible to talk about the goodness of God in a compelling way? How should the church proceed? Carolyn Chau explores the question of Catholic mission in a secular age through a constructive interpretation of the work of two celebrated Catholic thinkers: philosopher Charles Taylor and theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar, arguing that Taylor and Balthasar together offer a promising path for mission today. Chau attends to Taylor's account of the conditions of belief today and the genesis of the sociohistorical limits on contemporary God-talk, as well as his affirmation of certain aspects of Western modernity's culture. From Balthasar, Chau sifts out the distinctiveness of his view of the human person as defined by mission and his encouragement of a kenotic self-understanding of the church. In the end, Chau claims that if modern persons in secular Western societies are seeking fulfillment and integrity, Christian spirituality remains a rich resource to offer. The
